[Phyllis Ann Briscoe (above) married 22 Nov 1946 Roseburg, OR she was a veteran of WWII Robert Browning (lives in Roseburg).
Children: Capitola Browning Lucas of Redding, Calfornia
Ann Browning Orr of Medford, Oregon

Note: Caroline Haines Willis was my great Aunt.
Her parents were Alfred Haines and Sarah Nixon - Quaker family
I have a bit more on them if it interest you.

Judge William Ross Willis was a lot older than Caroline. He was a Judge in Douglas County, well thought of. Lost his fortune. Their home still stands in Roseburg, We are trying to save it from being torn down. They entertained President Hayes when he visited here.

Editorial note--All Willis descendants are deeply indebted to Mrs. Bacon for the skill and energy with which she so generously compiled these records. She compiled them for Homer C. Cooper, 145 Pendleton Drive, Athens, Georgia 30606, who is preparing a book on the early Willis families, including the Oregon branches, and is searching for additional information--particularly obituaries, biographical sketches, and old letters--pertaining to the Willis and related families of Douglas County, Oregon.

Willis May 1979

Later this year our family plans to publish a small book concerning Stephen Willis (born August 20, 1725) & wife Susannah (whose maiden name was Terrell or Dabney) of Hanover County, Virginia, and Rutherford County, North Carolina, and their five children, many grandchildren, and innumerable great-grandchildren (but not later generations). We have already collected considerable information about these four Willis generations but would appreciate your assistance in finding additional data.

Stephen Willis & Susannah had five children: (1) George Willis (1754-1827), who married Susannah Baker (1757-1843) and settled in Wilkes County, Georgia. They were the great-great-great-grandparents of my wife, Patricia Irvin Cooper. (2) Joel Willis (born August 9, 1756), who was living in King and Queen County, Virginia, in 1819. We have four letters he wrote to his brother George, but do not know whom he married nor what children he had. (3) Elizabeth Willis (born September 19, 1758), about whom we have no further information. (4) Stephen Willis (1760-1820), who married Martha Wharey (1761-1846) and settled in Pendleton County, South Carolina, and Red Oak, Brown County, Ohio. Their descendants settled in Putnam County, Illinois, and further west. (5) Susannah Willis (1762-1811), who married Sampson Harris (1763-1807) and settled in Georgia.

We would particularly welcome the following about Stephen & Susannah and their five children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren:

1. The name of the father, maiden name of the mother, and names of brothers and sisters of Stephen Willis (born 1725).
2. Evidence as to whether Susannah's maiden name was Terrell or Dabney. Was she married to a Garland before she married Stephen Willis (born 1725)?
3. Information about Joel Willis (born 1756) of King and Queen County, Virginia: his date & place of death and place of burial; maiden name of his wife and date of their marriage; and the names of their children, if any. Did Joel Willis have relatives in Mobile County, Alabama?
4. Information about Elizabeth Willis (born 1758): her date & place of death and place of burial; name of her husband, if any; where they settled; and the names of their children.
5. Any evidence that the Willis family was related to Barnabas Lipscomb (died about 1809) of New Kent County, Virginia, and Wilkes County, Georgia. Who was Barnabas's wife? He left two children, Rebecca Lipscomb (born about 1795 or earlier) and Baker Lipscomb (born 1797).
6. Any evidence that the Willis family was related to Thomas Claiborne, Roger Tandy, or William Willis, who were living in New Kent County, Virginia, in 1810.
7. The name and address of the present owner of the family Bible of Joel Terrell (1726-1774) of Charlottesville, Virginia, or of any early Willis family Bible or early Willis letters (particularly any written by George Willis of Wilkes County, Georgia) or letters written by Sampson & Susannah Harris of Georgia.

Thank you very much for any assistance you can provide. Even one new name or date or place would be helpful; no doubt much of the information we want has been lost forever, but we want to preserve what can be found today. We would be happy to share our Willis information with any relative, and are grateful for your help.

September 1979 note by Homer C. Cooper, 145 Pendleton Drive, Athens, Georgia 30606: Nearly all of the above families are descendants (or in-laws of descendants) of Stephen Willis (1760-1820) & wife Martha Wharey (1761-1846) of Virginia; Rutherford County, North Carolina; Pendleton District, South Carolina; Brown County, Ohio; and Putnam County, Illinois. We are preparing a small book on the Willis family and would appreciate information on the early generations, particularly any evidence that Stephen Willis (1760-1820) had--or did not have--half-brothers and half-sisters named Garland and obituaries, biographical sketches, and old letters dealing with Stephen & Martha's children and grandchildren and their spouses. Thank you for your help.

Willis May 1979

Later this year our family plans to publish a small book concerning Stephen Willis (born August 20, 1725) & wife Susannah (whose maiden name was Terrell or Dabney) of Hanover County, Virginia, and Rutherford County, North Carolina, and their five children, many grandchildren, and innumerable great-grandchildren (but not later generations). We have already collected considerable information about these four Willis generations but would appreciate your assistance in finding additional data.

Stephen Willis & Susannah had five children: (1) George Willis (1754-1827), who married Susannah Baker (1757-1843) and settled in Wilkes County, Georgia. They were the great-great-great-grandparents of my wife, Patricia Irvin Cooper. (2) Joel Willis (born August 9, 1756), who was living in King and Queen County, Virginia, in 1819. We have four letters he wrote to his brother George, but do not know whom he married nor what children he had. (3) Elizabeth Willis (born September 19, 1758), about whom we have no further information. (4) Stephen Willis (1760-1820), who married Martha Wharey (1761-1846) and settled in Pendleton County, South Carolina, and Red Oak, Brown County, Ohio. Their descendants settled in Putnam County, Illinois, and further west. (5) Susannah Willis (1762-1811), who married Sampson Harris (1763-1807) and settled in Georgia.

We would particularly welcome the following about Stephen & Susannah and their five children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren:

1. The name of the father, maiden name of the mother, and names of brothers and sisters of Stephen Willis (born 1725).
2. Evidence as to whether Susannah's maiden name was Terrell or Dabney. Was she married to a Garland before she married Stephen Willis (born 1725)?
3. Information about Joel Willis (born 1756) of King and Queen County, Virginia: his date & place of death and place of burial; maiden name of his wife and date of their marriage; and the names of their children, if any. Did Joel Willis have relatives in Mobile County, Alabama?
4. Information about Elizabeth Willis (born 1758): her date & place of death and place of burial; name of her husband, if any; where they settled; and the names of their children.
5. Any evidence that the Willis family was related to Barnabas Lipscomb (died about 1809) of New Kent County, Virginia, and Wilkes County, Georgia. Who was Barnabas's wife? He left two children, Rebecca Lipscomb (born about 1795 or earlier) and Baker Lipscomb (born 1797).
6. Any evidence that the Willis family was related to Thomas Claiborne, Roger Tandy, or William Willis, who were living in New Kent County, Virginia, in 1810.
7. The name and address of the present owner of the family Bible of Joel Terrell (1726-1774) of Charlottesville, Virginia, or of any early Willis family Bible or early Willis letters (particularly any written by George Willis of Wilkes County, Georgia) or letters written by Sampson & Susannah Harris of Georgia.

Thank you very much for any assistance you can provide. Even one new name or date or place would be helpful; no doubt much of the information we want has been lost forever, but we want to preserve what can be found today. We would be happy to share our Willis information with any relative, and are grateful for your help.

WILLIS, TERRELL, GARLAND, AND DABNEY FAMILIES OF VIRGINIA AND THE TERRELL FAMILY BIBLE

Homer C. Cooper

145 Pendleton Drive
Athens, Georgia 30606

June 28, 1979

The family Bible of Joel Terrell (1726-1774) of Charlottesville, Albemarle County, Virginia, has been located, which is good news for all interested in Stephen Willis (born 1725) & wife Susannah (born 1721) of Hanover County, Virginia, and Rutherford County, North Carolina, and in their relationships to the early Terrell, Garland, and Dabney families of Virginia and North Carolina.

The Terrell family Bible is now in the possession of Mrs. Sarah Erwin Montgomery Fain (Route 5, Box 511, Boone, North Carolina 28607). We are indebted to Mrs. Fain and Mrs. Sidney R. Evans, Sr., (Route 3, Highway 100, Rome, Georgia 30161) for depositing photocopies of the Bible's Terrell, Willis, Garland, and other records with the Georgia Department of Archives and History, 330 Capitol Avenue SE, Atlanta, Georgia 30334, and to Mrs. Donald Rose of Clearwater, Florida, for bringing them to our attention. These photocopies are designated as follows by the Georgia Archives:

> Bible records of the Terrell, Erwin, Willis, Edwards, and Griffin families. Xerox copy. Accession 77-478, September 19, 1977.

According to Mrs. Fain and Mrs. Evans, the Bible is covered in kidskin, with the cover sewed on by hand. The title page states that the Bible was published in 1749 in Oxford, England.

Attached are photocopies of the family records from the Terrell Bible, which were recorded on blank pages at three different places in the Bible. Since the Willis, Garland, and Griffin births were recorded in an ink which has faded badly over the years, a typescript of those birth entries, which are all on one page, follows the photocopy of that page. Examination of the Joel Terrell family Bible records and other evidence submitted below leads to the following conclusions and questions:

1. Our Willis Family. The Willis birth entries in the Terrell Bible pertain to our Willis family, since the date of birth for George Willis (1754-1827) is the same as that on his headstone in the family cemetery in the Donegal District (Georgia Militia District 168) in Wilkes County, Georgia, and the date of birth in the Bible for Stephen Willis (1760-1820) of Pendleton District, South Carolina, and Red Oak, Brown County, Ohio, is the same as that known to his descendants.

2. Joel Willis (born 1756). The Terrell Bible states that "Joel Willis was born August 9th 1756." Emma Dicken, in her Terrell Genealogy, 1952, Page 84, gives his name as Joel Terrell Willis. Where did she find a record giving his middle name as Terrell? We know from old letters written by Joel to his brother George that, in 1818, Joel Willis was living in King and Queen County, Virginia, and had a son (not named in the letters) who had a family, but we have no further information about Joel and family. Does anyone know the name and address of a descendant?

3. Elizabeth Willis (born 1758). The Bible birth entries advise that "Elizabeth Willis was born September 19th 1758." Whom did she marry? Where did they settle? Who were their children? Further information about Elizabeth would be welcomed!

4. Susannah Willis (born 1762), who married Sampson Harris (1763-1807) and lived in Wilkes County, Greene County, McIntosh County, and Morgan County, Georgia, where she died in 1811. The Terrell Bible states that "Susanah Willis was born Novem^{r} 20th 1762," whereas some of her descendants have insisted that her full maiden name was Susannah Terrell Willis. Is there any early record, such as a Harris family Bible, which confirms that she had the Terrell middle name?

5. Was Susannah (born 1721) a Terrell or Dabney? The presence of the Willis births in the family Bible of Joel Terrell (1726-1774) supports the conclusion that the maiden name of Susannah (born 1721), wife of Stephen Willis (born 1725), was Terrell. This conclusion is consistent with statements by (1) William Terrell Lewis (1811-1893), Genealogy of the Lewis Family in America, Courier-Journal Job Printing Company, Louisville, Kentucky, 1893, Page 345; (2) William Henry Harrison Terrell (1827-1884), Lynch Moore Terrell (1834-1924), & Robert Williams Carroll, The Terrell Family, Typescript (copy in Georgia Archives), Cincinnati, Ohio, 1890, Page 71; and (3) Emma Dicken (1873-1952), Terrell Genealogy, Naylor Company, San Antonio, Texas, 1952, Page 84.

The conclusion that Susannah was a Terrell is further supported by a deed (Albemarle County, Virginia, Deed Book 4, Pages 187-189) of September 5, 1765, in which Joel Terrell of Albemarle County, Israel Burnley and Isham Richardson of Louisa County, and Stephen Willis of Hanover County conveyed, for 75 pounds,400 acres on Stocktons Creek in Albemarle County to Samuel Davidson. That Joel Terrell (1726-1774), Israel Burnley, Isham Richardson, and Stephen Willis owned land jointly, perhaps inherited from Joel Terrell (born about 1692; died 1758), is consistent with Emma Dicken's statement (Terrell Genealogy, page 81) that Burnley, Richardson, and Willis married sisters of Joel Terrell (1726-1774).

My opinion that Susannah, wife of Stephen Willis, was a Terrell is contrary to the long-standing tradition in the George Willis (1754-1827) branch of the family that she was born a "Miss Dabney" (given name not known). The case for a Dabney maiden name has been well presented by Catherine Heard Robertson (born 1892) in her George Willis of King William County, Virginia, and Wilkes County, Georgia, typescript (copies in the Georgia Archives and Virginia State Library), Augusta, Georgia, 1975, and is based on the following:

(1) George Willis (1754-1827) left an old leather-bound journal which included a brief account of his trip from Virginia to Georgia in 1784. His entry for December 19, 1784, reads "the 19th I went to my uncle Jeams Dabney."

(2) George Willis & wife Susannah Baker (1757-1843) had seven children, with three being George Dabney Willis (born 1780); James Dabney Willis (1793-1861); and Elizabeth Dabney Willis (1796-1885), who was married to Rev. John Holmes Milner (1792-1857), settled in Pike County, Georgia, and became the great-great-grandmother of my wife, Patricia Irvin Cooper.

(3) Lucy B. A. Willis (1836-1900), who was a granddaughter of George Willis & wife Susannah Baker and was married first to Wylie Hill DuBose (1834-1862)

3. Elizabeth Willis (born 1758?). The Bible birth entries shows that "Elizabeth Willis was born Saturday [illegible] 1758." Whom did she marry? Where did they settle? Who were their children? Further information about Elizabeth would be welcome.

4. Susannah Willis (born 1757?), who married Simpson Harris (1755-1815), was lived in Wilkes County, Greene County, McIntosh County, and Morgan County, Georgia, where she died in 1842. The Terrell Bible states that "Susannah Willis was born [illegible] 1757," whereas some of her descendants have insisted that her full maiden name was Susannah Terrell Willis. Is there any early record, such as a Harris family Bible, which confirms that she had the Terrell middle name?

5. Was Susannah (born 1721) a Terrell or Dabney? The presence of the Willis births in the family Bible of Joel Terrell (1724-1774) supports the conclusion that the maiden name of Susannah (born 1721), wife of Stephen Willis (born 1722), was Terrell. This conclusion is consistent with statements by (1) William Harris Lewis (1816-1891), Genealogy of the Lewis Family in America, Courier-Journal Job Printing Company, Louisville, Kentucky, 1893, Page 427; (2) William Henry Terrell (1827-1903) and Joseph Terrell (1838-1919) & Robert William Terrell, The Terrell Family, printed in Cincinnati, Ohio, 1890, Page 13; and (3) Emma Dicken (1872-1957), Terrell Genealogy, Naylor Company, San Antonio, Texas, 1952, Page 76.

The conclusion that Susannah was a Terrell is further supported by a deed (Albemarle County, Virginia, Deed Book 4, Pages 287-288) of September 5, 1765, in which Joel Terrell of Albemarle County, Israel Barnley and John Richardson of Louisa County, and Stephen Willis of Hanover County conveyed for 75 pounds 400 acres on Stockton Creek in Albemarle County to Samuel Davidson. That Joel Terrell (1724-1774), Israel Barnley, John Richardson, and Stephen Willis acted jointly, perhaps as heirs of [illegible] Terrell (born about 1667, died 1757), is consistent with Emma Dicken's statement (Terrell Genealogy, Page 61) that Barnley, Richardson, and Willis married sisters of Joel Terrell (1724-1774).

My opinion that Susannah, wife of Stephen Willis, was a Terrell, is contrary to the long-standing tradition in the George Willis (1758-1822) branch of the family that she was born a "Miss Dabney" (given name not known). The case for a Dabney maiden name has been well presented by Catherine Beale Robertson (born 1902) in her George Willis of King William County, Virginia, and Wilkes County, Georgia, typescript copies in the Georgia Archives and Virginia State Library, Augusta, Georgia, 1972, and is based on the following:

(1) George Willis (1758-1822) left an old leather-bound journal which included a brief account of his trip from Virginia to Georgia in 1784. His entry for December 13, 1784, reads "the 13th I went to my uncle [illegible] Dabney."

(2) George Willis & wife Susannah Baker (1762-1843) had seven children, with three named George Dabney Willis (born 1784), [illegible] Dabney Willis (1795-1861), and Elizabeth Dabney Willis (1798-1883), who was married to Rev. John Holmes Milner (1787-1857), settled at Pike County, Georgia, and became the great-great-grandmother of my wife, Patricia Irwin Carter.

(3) Lucy B. A. Willis (1838-1907), who was a granddaughter of George Willis & wife Susannah Baker and who married first to Wylie Hill Rogers (1836-1862) and second to Colonel William Wingfield Simpson (1814-1887), wrote a letter on September 6, 1898, to her cousin, Anna Eliza Heard (1842-1925), wife of James Conquest Cross Black (1842-1928), in which she stated: "George Willis' mother was a Miss Dabney of Virginia--he gave three of his children Dabney for a middle name." In a letter written on December 1, 1900 (three weeks before she died), Mrs. Simpson also wrote to Mrs. Black: " . . . my grandfather married Miss Baker, his mother was a Dabney."

The Dabney evidence cannot be dismissed lightly, but my belief that Susannah was a Terrell is based on the opinion that alternative explanations are available to deal with the Dabney evidence:

(1) James Dabney could have been the great-uncle of George Willis; that is, Miss Dabney could have been the grandmother instead of the mother of George Willis. We do not know who the parents of Stephen Willis (born 1725) were, but possible candidates are the Stephen & Susannah Willis whose daughter, Rebecca Willis (born October 10, 1729) was baptised December 14, 1729 (see Churchill G. Chamberlayne, The Vestry Book and Register of Saint Peter's Parish, New Kent and James City Counties, Virginia, The Library Board, Richmond, Virginia, 1937, Page 500).

(2) Although George Willis & wife Susannah Baker gave the middle name of Dabney to three of their children, that could have resulted from the close association of George & Susannah with the Dabney family, instead of a blood relationship. If I interpret the records in George's old leather-bound journal correctly, George managed the King William County plantation inherited by James Dabney from his father, George Dabney, while James himself lived on his home plantation in Louisa County, Virginia. Further, although we do not know who the parents of Susannah Baker were, there were Baker-Dabney marriages that may have involved her people. The close ties with the Dabney family and respect engendered thereby could have led George and Susannah to name children for George, James, and Elizabeth Dabney.

If we turn to the names George's brother Stephen and sister Susannah, who married Sampson Harris, gave to their children, we find inconclusive evidence. Whereas Stephen Willis (1760-1820) named his oldest Joel Terrell Willis (1783-1786), he also named a later child Elizabeth Dabney Willis (1791-1826), who was married to William Stewart. Susannah and Sampson Harris had a daughter, Susannah Terrell Harris (1801-1874), who married a cousin Benjamin Franklin Harris (1802-1851); Sampson & Susannah gave no children the Dabney name.

(3) Although Mrs. Simpson was consistent in stating that George Willis's mother was a Miss Dabney, she did not know her given name. When read in the context of her letters to Mrs. Black, it is evident that Mrs. Simpson's knowledge of her Virginia ancestors was fragmentary, and such that she could have identified a Miss Dabney as her great-grandmother who was really her great-great-grandmother instead.

Although I believe that the maiden name of Susannah (born 1721), wife of Stephen Willis (born 1725), was Terrell instead of Dabney, more evidence is needed and would be welcomed.

6. Garland. The fact that the Garland births are in the family Bible of Joel Terrell (1726-1774) supports my belief that Susannah Terrell was married to Edward Garland, had eight Garland children, was widowed, then married Stephen Willis, and had the five Willis children whose births are also enumerated on the same page as the Garland births in the Terrell Bible. (My opinion that Susannah was the mother of the eight Garland children as well as of the five Willis children conflicts with the view of Emma Dicken in her Terrell Genealogy, page 82. Miss Dicken attributes the Garland children to an older sister of Susannah whose given name, however, Miss Dicken did not know.) The hypothesis that Susannah was the widow of Edward Garland when she married Stephen Willis (born 1725) is supported by the following evidence:

(1) Susannah's birth in 1721 is not inconsistent with the birth of the first Garland child (Thomas) in 1738, at which time she was almost 17½ years old. The date of birth of the last Garland child (Sarah) in October 1752 means that Edward Garland could have died as early as January 1752, or shortly after Sarah's conception, and the interval between January 1752 and the conception of the first Willis child (George) about January 1754 is of course sufficient to provide for the death of Edward Garland and the remarriage of his widow Susannah to Stephen Willis. An earlier marriage to Edward Garland would also explain why Susannah did not have her first Willis child until she was 33 years of age.

(2) Lyle Willis Gilliland (1847-1889) wrote a long manuscript about the early Willis and Gilliland families, in which he stated, without further elaboration, that his great-grandfather, Stephen Willis (1760-1820), "had some half-brothers and some half-sisters by the name of Garland."

(3) Churchill G. Chamberlayne (editor), The Vestry Book of Saint Paul's Parish, Hanover County, Virginia, 1706-1786, The Library Board, Richmond, Virginia, 1940 (reprinted 1973), provides a record of Vestry "disbursements" to persons who took care of Thomas Dawley, apparently an elderly indigent, as follows:

> October 20, 1753 (Chamberlayne, pages 333-334): disbursement "To Edward Garland for keeping Thomas Dauley &c, 1000."
> November 5, 1754 (page 337): "To Susannah Garland Widdow for Maintaining Thomas Dawley a year, 1000."
> November 11, 1755 (page 358): "To Susannah Garland for keeping Thomas Dawley, 1000."
>
> November 29, 1756 (page 361): "To Stephen Willis for keeping Thomas Dawley," no amount specified.
> November 8, 1757 (page 366): "To Stephen Willis for keeping Thomas Dawley 10½ months & burying him, 1000."

These Vestry disbursement entries pertaining to the care of Thomas Dawley are consistent with my belief that Susannah Terrell was married to Edward Garland, was widowed, and then married Stephen Willis, except that the dates above are not consistent with the birth (October 3, 1752) of the last Garland child and the birth (October 16, 1754) of the first Willis child, unless there was a considerable time lag, such as a year or two, between the end of a maintenance period for Thomas Dawley and the date on which claims were presented to the Vestry and disbursements authorized. That such a lag between time of maintenance and disbursement could occur is indicated by the following disbursement:

> October 20, 1758 (page 371): "To Israel Burnley's account for Dawley, 1..0..0."

By October 20, 1758, Dawley had been dead at least a year and the Burnley account must have predated that.

(4) Two of the children of Susannah, wife of Stephen Willis (born 1725), used Garland when naming children. Stephen Willis (1760-1820) had a daughter, Susanna Garland Willis (1785-1820), who was married to Robert Gilliland. Sampson & Susannah Harris named a son Leroy Garland Harris (1793-1822).

Please send any additional evidence that supports or damages my hypothesis that Susannah Terrell was the widow of Edward Garland when she married Stephen Willis.

7. Other Willis and Garland Bibles? The consistency of the handwriting and ink of the Willis and Garland birth entries in the Terrell Bible suggests that all of the Willis and Garland entries were written by the same person at one sitting; the entries were made after the birth of Susannah Willis in 1762. In addition, the Willis children birth entries precede the the Garland birth entries, despite the fact that the last Garland child was born before the first Willis child. This evidence shows that the Willis and Garland birth records were copied into the Joel Terrell (1726-1774) family Bible after 1762 from earlier records of those births, with a Stephen Willis family Bible and an Edward Garland family Bible being the most likely sources. (If Susannah married both Edward Garland and Stephen Willis, it is possible that a joint Garland-Willis Bible exists. That is,the Garland births could have been entered into a Garland Bible which became a Garland-Willis Bible when Susannah married Stephen. If so, however, why were not the Garland births followed by the Willis births, instead of vice versa, when copied into the Joel Terrell family Bible?)

Where are the Willis and Garland family Bibles today? My guess is that the Willis Bible, if it survives today, is in the possession of a descendant of Joel Willis (born 1756), who remained in Virginia when his father (Stephen Willis) and step-mother (Anna Lewis, widow of Joel Terrell until her marriage to Stephen Willis about 1777) migrated to Rutherford County, North Carolina, about 1780.

If the Willis and Garland family Bibles--or a joint Garland-Willis Bible--could be found, they would probably tell whether Susannah was a Terrell or a Dabney and whether she was married to Edward Garland before marrying Stephen Willis.

We have presented above some inferences and questions drawn from the Joel Terrell (1726-1774) family Bible and other sources. We would be grateful for any additional insights or information, even years from now, that may be discovered. We have no plans to move from our present address above, but any new address for my wife (Patricia Irvin Cooper) and me can be obtained from the Alumni Association, Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio 44074. We shall look forward to hearing from you and would be grateful for any help you can provide.

Willis May 1979

Later this year our family plans to publish a small book concerning Stephen Willis (born August 20, 1725) & wife Susannah (whose maiden name was Terrell or Dabney) of Hanover County, Virginia, and Rutherford County, North Carolina, and their five children, many grandchildren, and innumerable great-grandchildren (but not later generations). We have already collected considerable information about these four Willis generations but would appreciate your assistance in finding additional data.

Stephen Willis & Susannah had five children: (1) George Willis (1754-1827), who married Susannah Baker (1757-1843) and settled in Wilkes County, Georgia. They were the great-great-great-grandparents of my wife, Patricia Irvin Cooper. (2) Joel Willis (born August 9, 1756), who was living in King and Queen County, Virginia, in 1819. We have four letters he wrote to his brother George, but do not know whom he married nor what children he had. (3) Elizabeth Willis (born September 19, 1758), about whom we have no further information. (4) Stephen Willis (1760-1820), who married Martha Wharey (1761-1846) and settled in Pendleton County, South Carolina, and Red Oak, Brown County, Ohio. Their descendants settled in Putnam County, Illinois, and further west. (5) Susannah Willis (1762-1811), who married Sampson Harris (1763-1807) and settled in Georgia.

We would particularly welcome the following about Stephen & Susannah and their five children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren:

1. The name of the father, maiden name of the mother, and names of brothers and sisters of Stephen Willis (born 1725).
2. Evidence as to whether Susannah's maiden name was Terrell or Dabney. Was she married to a Garland before she married Stephen Willis (born 1725)?
3. Information about Joel Willis (born 1756) of King and Queen County, Virginia: his date & place of death and place of burial; maiden name of his wife and date of their marriage; and the names of their children, if any. Did Joel Willis have relatives in Mobile County, Alabama?
4. Information about Elizabeth Willis (born 1758): her date & place of death and place of burial; name of her husband, if any; where they settled; and the names of their children.
5. Any evidence that the Willis family was related to Barnabas Lipscomb (died about 1809) of New Kent County, Virginia, and Wilkes County, Georgia. Who was Barnabas's wife? He left two children, Rebecca Lipscomb (born about 1795 or earlier) and Baker Lipscomb (born 1797).
6. Any evidence that the Willis family was related to Thomas Claiborne, Roger Tandy, or William Willis, who were living in New Kent County, Virginia, in 1810.
7. The name and address of the present owner of the family Bible of Joel Terrell (1726-1774) of Charlottesville, Virginia, or of any early Willis family Bible or early Willis letters (particularly any written by George Willis of Wilkes County, Georgia) or letters written by Sampson & Susannah Harris of Georgia.

Thank you very much for any assistance you can provide. Even one new name or date or place would be helpful; no doubt much of the information we want has been lost forever, but we want to preserve what can be found today. We would be happy to share our Willis information with any relative, and are grateful for your help.

Dear Mr. Grant:

It was surely nice of you to send me a copy of the letter from Willis Freeman. It has given me much to think about as to the Willis Family. Evidently the Willis name was a revered one as the recurrance of "Willis" as a given name goes to show. My grandfather was James Willis Margrave, and was called "Willis" by his family and one of his grandsons, or rather great grandsons is Willis, too. His family said they did not know where the name came from to Grandfather but I could tell them that but more about it I did not know until you got in touch with me.

Did you notice the year 1820 in the entire Willis family? Such a lot of joy and sorrow, mostly sorrow that year. Susanna Garland Willis Gilliland d.Jul 15, 1820; her daughter Fanny d. June 20, as did you youngest sister, Mary Trueheart W. That must have been some accident that took them both at once and her father Stephen Willis died March 27, 1820. One of her brothers was married early in the same year.

This letter brings in a new name, Stewart. Three, no four of Grandmother Jane's brothers and sisters married into the Stewart family. Not my direct line of course but interesting.

You ask why Rev. James Gilliland got a write up in the Hopkins book. A sketch of the family was written by a grandson of Archibald Hopkins, b. Rockingham Co. Va. 1760, the Rev. T.M. Hopkins of Denver Colo. who seemed to have a most ardent admiration for J. Gilliland. It seems that Archibald H. moved 1804 from Va. to Mayslick, Mason Co. Ken. Not liking slavery he went into Ohio looking for a place to make his home. When he came back he told his wife (2nd wife Margaret Shanklin) that he had found his preacher anyway. That was Rev. James Gilliland. He (A.H.) moved to Red Oak, Brown Co. Ohio, 1805. The Presbyterian church there was located in a beech wood. Under the shadow of this church many of our people are buried. He gives a remarkable picture of the service and of the people as they came in as he remembered them. Quote " In 1806 Rev. J.Gilliland became pastor of this church, retaining the position for thirty-six years. He was in some respects a remarkable man. He left a large church in South Car. because he was opposed to slavery and settled here in the woods where his salary never exceeded three hundred dollars a year. He was fifty years in advance of his time on the question of slavery and the use of intoxicating liquors. ---- All through Ohio the farmers owned their stills and a good still was sometimes worth more than the farm. They raised good corn but could not market it. A horse or mule could carry twenty bushels of coun when distilled into liquor, but only six or seven when in the grain, so distilling seemed a necessity.

Mr Gilliland organized in his church both a temperance and an anti-slavery society." He goes on to say"Grandfather had always furnished whiskey for barn raisings, log rollings and in harvest. One day Mr. Gilliland asked him if he could not do without it. AFTER that he had no whiskey. That perhaps accounts for the fact that all his sons and nearly all his grandsons were temperate men. Very soon after he came to Red Oak (May 28, 1808) he was made a ruling elder in the church, which position he held for over forty years. He always stood by his minister.

A daughter of Mr. Gilliland once laughingly said" Mr. Hopkins always consults father about everything, even the marriage of his children."

From further reading of the Hopkins book it seems you were right in stating that the families intermarried. They may still be at it for it seems some of them still live near Red Oak.

Noticing the similiarity of the names with those in the Stephen Willis and Martha Wharey family with those given above it seems that my Great Grandmother named her children for her own brothers and sisters. It was rather confusing until I noticed what had been done. The names seem to be carried down in the families for long periods of time.

My sister is the librarian and I am deputy County Clerk in Inyo County. This library has little genealogical material but as you say I can get material from the State Library which has a good collection. However I have little time as I am very busy most of the time in the office. However when I go to Los Angeles, I try to steal some time for their Gen. department which is very fine. But I do not get to go very often and now that gasoline is rationed it will likely be longer between visits. But I will go before many months for a few days likely and will try to find some Willis material.

Have you found any reference to the name Wafer? That was the name of my gr.gr.grandm. Margrave. Kentucky was where she was married and I believe, born, which is all I know, except the given name was Nancy, and she was a beautiful writer. I have the pages from her family Bible. A treasure!

Very truly yours,

Eleanor Margrave

Eleanor Hopkins Bent, Nov. 28 at Evanston (Ill.) Hospital of pancreatic cancer. She was born on the family farm near Granville, Ill., Feb. 15, 1899, and was one of many Hopkinses and Bents to attend Oberlin between 1862 and the present. Mrs. Bent graduated, as a member of Phi Beta Kappa, in English with a second major in art history. During her student days she was president of the Women's League, chairman of the Honor Court, house president at Cranford and a member of the YWCA cabinet and the Shansi Board.

Following graduation she returned home to assist her father in the family bank until her marriage to George Bent '20 in 1924. They moved to Berea, Ky., where Mr. Bent worked for Berea College until 1946. From then until her death she lived in Kenilworth, Ill., while her husband served as Midwest finance secretary of the American Friends Service Committee till his death in 1964.

She was president of the Oberlin North Shore Women's Club, active in the League of Women Voters, a lifetime member of the Chicago Art Institute, volunteer worker for the Chicago office of the American Friends Service Committee, and for many years taught First Day school for the Lake Forest Friends Meeting.

This quiet, gracious lady had an unusual ability to bring forth the best in everyone she dealt with. Her life was an endless succession of small kindnesses done at the right time.

She is survived by two sons, Wilson H. '48 and George R. '52, a daughter, Eleanor Bent Plank '48, and eight grandchildren including Nancy Bent '75 and David Plank '76.

Memorial gifts may be given to the Hopkins-Whitaker-Bent Oberlin Scholarship Fund.

Rev. Samuel R. McKinstry, t, Oct. 16 in Hazelton, Pa. A retired Presbyterian minister, he was born in Cool Springs, Pa., Nov. 24, 1886. He graduated from Grove City College (1918) and received the B.D. from Auburn Theological Seminary (1921). He earned the S.T.M. at Oberlin.

Eleanor Hopkins Bent was descended from Stephen Willis (1760-1820) and wife Martha Wharey (1761-1846) through their daughter, Jane Wilson Willis (1790-1857), who married William Hopkins.

Willis, Terrell, Dabney, Garland February 12, 1978

We have some new Willis information that will be of interest to you.

1. William Terrell Lewis (1811-1893), in his Genealogy of the Lewis Family in America (published 1893), writes the following about Stephen Willis (born 1725) of Hanover County, Virginia, and Rutherford County, North Carolina:

> After the death of Joel Terrell, Jr., her husband, she (Anna Lewis) married Stephen Willis. . . . In order to save his property Stephen Willis was forced to take the oath of protection by pledging himself not to raise arms against the King of England; but at the same time his son Stephen, by his first wife, was in the army doing good service for the colonies. Stephen Willis's first wife was a sister to Joel Terrell, the first husband of Mrs. Anna Willis. . . . Before the Revolutionary war Mrs. Anna Willis was a member of the Church of England, but always desired to be immersed. After the death of Mr. Willis, her second husband, who was a Presbyterian, she was immersed in the Broad river on the plantation of her son, Joel Terrell, Jr., about three miles southwest of Rutherfordton. (Lewis, pages 344-345)

Since Stephen's son, George Willis (1754-1827), was a member of the Sardis Baptist Church in Wilkes County, Georgia, we have been skeptical of Lewis's statement that Stephen was a Presbyterian. However, we have had recent correspondence with Mrs. Linda H. Wilson (Route 2, Box 85, Georgetown, Ohio 45121) concerning Stephen Willis (1760-1820), son of Stephen and brother of George, who settled first in Pendleton County, South Carolina, and then in Brown County, Ohio. In her letter of February 4, 1978, Mrs. Wilson writes:

> I searched all three volumes of Brown County cemetery inscriptions (one of which Mrs. Wilson was the compiler) and failed to find Stephen Willis's grave. From the Red Oak church records, I feel he is buried there; perhaps he was missed in copying or his stone is underground or a creekstone was used.
> Stephen Willis, an elder of the Straight Creek Presbyterian Church, was accepted at the Red Oak Presbyterian Church, also as an elder, May 6, 1809. The church index, 1807-1819, shows:
>
> | | | | |
> |---|---|---|---|
> | Willis, Betty | Accepted | 1809 | from Straight Creek |
> | Willis, Jenny | | 1809 | |
> | Willis, Martha | | 1809 | from Straight Creek |
> | Willis Stephen | | 1809 | from Straight Creek |
> | Willis, Narcissa | | 1813 | |
>
> In 1815 Stephen Willis leaves $10 to his executor with instructions that it was to be invested in books for his grandsons. He made his mark at the end of his will. He spent the best years of his life helping to build a commonwealth that would give to his descendants the advantages he had been denied.
> There are only three small cemeteries near Red Oak and none of these contains a Willis.

I assume that Betty and Narcissa were Elizabeth Dabney Willis (1791-1826), who married William Stewart, and Martha Narcissa Willis (1794-1826), who married Robert Stewart, both daughters of Stephen Willis (1760-1820) & wife Martha Wharey (1761-1846).

The significance of the above is that the Presbyterian church bulletins may have obituaries for Stephen Willis (born 1725), who died after October 15, 1806, at which time he was already 81 years old (see below), and for Stephen Willis (1760-1820), who died March 27, 1820. Are there North Carolina and Ohio (or Virginia) Presbyterian organs which carry obituaries for these men? If found, they may settle whether Susannah, first wife of Stephen and mother of George and the younger Stephen, was a Terrell or a Dabney, which is a question at present, as you know.

2. At the North Carolina State Archives, Raleigh, North Carolina, I examined the Rutherford County Court Minutes for 1799-1802 (call: C.R.086.301.6), 1803-1806 (call: C.R.086.301.7), and 1806-1810 (call: C.R.086.301.8). Stephen Willis (born 1725) served as a Justice of the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions for many years. The last entry I found for him in a hasty search was in the court record of October 15, 1806, at which time he was already 81 years old. A more careful search might place him as among the living at still later dates, which is important when searching for obituaries.

We found no estate records of any kind for Stephen Willis (born 1725) at Raleigh nor at the courthouse in Rutherfordton.

3. Rutherford County Deed Book 22-23, Deed 285, Page 596. On March 7, 1805, Stephen Willis, Jr., of Pendleton District, South Carolina, conveyed to Stephen Willis, Sr., of Rutherford County, North Carolina, for $185, one-hundred acres on the north side of main Broad River, being part of a grant to John Write "by his majesty" in 1765. Witnesses: Thomas Wharry, Rosanna Willis. (An earlier deed shows that the grant was to John Wright.)

This deed provides proof, if any is needed, that Stephen Willis (1760-1820) did live in South Carolina before moving to Red Oak, Brown County, Ohio.

4. In November, Patricia and I had the privilege of seeing the leather-bound journal kept by George Willis (1754-1827) on his trip from King William County, Virginia, to Wilkes County, Georgia, in 1784. The journal is in the possession of a George Willis descendant in Augusta, Georgia, who generously permitted us to examine it. Since we shall write about this journal and other George Willis matters later, I shall not say more about it now.

5. Mr. Paul A. Grant (P. O. Box 55, Lebanon, Oregon 97355) has typed the family manuscript left by Lyle Willis Gilliland (1847-1889), great-grandson of Stephen Willis (1760-1820). Mr. Gilliland states that Stephen Willis (born 1725) "(probably) came from Wales to Virginia" and that Stephen Willis (1760-1820) "had some half-brothers and some half-sisters by the name of Garland." This latter statement is important for my contention that the first wife of Stephen Willis (born 1725), and therefore mother of George and Stephen, was a Susannah Terrell (born 1721) and that she married a Garland before marrying Stephen Willis.

6. Churchill G. Chamberlayne (editor), The Vestry Book of Saint Paul's Parish, Hanover County, Virginia, 1706-1786, The Library Board, Richmond, Virginia, 1940, has some interesting entries which are consistent with the hypothesis that Susannah was married to Edward Garland (by whom she had children) before she married Stephen Willis. The vestry entries of October 20, 1753, included the following disbursement: "To Edward Garland for keeping Thomas Dauley &c, 1000" (pages 333-334). The entries of November 5, 1754, include: "To Susannah Garland Widdow for Maintaining Thomas Dawley a year, 1000" (page 337); followed by a similar entry of November 11, 1755 (page 358). These entries are then followed by the following for November 29, 1756: "To Stephen Willis for keeping Thomas Dawley" (page 361), and then one of November 8, 1757, to Stephen Willis for "keeping Thomas Dawley 10½ months & burying him, 1000" (page 366).

7. Albemarle County, Virginia, Deed Book 4, Pages 187-189. In an indenture of September 14, 1765, Joel Terrell of Albemarle County, Israel Burnley of Louisa County, Isham Richardson of Louisa County, and Stephen Willis of Hanover County conveyed a tract in Albemarle County to Samuel Davidson of Albemarle County. On page 81 of Emma Dicken, Terrell Genealogy, published about 1952, Miss Dicken states that Burnley, Richardson, and Willis were sons-in-law of Joel Terrell, Senior.

8. Gideon Dowse Harris, Harris Genealogy, Columbus, Mississippi, 1914, pages 28, 56, & 60-68, presents information about Susannah Willis (born 1762), daughter of Stephen Willis (1725) & wife Susannah and sister of George and Stephen, who married Sampson Harris. Among other children, Sampson & Susannah Harris had a daughter named Susan Terrell Harris (born 1800; died October 14, 1875, Columbus, Mississippi), who was married in 1829 to her cousin, Benjamin Harris. Sampson & Susannah Harris also had a son, Leroy Garland Harris, who married Ann Thomas. See Harris Genealogy, pages 27, 64, & 66.

The time has come to prepare a long Willis paper. If you have additional information, please send it to me as soon as convenient. I cannot promise to produce the paper that should be written very soon, but shall do so when an opportunity arises. Thanks for your interest and help.

Please note that my zip code has changed from 30601 to 30606.

To descendants of Stephen Willis (1760-1820) & wife Martha Wharey (1761-1846):

In searching for information about our early Willis ancestors, a cousin found and kindly sent copies of (1) the letter of March 17, 1952, from Wilda Lindley Peterson to Dr. Park Weed Willis and (2) the Stephen Willis family dates of birth, marriage, and death. Copies are attached for you to keep.

In her 1952 letter, Mrs. Peterson mentions three letters--dated November 22, 1878; December 3, 1882; & February 7, 1883--written by her great-grandmother, Ann Stewart Willis Mitchell, to her mother, Carrie Hare Lindley. Does anyone know where these three letters are today? (They are not in the Park Weed Willis papers in the University of Oregon library, according to the archivist there.) If we could find them, their contents would undoubtedly be valuable for our forthcoming Willis book.

Other items which would be most helpful for our Willis book are:

1. Any letters or papers or dates of birth, marriage, and death involving the four brothers and sisters of Stephen Willis (1760-1820): (1) George Willis (1754-1827) & wife Susannah Baker (1757-1843) of Wilkes County, Georgia. (2) Joel Willis (born August 9, 1756) of King and Queen County, Virginia. (3) Elizabeth Willis (born September 19, 1758), whose married name, if any, we do not know. (4) Susannah Willis (1762-1811), who married Sampson Harris (1763-1807) and settled in Georgia.
2. Any scrap of information about Susannah (born 1721), mother of Stephen Willis (1760-1820). Was her maiden name Terrell, as we think, or Dabney, as a few descendants believe? Did she marry a Garland before she married Stephen Willis (born 1725), father of Stephen Willis (1760-1820)? Did Stephen Willis (1760-1820) have half-brothers and half-sisters named Garland (as one source says)? Any old letter or other information which answers our Terrell, Dabney, and Garland questions would be most welcomed indeed.
3. Obituaries or biographical sketches or old letters pertaining to Stephen Willis & wife Martha and any of their children and grandchildren (and their spouses) would be gratefully received.

Copies of any of the information requested above would be much appreciated. If, however, original papers are sent, we shall photocopy them at the University of Georgia library here and return the original promptly, with thanks.

Thank you very much for your assistance. Our interest in the early Willis, Terrell, Garland, and Dabney families will continue even after the publication of our Willis book, and we would welcome new information whenever discovered (even years from now). We have no plans to move from Athens, but if we should ever do so, our current address can be obtained from the Alumni Association, Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio.

Dr. Park Weed Willis
Seattle, Washington

Dear Dr. Willis:

I'm enclosing the old and very worn piece of newspaper, found in mother's scrap book, telling of your father's death, also card of thanks.

I have three letters written by great-grandmother Willis-Mitchell to my mother, Carrie Hare Lindley. First letter dated Seattle, W.T., November 22, 1878; December 3, 1882; and last one February 7, 1883, from Le Grande, Oregon. You may keep the last one, which I enclose, as it speaks of your father's death and his mother's disregard for doctors and drugs. I presume the dear old lady felt had she been there with her herb teas, etc., a recovery might have been possible.

Among mother's papers I also found three yellowed, very old and worn papers giving lists of births, marriages and deaths in the family. Have made copies of same and enclose them. Doubtless you have all this information and much more but am not sure.

My mother, Carrie Hare Lindley, said her grandfather, James Wherry Willis, used to ride around collecting taxes, that with his other records he made notations of denomination and serial number of all bills as a protection in case of theft before deposit in bank could be made; where he went to bank in those early days I never heard. Wonder if his work at that time was termed County Treasurer. Notice he was only 46 at time of death. Do not find notice in scrap book of his death but there is one of the death of Israel Mitchell of Seattle in Linn County, Iowa, paper, date of death being November 8, 1873, stating he was first Probate Judge of Linn County; that he laid out the cities of Galena, Illinois, and Portland, Oregon; etc., etc. So great-grandmother Willis-Mitchel was left a widow a second time. I wonder what year she died; I find no record of it. I imagine she would now be proud of her descendants who are doctors could she know of them.

A letter to Mother from your brother in 1931 told of a wonderful trip you gave him and your sister when you went back to Penn. U. to attend graduation of your son from medical school.

In your letter of May 14, 1928, acknowledging receipt of some family history items, you said you would try to learn if we were eligible to become members of the D.A.R. and let me know. I did not hear from you so I take it you were unable to get the information.

Will send my other two letters from great-grandmother Willis to Mother's cousin, Mabel Weed, as she wished to read and copy them.

Sincerely,

Wilda Lindley Peterson

To our Willis, Terrell, Milner, and other cousins:

Recently the evidence was discovered which demonstrates that President Jimmy Carter is descended from Joel Terrell (c1692-1758) & wife Sarah (or Elizabeth) Oxford -- through their daughter Hannah Terrell (born ca 1724), who married Israel Burnley (died ca 1791) and settled in Wilkes County, Georgia.

I thought it would be interesting or amusing or scandalizing--depending on your politics in this election year--for all of you to learn that President Carter is "Cousin Jimmy" even though the relationship is quite distant. That is, the President is a distant cousin of all persons who descend from any of the following:

Stephen Willis (born 1725) & wife Susannah Terrell (born 1721)
Israel Burnley & wife Hannah Terrell
Joel Terrell (1726-1774) & wife Anna Lewis (1733-1835)
Henry Terrell (born ca 1730) & wife Anne Dabney
William Terrell (born 1732) & wife Frances Wingfield
Thomas Wingfield (born 1733) & wife Elizabeth Terrell Isham Richardson & wife Mary Terrell
Thomas Terrell & wife Elizabeth Garrett
Peter Terrell (born ca 1744) & wife Mary Wingfield

By using the attached sheet, each of you can determine your own relationship to President Carter. I have used my wife Patricia and our three children as an example. You can apply the Analysis at the bottom of the page to your own lines of descent from Joel Terrell to determine your degree--distant in most cases--of relationship with the President.

After receiving the information that he was distantly related to President Carter, Lewis Willis of Canton, Georgia, put the whole thing into irreverent perspective!:

If I should die
Think only this of me
That I'm a proven cousin
Of President Jimmy C. (carter)

On second thought, I wonder
If that may be plain silly
If I claim kin with Jimmy
I also must claim Billy!

Thought all of this would be fun for even you arch Republicans in Illinois, Iowa, Oregon, and Washington!

Regards,

Homer

clusive and positive evidence of the now closed-up passage across Cape Cod. I have been told by Capt. William Foster, of Brewster, that the passage was closed up more than 100 years ago during a furious gale of wind.

On the chart from which this section is taken, the coasts towns are briefly noticed. The entrance over Sandy Hook Bar gives soundings of three fathoms, and New York is noted as a "very fine and large city—good roads and harbor and a place of great trade with many farms adjoining." Long Island Sound is shown as a narrow arm of the sea, and off Sands Point "ye tydes of flood parteth at; and at White Stone then runneth East and West." The Stratford Shoal Grounds, now marked with a lighthouse called "Sand Banks," then probably dry, except at high water, and when visited by Block in 1614, there were two islands called "De Veers." New Haven town, showing a church and several houses, is mentioned as "on a small river with many good farms," and the "Iron Works" has importance enough to be noticed alone, and on a river of considerable magnitude. The Thimbles are called "One Hundred Islands," and Faulkner's Island called "Falcon's Island." The Connecticut river, "a place of great trade—many vessels built and much copper ore," and at New London Mr. Winthrop's house is plainly located, a church, with houses, also the fine harbor noted.

This chart has data enough noted upon it to form the basis of a most interesting article, which the writer proposes to give at a later date.

AMERICAN PRISONERS TAKEN AT THE BATTLE OF BUNKER HILL.

By the Hon. SAMUEL A. GREEN, M.D., of Boston, Mass.

IN "The New-England Chronicle: or, The Essex Gazette" (Cambridge), September 14, 1775, is given a list of American prisoners, who had been taken by the English at the Battle of Bunker Hill, and confined in Boston jail, with their places of abode. This list was copied by Peter Edes, and it appears on the last page of his Diary, now a rare pamphlet which was printed at Bangor, Maine, in the year 1837. Mr. Henry H. Edes, of Charlestown, informs me that he owns a copy, as well as the original manuscript of the journal. The list was reprinted from Edes's Diary in the REGISTER (XIX. 263) for July, 1865, but with so many omissions and inaccuracies that I am constrained to send a corrected one. From the Diary it appears that Capt. Benjamin Walker died on August 15. John Gill, printer, mentioned in the last paragraph, was the partner of Peter Edes's father, under the style of Edes and Gill.

The following Lists of the Persons now confined in Boston Goal, for no other Crime than that of being the Friends of their Country, was brought out of Boston a few Days since.

* > N. B.—The regular mode of forming family names in the Low Countries or Netherlands (Holland and Belgium), as in Denmark, Norway, Sweden and Iceland was patronymic; that is, the Christian-name of the father was the basis of the last name of the son; so Remsen, the son of Rem(mert) Jansen; the ending—sen, the same as son, in English John-son, is varied to -zen, and often shortened to -se; as in Jan-se=son of Jan (Eng. John); Dirck-se, son of Didrik or Dedrick; Teunis-se, son of Teunis (Antony); but this mode resulting in many duplicate names, there grew into use, as a temporary expedient for distinguishing between duplicate names, the affixing of the native place of [illegible]; with the preposition of location, usually van=of; occasionally te, ten, ter=at the; as in the following:

Ten Broeck, Johannes (=J. at the Marsh), of Holland; had a son born at Albany, 1686. Ten Eyck, Coenradt (=C. at the Oak), Amsterdam to New Amsterdam, 1653. Terhune, Albert Albertse (=A. A. at Huinen, a village in Gelderland), at Gravesend, L. I., 1631; another baptized at New Amsterdam, 1651. Terwilliger, —— (=at Willige, a parish in Utrecht province); in Schenectady, 1700. Tunison=Teunisen, son of Teunis Nyssen or Duyse, from Binnick or Benneken, village near Arnhem in Gelderland, to New Amsterdam, 1638.

Updike=Du. op dyk or dijk, (dwelling) upon the dike.

Van Allen=of Allen, parish in Westphalia; Lourens, thence to Beverwyck, 1630? Van Alstyne, see Van Olstine or Hulsteyn. Van Amburgh=of Hamburgh; to New Amsterdam. Van Arsdale=Du. van Arsdalen, Symon Jansen, from Holland, 1653 to Flatslands, L.I. Van Benschoten=Du. van Bunschoten, a village in Utrecht province; to New Netherland. MIDDLESWART

Data found by Mrs. Pray, Albany, N. Y. in County histories of that state

Teunis De Nyse or Nysen, common ancester of the family, emigrated as early as 1638 from Bimwi r Biarmich in province of Ubrecht, Holland, residing first in New Amsterdam (now NYC) and on a farm on Manhattan Island. M. Phoebe Felix, known as Femmetje Jans, wife of Hendrick Felix, the boor, and d. of John Seals, or Searles, of New Amsterdam. He came there from Devonshire, England (or Devensgure, Eng.). Femmetje is Dutch for Phoebe, and girls were given father's first names as middle names, hence, Jans (John).

From Gowanus Bay on western shore of Long Island where he owned and resided on a farm in 16 Teunis Nysen bought a farm in Flat Bush (now part of Brooklyn). In 1658 he was a Magistrate of Brooklyn and in 1660 a member of Reformed church of said place. c: Janetje, b. 1641, m. Ja Hamen Bergen; Maryetje, b. 1644, m. Derrick Woertenan; Aertje; Annetje b. 1646 m. Herman Ra palie; Eelsje, b. 1648 m. Michael Bergen; Denys b. 1650; Jan Teunise b. 4-12-1654 m. Cataline Bogaert Teunis. c. James & Jeris Teunise.

The history of Somerset Co.,N.J. says Teunis Nysen came from a village near Aruheim, Provin of Guilderland, Netherlands & d. prior to 1664. Teunis & Femmitje had 8 c. whom Jan and Cornelius were youngest. (Cornelius belongs in first list above).

Jan, Cornelius & Tunis took father's 1st name for their last name as was the custom. About 1690 they moved to Raritan & Somerville, Somerset Co., N. J. where many of the Dutch were goin Jan & Tunis were called Jan & Tunis Von Middlebout to identify them. Middlebout being a settl ment where they lived between Flatbush & Brooklyn. In time Teunis was dropped and they were known as Van Middlebout, later as Middleswart.

The other brother, Cornelius, said he was Cornelius Tennison or Teunis's son. This became became changed to Teunison and all families of those names today in Somerset Co. N.J. are descendants of the three brothers.

The Jan Teunis who was installed as 1st. Elder of the 1st Church of Raritan, 9-9-1969, and who was a member of the 2nd & 3rd Assembly of N.J. in 1704 & 1710 was undoubtedly the above Jan Teunis Van Middleswart but there are no records. They were prosperous farmers. We are ither descended from Jan or Teunis. Teunison m. 1st Greetje Hendricks; 2nd, Susannah & was baptised at Reformed Church, Raritan, Somerset, N. J.

Dear Relatives,

I didn't put in occupations or school records as that would entail more research. You now have information to make record of your own families. I believe I have all of the records that Tom has. The names of Abraham and Jacob crop up thruout these records but I couldn't establish father and son beyond Jacob. This is as far as most families can trace a definite record. Will give details of our immediate family:

Bob was with the Department of Roads from 1925 to 1968. Marie was a secretary for 20 yrs. Shirley Stohler attended the Uni. of Ne., sub. teaching 12 yrs. She now manages 2 departments for the Pamida store in Wayne, Ne. Roy Stohler is the District Supervisor of the 4-H programs and Community Development of the Northwest District in Nebr. They live in Concord, Ne. Susan Kubik grad. from Wayne Also grad. from Wayne- Gerald Kubik teaches music at Arcadia, Ne. Nancy Lambert was grad. Summa Cum Laude, UNO. Teaches Home Ec. in Orleans, Ne. Dale Lambert was grad. from Uni. of Ne. in Wild Life Management. Now works at the Republican City dam. They live in Alma, Ne. Kathi Stohler, McDonald's All Am. band, 1977 and Julie Stohler, a junior in the Laurel, Ne. Schools. Grace Schmidt attended the Uni. of Ne., now teaching advanced students in piano in her home and is a secretary at the Uni. of Ne. Omaha school of Medicine. Rod Schmidt the Instrumental supervisor in and bands therein Bellevue West school. Carol, Ann and Laurie attend the Omaha schools

Letter from A.E. Middleswart, Portland, Ohio to Mrs. R. I. Middleswart:

Your letter of inquiry was passed on to me. I do not have any record of what you want and have sent your letter to Mary Middleswart ar Marietta, Ohio, who is a Grand Daughter of Jacob Middleswart. I think her sister has a record.

If you write to Miss Jessie Blair, 420 So. Grand Ave., Sedalia, Mo., i think she might have what you want. Her mother was a daughter of Fraklin Middleswar my father was a son of Tunis Middleswart. Two of the boys, Franklin and Tunis settled in Meige, County. Jake and Clark in Washington County, and Jonathan+ Henry in Gallia County.

ARMY SERVICE FORCES OFFICE OF THE QUARTERMASTER GENERAL, WASHINGTON 25, D.C. April 5, 1946. Dear Mr. T.C.Middleswart: Am sorry that I did not receive your letter while in Ft. Leavenworth so I could have gotten in touch with you, as I am sure we could trace family relationship. My own father, Russell R. Middleswart, was from Portland, Meigs Co., Ohio. His father was Wm. Henry Middleswar
I have heard of

Conc'd/
I have heard of James Middleswart who probably is your father. My parents moved from Ohio to Bluefield, W. Va., when I was 5. A brother lives in Law Indiana, and have numerous relatives in Ohio, although most of the Middlesw have either died or left that part. In fact, aside from your family, there very few living. Sincerely W.H. Middleswart, Brigadier General, AMC

Several years ago I had a number of letters from Dr. Dixon and we both tho that his great grandfather Jacob Middleswart was a brother of my great gr great Grandfather Henry - sons of Abraham. My grandfathers name was Jacob dleswart b. 1793, d. 1861. My father was George Middleswart. I am a memb the D.A.R. thru Henry's Revolutionary service and have some history going to Teunis DeNeyse or DeNeysen. I had a letter sent to me last year from th Portland Ohio postmaster who had given it to a cousin as it was written on May 9, 1934. I sent a card to Mrs. R.L. Middleswart thinking after so a lo time I would hear from her but no answer. Dr. Dixon goes back to the Middl swart Martins. I understand he died some years ago - would like to know so thing of the letters written by Abraham to James when he went west. A brot of my Grandfather moved to Mo.I think Jonathon. There are a number of our near St. Louis. A friend told how some family history of the Anthony Middl family of Fremont,Ohio. Alice Middleswart McCollum Abram Van Middlesworth (the 'van' merely meaning "from" not a sign of nobilit Holland Dutch on the Middlesworth line. His name and those of his sons Jacob and Henry were given in the 1790 census of Pa. as owning land and being heads of families.

There was a Moses Middlesworth also in Alleghany Coneely, Pa. Perhaps a son of abram. He remained in Pa. Was taxed in 1791. I have heard that Jacob moved to Northern Ohio and that his de~~s~~cendants are scattered throughout the west. I corresponded with a decendant of [illegible] Middlesworth - a noted patriot of Eastern Pa. His name "Ner" is also in our family but we could trace no relationship.
A cousin of my Mothers corresponded with a J.W. Middlesworth, Middlesworth, Il

This decendant of Ner Middlesworth was Jacob F. Middlesworth, Holden, Mo; son Aaron J. Middlesworth b. 1814. A son of Ner Middlesworth, who fought in war of 1812 raised a company of which he was made captain and in 1814 recruited another Company. b. 1780 d. 1845 or 1865 in Beavertown, Pa; son of John Middlesworth and wife Martha, b. in New Jersey, moved to Pa. in 1792. MIDDLESWART GENEALOGY fromMaj. Gen. QMC W.H. Middleswart, Dept. of Army, Off. Quartermaster General Washington 25, D.C.
April 8, 1948

Teunis De Nyse or Nysen, the common ancestor of the family, emigrated as early 1638 from Binwich or Bianmicn, in the province of Ubrecht, Holland, residing fi in New Amsterdam (New York City) and on a farm on Manhatten Island. He marriec Phoebe Felix, known as Femmetje Jans, widow of Hendrick Felix, the Boor, and daughter of John Seals or Searles of New Amsterdam (he came therefrom Devonstur England) Femmetje is dutch for Phoebe and the girls were given their father's first names as middlenames hence Jans (John).

1 From Gowanus Bay on the western shore of Long Island where he owned and resid on a farm, in 1655 Teunis Nysen bought a farm in Flat Bush (now a part of Brook In 1658 he was a magistrate of Brooklyn and in 1660 a member of the Reformed Church of said place. His children were:

Jan Teunise b. April 12, 1654, m. Cataline Bogaert
Teunis, James and Joris Teunise supposed other children.

The History of Somerset Co., N. J. says Teunis Nysen came from a village near Aruheim in the Province of Guilderland in the Netherlands and died prior to 1663. Teunis and Femmetje had 8 children of whom Jan and Cornelius were the youngest - (You notice he is not mentioned in the other list but he belongs the

Jan, Cornelius, and Tunis took their father's first name for their last name as was the custom then. About 1690 they moved to Raritan and Somerville, Somerset Co. New Jersey --SOMERSET WHERE MANY OF THE Dutch were going. Jan and Tunis were called Jan Tunis Von Middlebout to identify them. Middlebout being a settlement where they lived between Flatbush and Brooklyn. In time the Teunis was dropped and they were known as van Middlebout, or Middleswart.

The other brother Cornelius, said he was Cornelius Tennison or Teunis's son. This became changed to Teunison and all the families of those two men's names today in Somerset Co. N. J., are descendants of the three brothers.

The Jan Teunis who was installed as First Elder of the First Church of Raritan, 9-9-1699, and who was a member of [illegible] of the Assembly of New Jersey in 1704 and 1710 was undoubtedly the above Jan Teunis Van Middleswart, but there are so far no definite records found or unearthed. They were prosperous farmers who are not the kind to be written up in histories

We are descended from either Jan or Teunis but I don't know which. Teunis Tuni son married first Greetje Hendricks and second, Susannah - baptized at Reformed Church, Raritan, Somerset Co., N. J.

Jan Teunis Van Middleswart married Catalina, daughter of Teunis Gysbertse Bogaart, Nov. 15, 1679. Resided at Wallabout (where Brooklyn Navy yard is now located) taking oath of Allegiance to the English in Brooklyn in 1687. Removed to Somerset Co., N. J., his name appears at the organization of the First Churc of Raritan but does not appear in any deeds or grants. His children were all baptized on Long Island except Abraham who was baptized at the First Church, Raritan, 9-19-1699. Nobody knows as yet how our descent is from these two brothers but from birth, death and marriage records found in New Jersey, Mrs. Pray thinks this may be ours:--

1. Teunis Nysen, immigrant, 2. Jan Teunis Von Middleswart. 3. Theunis, born 1682 (who had a first wife Adreantje and may have had a second, Susanna-the mother of Abraham 4. Abraham, born 1723. 5. Henry, born 1755./ 6 Franklin, BEEKMAN Teunis, etc.

We know this much, that your Grandfather Henry Middleswart born May 5, 1755 was the son of Abraham. The record of baptism of Henry is in the Reading Church. Henry, son of Abraham and his wife Maria Griggs on June 6, 1755. One month aft the birth was the usual date for baptism so that undeniably clinches that; but back of Abraham we are not sure at all. There are too many of the same name to be sure at all. There are too many of the same name to be sure without a thorough research of musty documents.

I would rather be descended from Jan than Teunis for this reason, that Jan's wif Catalina Bogaert leads back to Huguenot blood. I'll give her ancestry and then you'll have it if it proves to be ours. Her father, Tunis Gysbertse Bogaert the common ancestor of the Kings Co. Long Island Bogerts emigrated in 1652 from the province of Ubrecht. He married first Sarah, daughter of Joris Jansen Rapalii and widow of Hans Hansen Bergen; He resided at Nallabocht. He was a magistrate of Brooklyn (which means that he may have seen to the keeping of pigs and cattle in 1663, 1667 and 1673 a representative of the sametown in the Hempstead convention of 1665 and on Gov. Nicholl's patent of Brooklyn of 1667. Their daughter Catalnyntje Tunison was baptized Dec. 1657.

Tunis Bogaert's wife Sarah Rapalii or Rapelje was born June 9, 1625 at Ft. Orange now called Albany, N.Y. She was the daughter of Joris Jansen (George Johnson) de Rapalje from the Phone Valley, France, and his wife Catalina Tricot, daughter of George Tricot. She was born in Paris in 1605. They were Huguenots and after the massacre of St. Bartholomew fled penniless and homeless to Belgium where they were known as Walloons. When the New Netherlands Co. wanted to settl up this new savage territory it sent out a ship load of these Walloon families tempted by the thought of land and these were the first women who came to New York State. It is said that Sarah Rapalje was the first girl born in the colony. Her father soon moved to Long Island where she lived ~~all~~ her life. I haven't been able to find out Grandfather Henry's early life or Abrahams. They paid taxes in Washington Co. Militia 3rd Battalion in 1781. The Colonel was David Williamson, a connection but not an ancestor of ours.

From a hasty observation of your report, it would a pear that you are a descen dant of Henry Middleswart, who was a brother of Jacob. Both were children of Abraham Middleswart.

Re. record on page 4 & 5, these papers. (Marie)
Mrs. Pray was engaged by Miss Jessie Alice Blair who paid her for her services. Miss Blair is a cousin of mine. I sought her permission to use the report for which she paid Mrs. Pray and permission was granted with certain reservations. I have another cousin whose madin name was Lucy Adaline Middleswart. She married W. E. McDade and lives at Racine, Ohio.

I am a descendent of Wm. West. I speak of this because, while Wm. West settled in that portion of Virginia, now known as W. Va., he had a brother John who set tled in that portion of Va. now known as Ky. Later, Wm. West's descendents mov across the river into Washington Co., O. One of descendants of John West mar- ried a Middleswart whose name is unknown but she had a sister named Lizzie. Fr your report, it would appear that Lizzie Middleswart was none other than Eliza- beth Middleswart who was born February 24, 1794 and was one of the chiddren of Jacob Middleswart and his wife, Jane Martin of Scotland.

Inasmuch as Mrs. Pray's investigation as well as my confirmation of it disclose the fact that Abraham Middleswart had sons - Jacob, Moses, and Henry - and, ~~since/you/ha/~~ Mrs. Pray furnished information on Henry Middleswart; nd I am about to hgive full information on the third son (Moses), it would appear that we are about to give a fairly reasonable connection of all of the children.

There is, however, in the Pa. archives, a record of one Ner Middleswart. The riter concludes that his proper name was Nerteen as that was a family name. I am, therefore, led to believe that Abraham had another son, Nerteen, but no definite record of his birth or baptism appears to be available in the New Jerse archives. This Nerteen may have been a brother of Abraham because he, Abraham, had a brother by that name who was born August 22, 1716.

Moses Middleswart:

Clyde W. Powell

is reputed to have been a man of sterling business methods and to have aided in the establishment of the Bank of Pittsburgh, which was the first bank west of the Alleghenies. (Here it seems proper to record that the Bank of Pittsburgh closed it's doors September 21, 1930, and in the depression of that period. Since that time, all depositors have been repaid 100% with interest. At date of issue liquidation is still in process.) Moses is reputed to have remained in the old homestead in Pa. and most of his descendants are supposed to have also remained there. Jacob Middleswarth (no speculation is here made on the rela- tionship) is reputed to have moved to the northern part of Ohio. Abraham Middleswart is reputed to have moved to the southern part of Ohio with his sons, Henry and Clark. (The fact that Abraham moved to Ohio appears to not be con- firmed).

There is also a family tradition that some of the early Middleswart's were of adventuresome disposition. One or two of them are reputed to have had a pack rain of horses that carried merchandise over the mountains to Ft. Pitt, from which point they returned east with furs, etc. Another tradition is, that some of the early Middleswart's acted as guides to General Braddock when he attempted o make his ill-fated march to Ft. Pitt.

ark Middleswart, whose origin will later develop in this effort, was reputed o have been among the first to take a flat boat of produce from Pittsburgh to ew Orleans. The tradition is, that he put the produce aboard a ship at New rleans and went to Cuba. In Cuba, he was paid in Spanish gold and returned by hip to/~~Mobile//from/which/city/he/and/two/other/men/walked/to/the/~~ (oops). hip to Mobile, from whichcity he and two other men walked to the Ohio River. ien they reached the Ohio river, a keel boat to Pittsburgh. The tradition states that when Clark Middleswart d plAyed his Spanish gold in Pittsburgh and told how he came to possess it, ther was considerable excitement. The keel boat previously referred to, is reporte to h ve been built at the mouth of Saw Mill Run, opposite Pittsburgh, and to ~~have been built at the mouth of~~ (again). have been put together with wooden pins. The tradition further states that the timbers of the boat were sawed with the first saw carried across the mountains.

Another interesting incident in the early Middleswart tradition is, that when Clark Middleswart was in Pittsburgh with his load of produce, he was compelled to pay one dollar a quart for salt. It was known, in those days, as sea salt, and was made by the evaporation of sea water in shallow pans. Presumably, as well as by tradition, this evaporation process took place along the shores of the Mediterranean Sea, where the heat of the sun was employed. Considering the fact that the salt had to later be transported more than three thousand miles, we cannot marvel at the expense of salt at that time.

There is also a tradition that there was one Teunis Middleswart who, in his attempt to come west, was killed by the Indians.

With the foregoing comments on the transcription of Mrs. Pray's effort, supplemented by other comments which accompanied that transcription, we leave the antique and uncertain, returning to Abraham Middleswart. Here it seems wise to quote in part from the transcription of Mrs. Pray: "Back of Abraham, we are not sure; there are too many of the same name.

It seems wise to here comment that in the old records we find Tuenis and Teunis evidently a variation of the spelling of the same word. In later years, howeve the spelling became Tunis. Also in some of the old records we find the name Abram. It is here submitted that Abram was but an abbreviation of Abraham.

Abraham Middleswart was born Dec. 15, 1723, probably in New Jersey, near or in Raritan. When he moved west is mere speculation. His death and place of buria is unknown. There is a tradition that he moved to southern Ohio with his son Henry, where he died. This, however, is purely tradition, for while it may be true that one Abraham Middleswart did move to southern Ohio with Henry Middlesw it was probably a brother of Henry, rather than the father. It is a known fact that in the 1790 census of Allegheny county there was listed "Abraham, Henry and Jacob Middleswart". In the census of the same family we find recorded "one free white male, under 16". Since Abraham Middleswart, listed hereafter as(B22 was at that time only three years of age, it is submitted that the "one free,et was none other than (B22) Abraham Middleswart. He was born in 1787 and therefo at the time of the census was three years of age, while (A-1-15) Abraham would have beenaged 67. This leads us to conclude that Abraham Middleswart (A-3-15) came west with his son (A-18) Henry at least as far as Washington and Allegheny Counties, Pa. No attempt is here made to definitely identify the Jacob Middleswart, hereafter referred to, for he was not born until 1793. This leaves us to conclude that Abraham Middleswart had another son, Jacob. This seems to be confirmed by the tradition that Henry Middleswart had a brother who was also in the Revolution. That brother is credited with having been with General Braddoc near Ft. Duquesne. After the Revolution, this unnamed brother of Henry Middleswart reputedly settled near Pittsburgh. Hence, it is necessary to leave this Jacob Middleswart in the list of those only partially identified.

(A-1-15) abraham Middleswart evidently married Maria Griggs, for we find a record of baptism on June 6, 1755 in a Reading, Pa., church giving the name of Henry Middleswart born May 5, 1755 and the father as Abraham Middleswart and maiden name of the mother as Maria Griggs. It is also reported that Abrahar had a son Moses. From the foregoing paragraph, he also had a son Jacob. He may have had other children but for this record that the white females listed in the 1790 census were children of A-18) Henry. It is true there may have been a Keel boat to Pittsburgh. The tradition states that when Clark Middleswart played his Spanish gold in Pittsburgh and told how he came to possess it, the was considerable excitement. The Keel boat previously referred to, is report to have been built at the mouth of Saw Mill Run, opposite Pittsburgh, and to ~~[illegible]~~ (again), have been put together with wooden pins. The tradition further states that the timbers of the boat were sawed with the first saw carried across the mountains.

There is also a tradition that there was one Tennis Middleswart who, in his attempt to come west, was killed by the Indians.

With the foregoing comments on the transcription of Mrs. Frey's effort, supplemented by other comments which accompanied that transcription, we leave th antique and uncertain, returning to Abraham Middleswart. Here it seems wise quote in part from the transcription of Mrs. Frey: "Beck of Abraham, we are s sure; there are too many of the same name.

(A-1-15) Abraham Middleswart evidently married Maria Grisen, for we find a record of baptism on June 8, 1755 in a Reading, Pa., church giving the name of Henry Middleswart born May 5, 1755 and the father as Abraham Middleswart and maiden name of the mother as Maria Grisen. It is also reported that Abrah had a son Moses. From the foregoing paragraph, he also had a son Jacob. He may have had other children but for this record that the white females listed children of Abraham Middleswart,: (A-16) Jacob Middleswart, Moses, Henry.

(A-16) Jacob Middleswart was reputedly born in Monmouth Co. New Jersey in No records seem available of baptism. It is a known fact that his father (A-1-15) Abraham Middleswart, lived about that time in New Jersey and later moved into Pa. (in or near Reading), still later moving into Western Pa. Hence, we find in the records that (A-16) Jacob Middleswart, was reared in Pa The record states that he was a Revolutionary Soldier serving in the Pa. Troo in 1779 and 1780 under Capt. Sweringen and Maj. Scott. It also states that h enlisted in March of 1782 in Capt. Bilderback's Co. under Col. Crawford, wher hw attained the rank of Ensign. Record also states he was avery able spy, and served as guard on the western frontier where he engaged in several skirmishes including the Battle of Sandusky. On Feb. 22, 1787, he married Jane Martin Scotland in Pittsburgh. The fact that the name "Martin was carried on through several generations gives rise to the supposition that her mother's maiden name was Martin. He is reputed to have resided in Washington Co. Pa.

Jacob Middleswart and his wife, Jane, had seven or eight children among whom were: James Martin, Mar. 16, 1788, Mary - Dec.25,1789, Sarah, 1-15-1792, Elizabeth, 2-24-1794, Hannah, 6-6-1796, Abraham, 1798, Zilphia, 1800.

Jacob (A-16) made application for a Veteran's pension which was granted on Apr 25, 1834. He died May 1, 1837.

This information regarding (A-16) Jacob was supplied by T.C.Middleswart in a letter under date of Nov. 5, 1946, from Bridgeport, Nebr. inwhich he stated ~~Jacob~~ was the great grandson of Abraham b. 1798. He would, therefore, be the great, great grandson of our subject (A-16) T. C. Middleswart further states that his grandfather was James Martin Middleswart-1830-1877 who in turn was a son of Abraham.

"Your Great Grandfather, Jacob Middleswart was born in Oct. 1761 in Monmouth County, New Jersey, but was raised in Pa. In March 1779 he entered the Revolutionary Army. Served 6 months , & in March ~~1779~~ 1780, he entered the army. Served 6 mo. and in MArch 1782 he again entered the army. Served another 6 mo and was promoted to ensig 2nd Lieutenant - for brave and gallant conduct. Maried Jane Martin near Pirrsburg, Pa. 2-22-1787. Died in Brown Co. Ohio, 5-1-183~~0~~7.

Nancy Derrough, mother of Geo. Derrough was a sister to my father and daughter of Mary Middleswart Dixson. Our Great Grandfather, Jacob Middleswart, served as guard and spy for General Washington and was quite a favorite and greatly trusted by the General and was with Colonel Crawford when he was captured by the Indians. Middleswart succeeded in getting away, but Crawford remained a prisoner and was burned at the stake by the Indians.

Mrs. Campbell Flaugher, Aberdeen, Ohio, informed me your father went west and she never heard of him afterwards. I am sure Mrs. Flaugher would appreciate very much a letter from you as she is quite enthused to hear of the Middleswart kin. The way is now open for you or your sister for application for membership in the Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Letter from A. E. Middleswart, Portland, Ohio to Mrs. R. L. Middleswart, Lincoln, Ne. May 18, 1943

"Your letter of inquiry was passed on to me. but I sent your letter to Mary Middleswart, Marietta, Ohio, who is a Grand Daughter of Jacob Middleswart,

If you write to Miss Jessie Blair, 420 So. Grand Ave., Sedalia, Mo., She may have what you want.

Her mother was a daughter of Franklin Middleswart. My father was a son of Tunis Middleswart. Two of the boys, Franklin and Tunis settled here in Meige, County. Jake and Clark in Washington Co., and Jonathan and Henry in Gallia Co.

Suggestion: For information in regard to last payment of pension, application should be made to the Comptroller General of the United States, General Accounting Office, Washington, D. C., and the following data cited: Jane Middleswart, widow of Jacob Middleswart, Pension Certificate No. 344, issued Dec. 8, 1843, rate $60.00 per annum, commenced Mar. 4, 1843, Act of March 3, 1843, Ohio Agency.

MIDDLESWART GENEALOGY

The following is material compiled by James I. Middleswart (Feb. 1968) and is a summary of four years of research.

When I began this search the oldest ancestor that I was able to find was great grandfather James Martin Middleswart who is buried beside his son William Abraham, in Shaver cemet who is buried beside his son William Abraham, in Shaver Cemetery, Warren County, Iowa. James' wife, Lucy, is buried at Indianola cemetery beside her daughter, Rosa. I knew that our people came from Brown County, Ohio and I proceeded to write the courthouse there and was referred to Barbara Wade Bowman (age 30) who immediately supplied t the names of James' father, Abraham and his grandfather, Jacob who was a Revolutionary War soldier. She has done much research on the Middleswart genealogy in an effort to ente D.A.R. She had the names of the James Martin Middleswart children but did not know who or where they were only that they were out west and was glad to hear from one of them. It has come out that Jacob was her third great grandfather, as he was also mine. There is no doubt of the veracity of our ancestry back to Jacob. Some of it from Jacob on back to Tunis Nysen who is undoubtedly the common ancestor of all the Middleswarts can not be completely verified but it can not be far from correct as many dates coincide. The history of Spmerset County, New Jersey verifies much of this since Tunis lived nearby on Long Island and later in New Amsterdam and many of the later generations moved across the river in Somerset County, New Jersey.

Jacob had at least 8 children which he reared in Pennsylvania after the Revolutionary War and they migrated to Ohio and West Virginia. The youngest was our ancestor, Abraham and he migrated to Brown County, Ohio which is 60 miles southeast of Cincinnati. The eldest, James Martin Sr. is the ancestor of Barbara Bowman and he was born in 1788 (1788)

In September 1967 my wife, Geraldine and I drove to Ohio and stayed two days in Brown County and stayed with Barbara Bowman. She took us to the farm which Abraham owned and where he had his family. The house which is presently there is very old and the old timer there in the community say they remember hearing that Middleswarts owned it. I have a picture of it. We visited an old woman (95) in Winchester, nearby, who moved in the house as a bride 75 years ago and she said one of Abraham's youngest sons used to come and visit them at their house. This farm is near Georgetown, Ohio. I have a letter in Abraham's handwriting which he wrote to his son James Martin in 1861 and he speaks of the serious difficulty between the North and South and is hopeful that war can be avoided. I also have a short church letter which is recommending "brother James as a brother in full fellowship and good standing in the Christian Church" at Bethlehem, Ohio. It is dated Sept. 9, 1855. I have a picture of that church and saw it. These papers were in Uncle Charles' things and were passed on to me by his heirs.

I also have a copy of several handwritten pages in which Jane (Mrs Jacob) Middleswart proved her identity and that she was the widow of a Revolutionary War soldier and was awarded a pension of $60.00 per annum to "commence Mar. 4, 1843". Jane is buried in Ash Ridge Cemetery near Georgetown, Ohio, according to cemetery records. We went there and searched for a grave marker but could find none. She died in 1845. It is not known where Jacob is buried. Neither can we find Abraham's grave.

There are Middleswart's in many states and I know we are all cousins, some distant, so salute them when you see them. There is much more but some of it bears very lightly on our present interest. If you wish more information write to me at Indianola, Iowa, Route 2. 50125. J.I.M.

Middleswart Genealogy
(Data found by Mrs. Pray, Albany, N.Y.
in the County Histories there--)

Teunis De Nyse or Nysen, the common ancestor of the family, emigrated as early as 1638 from Binwich or Bianmich in the province Ubrecht, Holland, residing first in New Amsterdam (New York Cy) and on a farm on Manhattan Island. Married Phoebe Felix known as Femmetje Jans, widow of Hendrick Felix the Boor, and daughter of John Seals or Searles of New Amsterdam (He came there from Devonsture, England). Femmetje is Dutch for Phoebe and the girls were given their father's first names as middle names, hence, Jans (John).

From Gowanus Bay on the western shore of Long Island where he owned and resided on a farm, in 1655 Teunis Nysen bought a farm in Flat Bush (now a part of Brooklyn). In 1658 he was a magistrate of Brooklyn and in 1660 a member of the Reformed Church of said place. His children were:

Jannetje,	born	1641,	married	Jan Hamen Bergen
Maryetje,	"	1644,	"	Derrick Woertenan
Aertje,	-		-
Annetje,	"	1646,	"	Hierman Rapalie
Eelsje,	"	1648,	"	Michael Bergen
Denys,	"	1650,
Jan Teunise,		4-12-1654,	married	Cataline Bogaert

Teunis. James and Joris Teunise, supposed other children.

The History of Somerset County, J.J., says Teunis Nysen came from a village near Aruheim, Province of Guilderland, Netherlands and died prior to 1663. Teunis and Femmetje had 8 children of whom Jan and Cornelius were the youngest. (Cornelius not mentioned in previous list but belongs there).

Jan, Cornelius and Tunis took their father's first name for their last name as was the custom then. About 1690 they moved to Raritan and Somerville, Somerset Co., N.J. where many of the Dutch were going. Jan and Tunis were called Jan and Tunis Von Middlebout to identify them, Middlebout being a settlement where they lived between Flat Bush and Brooklyn. In time Teunis was dropped and they were known as Van Middlebout or Middleswart.

The other brother, Cornelius, said he was Cornelius Tennison or Teunis's son. This became changed to Teunison and all the families of those two men's names today in Somerset County, N.J., are descendants of the three brothers.

The Jan Teunis who was installed as First Elder of the First Church of Raritan, Sept. 9, 1699, and who was a member of the 2nd and 3rd Assembly of New Jersey in 1704 and 1710 was undoubtedly the above Jan Teunis Van Middleswart, but there are so far no definite records found or unearthed. They were prosperous farmers who are not the kind to be written up in histories.

We are descended from either Jan or Teunis but we don't know which. Teunis Tunison married first Greetje Hendricks and second Susannah--baptized at the Reformed Church, Raritan, Somerset Co., N.J.

Hendrickson,	son of Teunis,	May 18, 1715
Mertieu,	" " "	Aug. 22, 1716
Abraham,	" " "	Dec. 13, 1723

Jan Teunis Van Middleswart, married Catalina, daughter of Teunis Gysbertse Bogaert, Nov. 15, 1679. Resided at Wallabout (where Brooklyn Navy Yard now located) taking oath of Allegiance to the English in Brooklyn in 1687. Removed to Somerset Co., N.J., his name appears at the organization of the First Church of Raritan but does not appear in any deeds or grants. His children were all baptized on Long Island except Abraham who was baptized at the First Church, Raritan, 9-19-1699.

Nobody knows as yet how our descent is from these two brothers but from birth, death and marriage records found in New Jersey Mrs. Pary thinks this _may_ be ours:-----

1. Teunis Nysen, immigrant, 2. Jan Teunis Von Middleswart.
3. Theunis, born 1682 (who had a first wife Adreantje and _may_ have had a second, Susanna--the mother of Abraham). 4. Abraham, born 1723. 5. Henry, born 1755. 6. Franklin, Teunis, etc.

We know this much, that your Grandfather, Henry Middleswart born May 5, 1755, was the son of Abraham. Mrs. Pray found the record of the baptism of Henry in the Reading Church Henry, son of Abraham and his wife Maria Griggs on June 6, 1755. One month after the birth was the usual date for baptism--so that undeniably clinches that; but back of Abraham we are not sure at all. There are too many of the same name to be sure without a thorough re-search of musty documents.

I would rather be descended from Jan than Teunis for this reason, that Jan's wife Catalina Bogaert leads back to Huguenot blood. I'll give her ancestry and then you'll have it if it proves to be ours. Her father, Tunis Gysbertse Bogaert the common ancestor of the Kings Co. Long Island Bogerts emigrated in 1652 from the province of Ubrecht. He married first Sarah, daughter of Joris Jansen Rapalii and widow of Hans Hansen Bergen; He resided at Nallabocht. He was a magistrate of Brooklyn (which means that he may have seen to the keeping of pigs and cattle) in 1663, 1667 and 1673 a representative of the same town in the Hempstead convention of 1665 and on Gov. Nicholl's patent of Brooklyn of 1667. Their daughter Catalnyntje Tunison was baptized Dec. 1657.

Tunis Bogaert's wife Sarah Rapelii or Rapelje was born June 9, 1625 at Ft. Orange now called Albany, N. Y. She was the daughter of Joris Jansen (George Johnson) de Rapalje from the Rhone Valley, France; and his wife Catalina Tricot, daughter of George Tricot.

She was born in Paris in 1605. They were Huguenots and after the massacre of St. Bartholomew fled penniless and homeless to Belgium where they were known as Walloons. When the New Netherlands Co. wanted to settle up this new savage territory it sent out a ship load of these Walloon families tempted by the thought of land and these were the first women to come to New York State. It is said that Sarah Rapalje was the first girl born in the colony. Her father soon moved to Long Island where she lived her life.

I haven't been able to find out Grandfather Henry's early life or Abrahams. They paid taxes in Washington County now Allegheny Co., Pa. in 1781 and are mentioned in the first U. S. census. Do you know where he lived? I have his militia record for the Revolutionary War. He was in Capt. Geo. Sharps Company Washington County militia 3rd Battalion in 1781. The Colonel was David Williamson, a connection but not an ancestor of ours.

FOURTH INDEPENDENT COMPANY OHIO VOLUNTEER CAVALRY.

THREE YEARS' SERVICE.

This Company was organized at Georgetown, Ohio, each man furnishing his own horse and horse-equipments. It was mustered into the service July 9, 1861, at Georgetown, by George Silligatt, Aid-de-camp and Mustering Officer. On the 10th it left for Camp Chase, where it remained until August 19, when it was ordered to Missouri. On March 1, 1862, it was taken into St. Louis and placed on duty at General Halleck's headquarters, and acted as his escort until he was transferred to Washington. The Company was then engaged in miscellaneous service until July 16, 1864, when the original members were mustered out at Cincinnati, Ohio, by reason of expiration of term of service. The recruits, about fifty in number, were left at General McPherson's headquarters, and in August and September, 1864, John L. King, who had been a Sergeant in the original organization, recruited the Company to the maximum number and was commissioned Captain. This Company participated in the march to the sea through Georgia, in the campaign in the Carolinas, and was present at the Grand Review at Washington City. It was mustered out May 28, 1865, at Washington, D. C., by W. C. Ide, Captain 13th Infantry, and Acting Commissary of Musters.

The official list of battles, in which this Company bore an honorable part, has not yet been published in orders by the War Department, but the following list has been prepared, after a careful research, during the preparation of this work:

When a boy, rode a pack horse in General Wayne's expedition, which met defeat at the hands of the Indians. In those days the supplies of the expedition were carried on pack horses. Miller rode a horse, driving two heavily burdened horses in front of him. It was owing to this that he was able to crouch flat on his horse and escape. During this engagement the company stopped at the home of Ann Gregory, for refreshments, she having frequently entertained Wayne, and on her tombstone near Le Sourdsville is the following inscription: "Here lies the body of one most loved. She has ascended to her home above. Her table was always filled with the best and Anthony Wayne was often her guest." Lot was purchased from Cleves Symmes, by Israel Ludlow and later came into possession of the Flenner family. MI: Old tombstone in Le Sourdsville not readable. Fur infor John Reily Chap.

Jim Middleswart Buried Monday

Funeral services for Jim Middleswart, 89 years old and among the oldest residents of McPherson county, was held Monday afternoon at the Canton Christian church, conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Maurice Bigger. Interment was made in the Canton cemetery.

A native of Brown county, James Daniel Sherman Middleswart was born June 19, 1865, the youngest son of Rebecca Gillespie and Thomas Middleswart.

During 1872 the Middleswart family came to Kansas. They followed the Santa Fe trail to the pioneer settlement of Empire in Lone Tree township. At that time Empire was one of the important watering places along the old trail

Ground Hog Supper Next Wednesday

The annual Ground Hog supper, sponsored by the men of the Canton Methodist church will be served next Wednesday night, January 19. Serving will start at 4:30 o'clock and continue until all have been served.

Men of the church have been very busy making the various arrangements and appointing committees. Butchering of the hogs is scheduled for Friday and from then on many will be busy with the many day to day duties. The men of the community have been more than generous with their time and assistance in making this annual affair a huge success. In general, these men have a good time and take a great deal of pride in the manner in which the supper is conducted. Weather permitting, this event attracts a number from the surrounding territory as well as out of town guests.

Following are the committees that carry on this work:

Executive Committee: William Marston, Donald Dresher, Glen Ingram.

Reception: Carl D. Shultz, C. T. Lindgren, Charles Hager, Galen Barrett, W. R. Jones, Vernon Nikkel, Dean Wilson.

A native of Brown county, James Daniel Sherman Middleswart was born June 19, 1865, the youngest son of Rebecca Gillespie and Thomas Middleswart.

During 1872 the Middleswart family came to Kansas. They followed the Santa Fe trail to the pioneer settlement of Empire in Lone Tree township. At that time Empire was one of the important watering places along the old trail and boasted several blacksmith shops, stores, hotel and post office. The Middleswart family homesteaded one of the farms near by.

On September 27, 1885, Mr. Middleswart was married to Wilma E. White. They were the parents of three children: Oran C. Middleswart, Wichita, Paul R. Middleswart and Carol M. Middleswart.

On September 10, 1843 he was married to Eldora Reeder.

Mr. Middleswart lived most of his life in this community where he did carpentering until his retirement several years ago. In spite of his advanced age he had remained active until he suffered a fractured hip in a fall at his home six weeks ago.

He was a member of the Christian Scientist church and the Hawkeye Grange.

He is survived by his widow and one son, Oran C. Middleswart, two grandchildren: Marrieta Cassiday, Wichita; and Clifford Leffler and nine great grandchildren.

Among those from out of town who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. George Middleswart and Billy of Fowler; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mullen, Mr. and Mrs. Oran Middleswart, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cassiday, Mr. and Mrs. Weisenbeck, all of Wichita; Dr. and Mrs. Guy Finkle of McPherson; Mrs. Eva Colby of Conway Springs.

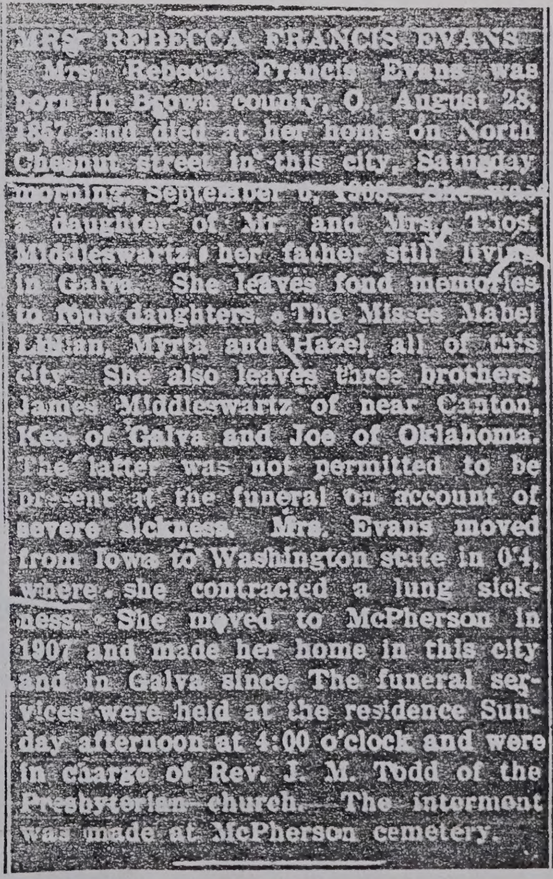
DEATH OF MRS. EVANS

From Saturday's Daily.

Mrs. Rebecca F. Evans died this morning at 5 o'clock at her home on north Chestnut street. She was aged fifty-one years and one week and leaves four daughters, the Misses Mabel, Lillian, Myrtle and Hazel, all of whom are living here.

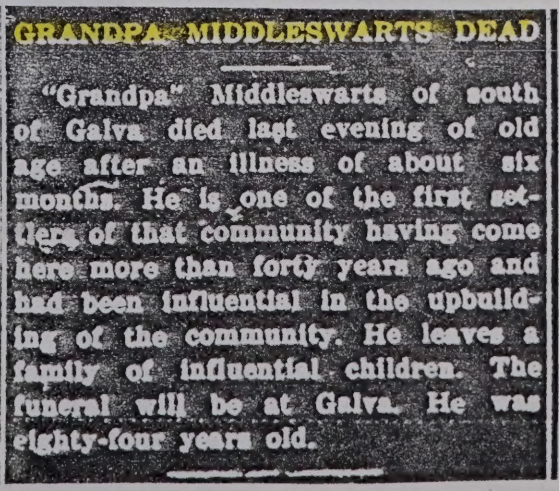
Mrs. Evans' death was due to lung trouble from which she suffered acutely since last Christmas. She moved to McPherson county last June and purchased the A. Barker property.

Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed but the services will probably be held from the residence tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and will be in charge of the Rev. J. M. Todd.



MRS. REBECCA FRANCIS EVANS

Mrs. Rebecca Francis Evans was born in Brown county, O., August 28, 1857, and died at her home on North Chesnut street in this city, Saturday morning, September 5, 1908. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Middleswartz, her father still living in Galva. She leaves fond memories to four daughters. The Misses Mabel Lillian, Myrta and Hazel, all of this city. She also leaves three brothers, James Middleswartz of near Canton, Kee of Galva and Joe of Oklahoma. The latter was not permitted to be present at the funeral on account of severe sickness. Mrs. Evans moved from Iowa to Washington state in 04, where she contracted a lung sickness. She moved to McPherson in 1907 and made her home in this city and in Galva since. The funeral services were held at the residence Sunday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock and were in charge of Rev. J. M. Todd of the Presbyterian church. The interment was made at McPherson cemetery.



GRANDPA MIDDLESWARTS DEAD

"Grandpa" Middleswarts of south of Galva died last evening of old age after an illness of about six months. He is one of the first settlers of that community having come here more than forty years ago and had been influential in the upbuilding of the community. He leaves a family of influential children. The funeral will be at Galva. He was eighty-four years old.

OF THE DISTRICT COURT ★ Kansas

Obituary

William McKee Middleswart, son of Mr + Mrs Thomas Middleswart, was born April 29, 1862 in Brown Co. Ohio. He moved with his parents to Ill. 1868 where they remained for 4 yrs. They came to Kans and took a homestead near Galva Kans. in 1872 He was married to Minnie Cramer at McPherson in 1884.

They entered upon the journey together in the Pioneer life of Kans. A life, they could not and dare not know. There was joy, there was sorrow, and sometimes a mingling of the two, And only the faith and courage of a pioneer could press forward and conquer in such trying times. To this union were born two children George and Stella.

Mr Middleswart engaged in business at Galva Kans for several yrs. then moved to Colorado where they remained until nine (9) yrs ago they moved to Fowler.

In the life of Mr. Middleswart we have the glamour of the history of pioneer life, and the spirit of the modern world society linked together in his life history.

He helped to transform the barren plains into green fields nd make places of beauty by encouraging tree planting. And has made his own home a place of beauty because of the trees and shrubs he has planted there and as the yrs go by will stand like a memorial in the hearts and minds of his loved ones, and friends. We can truly say that the world has been made better and more beautiful by his having lived in it.

Mr. Middleswart has been a member of the I.O.O.F. lodge for 39 yrs. received his 25 yr. Jewell from the Mc Pherson lodge several years ago.

He has been a patient sufferer for several weeks. Never complaining, always thinking of others, trying to be cheerful and helpful even tho his body was worn by disease. And on Monday 10:50 morning May 15. the good Shepherd saw fit to call him home where there is no pain, no suffering and no tears.

He lived a life of devotion and friendship to his loved ones and friends.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his loving wife Minnie, Two children, Geoge of Fowler and Mrs Stella Boswell, Golveston, Tex.

One brother James, of Canton Kans. Four (4) Grand Children and four great grand Children. other relatives and a host of friends.

Our knowledge of that life beyond is small
And much to us is very dim,
But 'tis enough that God knows all,
And we can trust in him.

J.A. & Belle Campbell 4 July 1899 20:59 Cr.Co., OH John Shelton M6

THE GRIERSONS OF THE PARISH OF GLENCAIRN, DUMFRIESSHIRE, SCOTLAND

JOHN R. GRIERSON (immigrant to America) was born at BANKHEAD, in the parish of Glencairn, in Dumfriesshire, in 1801. "He was the child of pious parents and was descended from a convenanting family, the Griersons of Lochenkit, who suffered for conscience sake in the days of the persecution. His father, Alexander Grierson, was a man of more than ordinary intellignece and general information among the class of Scottish farmers to which be belonged; he was, moreover, held in high esteem by those who knew him for his uprightness and integrity of character, combined with a most genial and kindly disposition, thus winning for himself the reputation of an oblinging neighbor and a steady friend, he was, without doubt, a humble and sincere Christian, a man of faith and prayer, striving in his own quiet way, to adorn the doctrine of God his Savior, and to walk before his house with a perfect heart. Being chosen an elder in the Parish of Glencairn, he discharged the duties of that office till his death, during a period of twenty-one years. His wife, Margaret Cunningham, was like-minded; she was at the same time, lively and cheerful in disposition, a prudent wife and loving mother, remarkably active and diligent in every department of household managemnet, while to those around her, 'she opened her mouth with wisdom, and in her tongue was the law of kindness.' She survived her husband for the long period of twenty-five year."

"Of the family of nine sons and daughters who grew up around these worthy parents, all have passed away from earth except one brother and sister who still survive." (The writing of the above book was 1882 and Elizabeth and William were still living.) "All their children attended Crossford school."

"In the year 1830, Alexander Grierson entered upon the FARM of STRAITH, under the late Sir Robert Laurie of Maxwellton (direct descendant of Annie Laurie) in which ever since, during a period of more than half a century, the family have continued tenants."

Alexander Grierson died in 1839 (age 64 years). Frequest attacks of bronchitis during the spring months enfeebled his once vigorous frame, and he succumbed to an apparently slight influenza cold on 9th June 1839. "The family did not leave Straith, Mrs. Grierson and her son William, continuing tenants on the farm."

The preceeding information was taken from a book written about Alexander Grierson, son of Alexander Grierson, also father of John R. Grierson, immigrant to American. The book was written by the Grand-daughter of Alexander Grierson, and daugther of the Rev. Alexander Grierson. Title, SERMONS OF ALEXANDER GRIERSON WITH A MEMOIR by his daughter, Mrs. James Gibson, Edinburgh, macniven & Wallace. 1882.

The children of Alexander Grierson and Margaret Cunningham:

John R. Grierson (b. 1801) America
Mary Gordon Grierson (b. 1803)
Margaret Grierson (b. 1805--died age 3 years)
Margaret Grierson (second daughter lived till adulthood, a letter exists telling that she just gave birth to a son--James)
James Grierson (b. 1807) Skipton, York
William Grierson (b. 1809) Farm of Straith, Dumfriesshire, Scotland
Robert Grierson (b. 1813) Penpont, Dumfriesshire, Scotland
Elizabeth Grierson (b. 1815) married James Gibson, minister in Dumfries, Scotland
Rev. Alexander Grierson (b. 1817) Iron Gray, Dumfriesshire, Scotland (Free Church)

According to Miss Jessie Steen (descendant of William Grierson) Alexander Grierson, father of John R. Grierson, married Margaret Cunningham, a daughter of the EARL OF GLENCAIRN, OF CAPERINGTON CASTLE. This Earldome is now dormant. The dividing of the Cunningham estate in 1878, seems to varify this. The following letter is now in the possession of Robert Grierson, Libel Road, Cincinnati, Ohio:

From the Free Manse, Irongray
12th April 1878

My Dear Nephew,

I duly received your letter, and want to answered it sooner, but as I am acting in Mr. Dunningham's trust not for myself alone, but for the trustees, I could do nothing till I had laid the case before the lawyer in the trust and I have just heard from him.

I now enclose the discharge for Alexander's signature. (eldest son of John R.) He will sign his name in full at the bottom of pages 1,2, and 3 where marked; and on pages 2 and 3 he will sign the marginal additions, his Christian name on the one side and his surname on the other.

Then leaving room for the testing clause to be added after it is returned to me, he will sign his name across the receipt stamp on page 4, in the presence of two male witnesses above 14 years of age, and not connected with him by relationship.

These witnesses sign only the last page opposite Alexander's name where marked, each adding the word witness after his name.

I enclose printed "Directions for the Subscription of Deeds"--In it after the signatures have been made you will enter all the names of subscribers--the place--the date--full names of witnesses and their designations, and return to be to enable the writer to fill in the testing clause.

I also enclose a letter to myself from Alexander, which he will require to copy in his own hand--writing to have the same date as the subscription authorising me to pay the money to you. You will then send these documents to me, as soon as they come to hand, I shall send you the money, subject to course to the reduction of the expense of the discharge and the expense of transcription.

"You had better let me know to what banker to send the money, or whether I should send it to yourself.

I shall be very glad to be free of the responsibility of it, as it is no pleasure to me to have money not mine, under by charge.

We have at present cold east winds and I have to keep the house. We are all about our usual however, for which we desire to be thankful.

Hoping this may find yourself and family and all the other friends well, I am

With kind reguards
Your affectionate Uncle

To Mr. John W. Grierson
Aberdeen, Ohio

ALEXANDER GRIERSON

We also know that when the Rev. Alexander Grierson was studing at the University of Glasgow, where he graduated with honors, he stayed with his uncle, JAMES CUNNINGHAM.

The tombstone in the Parish Church of Glencarin reads as follows:

"IN MEMORY of ALEXANDER GRIERSON, who died at STRAITH 9th June 1839, age 64 years. He faithfully and concientiously discharged the duties of an Elder for the period of 21 years in this parish. Also MARGARET CUNNINGHAM, his spouse, who died at STRAITH 1st May 1863, age 87 years. Also MARGARET GRIERSON their daughter, who died in Shancastle, 25th Feb. 1808, age 3 years. Also MARY GORDON GRIERSON their Daughter, who died at Bankhead, 30 August 1817, age 14 years. Also JAMES GRIERSON their son, who died at Skipton 30 Sept. 1849 age 42 years. Also Cath. McGwen, wife of William Grierson, Striath, who died 17 June 1867 age 54 years. Also their children Eliz. who died 22 Aug. 1842, age 5 weeks. Also Elizabeth who died 16 July 1853, age 7 years. Also Alexander who died 3 March 1862, age 20 years." ALL THIS IS ON ONE SIDE OF THE STONE!!!!!

The second side of the stone reads as follows:

"Also WILLIAM GRIERSON who died at Straith 13th Jan. 1885 age 76 years. Also Mary Grierson, wife of Alexander Seaton who died at Chesterfield 8 Jan. age 45 yrs. Intered in Chesterfield Cemetary 1887."

Also buried on the plot is a grave with "ROBERT GRIERSON" on it. No dates. Nearby is the son of Alexander and Margaret Cunningham Grierson, ROBERT GRIERSON, (born 1813) and his family.

Stones of ajoining plots are as follows:

"In memory of JANE GRIERSON, Spouse of James Mongomery, Nethertack, who died the 24 June 1824 age 73 years, wife of the said James Mongomery who died March 8, 1837, age 92 years. Also Nicholas Mongomery their daughter who died 24 March 1864."

Also: "To the sacred memory of JAMES GRIERSON, minister of the parish of Glencarin. Born 3rd June 1788, Died 14th September 1831."

"Here lyes the dust of Abigail Dun, late spouse of the Rev. Mr. Grierson, minister of Glencairn. She died on the 11th of Dec. 1783. Dust to dust and the spirit of God who gave ______ ___. In memory of the Rev. Mr. William Grierson, who officiated as minister (unreadable) of the Gospel in Glencairn from the 3rd of Nov. 1774 to the day of his death on the 17th of May 1803 at the advanced age of 70 years. __ ____ was rightly endow3d with all those qualities of mind necessary to adorn the Christian Minister and ______."

In the possession of Mrs. WILLIAM GRIERSON, of the village of Penpont near Thornhill, Dumfriesshire, Scotland, is a handpainted, officially registered, Coat of Arms, Combined GRIERSON-CUNNINGHAM. Translation of motto is "Safer by this." *See cover for drawn reproduction. This lady of the wife of William Grierson, G. Grandson of Robert Grierson, brother to John R. Grierson.

The following information was given by Jessie Steen (desendant of William Grierson, who stayed and farmed with his mother, Margaret Cunningham, at Straith). "The Annals of Glencairn say that the family of Alexander and Margaret Cunningham's were born at Bankhead before they went to Straith. The Cunningham Family is a very ancient one and as William Grierson said, "They were Baidlard Cunninghame*s of Kilnairs who were the first Norman family to be ennobled in Scotland". The Warnebald came over in 1066 from Normandy in the train of Walter the High Steward (ancester of the Steward Royal Family) and was given lands in Ayrshire. All this can be found in Robertous' "Ayrshire Families".

CUNNINGHAME

"The Cunninghame family have as their crest a unicorn and the motto is "over fork over". The unicorn is so name from its having only one horn, which grows out of its forehead. It represents strength, a haughty mind, and one who would rather die than be brought into subjection. The horn was said to possess a powerful antidote against poison and that other animals were glad to drink of water stirred by the horn.

"As to the motto, the story is that Malcolm, the first of the family assisted Malcolm (afterward King Malcolm Canmore) to escape when pursued by MacBeth, by forking straw or hay over him. The kind afterwards rewarded him by the gift of the Earldome of Cunningham and the figure on the shield like the letter Y represents the shakefork."

It may be of interest to note that the 14th Earl of Glencairn (Earldome now dormiant), was the friend of Robert Burns, and was a Cunningham and is commeorated in the well known line "The mother may forget her Child, etc, etc,.....before I forget thee."

John R.Grierson went as a DRAPER to Otley, York (West Riding) at the age of 18 years. His brother, James later moved to Skipton, a town about 10 miles away from Otley. Miss Sarah Green, granddaughter of James, gave to Jeanine Watters a letter from Robert Grierson of Penpont to her grandfather, James, in which he also discussed the possibilities of moving to York. Miss Green is age 82 years (in 1972) and very alert. She varified much of the above information. THE GREENHOW FAMILY OF OTLEY, YORK:

The Parish church of Otley was built in the 100's and the newest part of the church was added in the 1200"s. The Parish records exist as far back as 1562, and in them is found a marriage preformed by John Wesley, the christening of Thomas Chippendale, and the MARRIAGE OF JOHN R. GRIERSON AND ANNE GREENHOW (GREENOUGH). It reads as follows:

"JOHN GRIERSON of this parish, Draper, and Anne Greenough of this Parish, spinster married 15th February 1824".

Also located was Anne's baptism: "Anne, daughter of SAMPSON GREENOUGH, of Otley, grocer, and of Anne his wife. Born 5th May 1804. Baptised 25 May, 1804."

Marriage of Anne Greenhow's parents as follows: "SAMPSON GREENOUGH, of this parish, Bridle Cutter, and Anne Knowleson, of this parish, Spinister, married 24th June 1799."

The wedding was preformed by a rather famous Vicar, James Bailey. Also noted both Sampson and Anne could sign their own names and did not have to put a cross, as many had to do in those days.

Christening of SAMPSON GREENHOW (GREENOUGH). "SAMPSON, son of THOMAS GREENOUGH, of Otley, butcher, born 9th August baptised 29th August 1779."

Mary E. Waggoner of Spencerville, Ohio, stated that it had always been their family tradition that the Greenhow's name came from a town called "Greenhow Hill", named for the family. In the West Riding of Yorkshire, I located a village of 8 houses called "Greenhow Hill". I have contacted the minister in the parish. Although the name is spelled "Greenough" on the church records, it is spelled "Greehow" on the tombstones.

"Here lies the remains of Ann, the wife of Sampson Greenhow, druggist of Otley, who died Feb. 5, 1812, age 31 years. A virtuous woman, void of all strife--a tender mother and a loving wife. Also of Thomas, son of the above named, who died March the 18, 1805 age 1 year."

Also of the said Elizabeth Douglas, Granddaughter of the late John Knowlson in the 41st year of her age, 1840. Also of John Greenhow Douglas."

IMMIGRATION TO THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

According to the passanger list, Ann and John Grierson brought with them five children, when they came to America. They came in the year 1836. A daughter, ELIZABETH, died in England before they came. The children were: ALEXANDER (age 12 yrs.), MARGARETe, (age 7 years,) JOHN WORTH (age 6 years), RICHARD (AGE 4 yrs.), and JAMES (age 1 year). James contracted small poxon the journey and was hidden under the mattress to prevent his being thrown overboard, as was the custom. Ann's sister, Sarah Greenhow accompanied them to America, as she is listed on their boat passenger listings.

John Grierson brought a herd of blooded stock with him for the Walter Dun (Dunn) Company, Kentucky Central Importing Company. After landing in Philadelphia, the family traveled west to Lexington, and settled about 10 miles from there.

1-a. David Lee Mox (b. Sept. 19, 1929) married May 8, 1956 to Erma Ford. Two children: Janice Elaine (b. Oct. 24, 1955) and Andrew David Mox (b. Oct. 12, 1958).
1-b. Carol Gwynne Mox (b. Oct. 23, 1934) Unmarried.
1-c. Glenard Frederick Mox (b. June 28, 1939) married Feb. 22, 1969 to Patricia Jeanice Gosselin (b. Jan. 25, 1943).

G-2. Nellie Frances Grierson (Midge) born Nov. 7, 1908) married Walter Watson Games (b. Sept. 23, 1910) on July 21, 1931. * See line of Walter Dunn Grierson.

G-3. Daisy Laura Grierson (b. Oct. 9, 1910) married June 14, 1929 to Ralph Frances Dale (b. Feb. 13, 1911) Divorced. Lives in Aberdeen, Ohio.
* 3-a. Barney Lee Dale (b. Dec. 31, 1930) married Maria Carmen Sanchez Diaz of Spain. Three children: Audrey Dale (b. May 6, 1959), Dania Dale (b. April 16, 1962), and David Dale (b. July 3, 1966.)

3-b. Audrey Ethel Dale (b. Dec. 18, 1932) married Jerry Irvin. Divorced. Two sons: Jerry Irvin (b. March 1, 1956) and Blair (b.Feb. 24, 1957) Audrey Dale married second L. M. McBride, one son, Ralph McBride (b. Nov. 28, 1961)

3-c. Ralph Rodney Dale (b. Jan. 6, 1942) married Barbara O'Cull. Two stepsons: Jeffery and Tracy O'Cull.

3-d. Phillip Alan Dale (b. Nov. 30, 1951) Unmarried.

G-4. Alfred Gwynne Grierson (b. Aug. 6, 1912) married June 15, 1936 to Carrie Mae Flaugher (b. May 6, 1916). Resides in Ellsberry. One son and one daughter:

4-a. Albert Gwynne Grierson (b. Feb. 12, 1940) married June 20, 1959 to Delores Lightner. Divorced. One daughter, Patricia Jean Grierson (b. Dec. 25, 1959). Second marriage to Sharon Rowe. Divorced. One daughter, Marsha Lee Grierson (b. Dec. 30, 1964).

* 4-b. Cheryl Ann Grierson (born March 22, 1947) married to Jerry Lee.

G-5. William Bailey Grierson (b. July 12, 1914) married Mary Ruth Morrison (born Aug. 8, 1920--died) Two daughters: Donna Kay Grierson (b. August.9, 1940) and Marilyn Sue Grierson (b. Sept.28,1942). This family lives in Dayton, Ohio

William married second Ellen Irene Ewing (b. April 4, 1915) on July 2, 1954.

G-6. Robert Knowlson Grierson (b. Feb. 27, 1918) married Billie 7/10 10 Jean Warren (born Jan. 9, 1922) One child, Frances Michelee (b. ~~April~~ 4, 1943.) This family lives in Dayton, Ohio

G-7. Margaret Ethel Grierson (b. Aug. 28, 1920) married Aug. 4, 1945 to Warren Kee Speidel (b. May 2, 1923).

7-a. Sherry Lee Speidel (b. May 22, 1950) married George Rutzek III, (b. July 14, 1947) They have a son, Christopher Sean Putzek.

7-b.&c. TWINS--Sharon Lynn and Karon Lou Speidel (b. June 10, 1956).

G-8. Marian Evelyn Grierson (b. Dec. 1, 1925) married Aug. 21, 1944 Lemuel Fulton Boone (b. Dec. 13, 1921) Daughter, Tersa Irene (June 20, 1951)

G-9. Norman Eugene Grierson (b. Sept 25, 1928) married June 2, 1954 to Virginia Lee Webster (b. Nov. 26, 1935) Three Children: Nola Walter Grierson (b. March 3, 1956), Larry Ray (b. Sept. 12, 1957), and Bonnie Jean Grierson (b. June 20, 1959).

G-10. Walter Ronald Grierson (b. Dec. 22, 1932) married Jan. 12,1963 to Linda Lee Curry (b. Feb. 18, 1940). Two daughters: Penny Lynn Grierson (b. Nov. 17, 1963) and Molly Ann (b. May 14, 1965).

XII The twelveth child of JOHN AND ANN GREENHOW GRIERSON was ANNA GRIERSON. (born approx. 1845) Never married.

XIII. The thirteenth child of JOHN AND ANN GREENHOW GRIERSON was DAVID GRIERSON (no dates). Did not live until adulthood.

Early Richmond History in America- The emigrant Ancestor:

The story of your Richmond family in America, as far as I have been able to determine, begins in the colony of New Jersey.

There appeared the following notice in "The Pennsylvania Gazette", No.1802, July 7, 1763:

"Run away the 2d Inst. from the Subscriber, living in Upper Freehold, Monmouth County, East-New-Jersey, A Servant Man, named John Richman, about 20 Years of Age, 5 Feet 10 Inches high, well-set and active: Had on when he went away, A new Felt Hat, blue Cloth Coat, brown Broadcloth Jacket, Leather Breeches, dark grey Yarn Stockings, two Pair of Shoes, one old and the other new, with Brass Buckles. Whoever takes up and secures said Servant, so that his Master may have him again, shall have Three Pounds Reward, and reasonable Charges, paid by John Voorhees."<2>

It is possible that this early reference describes your ancestor. It was a common practice of European residents to indenture themselves as servants, or as other laborers, in homes and businesses in America, in return for the cost of their passage to this land. After a term of years, usually about seven, the immigrant worker had earned his freedom, and sometimes a small nest-egg from the master's generosity, and set out on his own. Born in 1739, your ancestor, Hans Ritzman, or Reichman, may have indentured himself to this businessman in return for boat fare from Holland to New Jersey. Here, in the town of Upper Freehold, his master, John Voorhees, also of Dutch origin, provided decently his needs of food, shelter, and clothing. Hans "Americanized" his name to John Richman, or Richmond, for convenience, or to improve his feeling of "belonging" to this new land. He possessed a strong spirit of independence, and, believing he had toiled long enough to repay the debt to Voorhees, "slipped the bonds." Whether he ever returned to his master or not is unknown. Maybe he did, and found Mr. Voorhees forgiving, and in a short time earned his freedom, to prosper on his own.

However it came about, John, or "Honce"(phonetic variation of Hans) as he was sometimes called, Richmond, of sturdy old Dutch ancestry (reference 21 says he was German),came from Holland to this country, settled in the village of Blue Ball, later called Adelphia, and established himself in the business of grist milling, an occupation which was to become something of a tradition in the family. He is said to have owned mills in Red Stone, Washington, and Fayette, as well as one at Blue Ball, Monmouth County.<3> In fact, the latter became the scene of a historical event of the Revolutionary War. Richmond's Mill was the site of the posting of Colonel Daniel Morgan and his riflemen on June 28, 1778, during the Battle of Monmouth. Here they waited impatiently the entire day for orders to move up and take part in the battle. The mill stood on one of the branches of the Manasquan River, a short distance north of Blue Ball, and as late as 1825 was the property of David Richmond. It passed to Aaron Shaw, and then to Joseph Shumar, from whom it later obtained its name, "Shumar's Mill"(1880's). <4>

Actually, deeds in the Monmouth County Courthouse, in Freehold, indicate the mill and the family farm was sold to John Henderson, in 1809, then bought by David Richmond in 1810, while he and John, Sr., still lived there.<5> In 1813, David sold the mill, mill seat, and pond, to John K. Holmes, and to my knowledge, it did not again belong to the Richmonds.<6>

Not only did John Richmond become well-known as a miller, but he was a deeply religious man, served as a circuit preacher for the Methodist church in that part of New Jersey, and was said to have been the first Methodist in all the region.<7> He built the first Methodist church in New Jersey, called "the Church at Monmouth", in the area of the present town of Freehold, and there he preached. <8>

Even though the Methodists were struggling to break away from the Anglican Church, the leaders of this movement were predominantly Tory. John Wesley opposed the Revolution, and strongly urged his followers in America to remain neutral and not oppose the King. All the leaders of this religious movement left for England at the outbreak of the War, except Francis Asbury, who found refuge from persecution as a Tory in Delaware. By 1779, only 140 Methodists remained in New Jersey, but in that year, despite unfavorable times, a church was constructed at Adelphia, now called Howell, near Freehold, reportedly by our John Richmond. It was the only building owned by the Methodists, and thus drew its members from all over the region. The church later took the name "Bethesda", which is used to this day for the cemetery nearby, in which the Richmonds are buried.<9>

Trusted as friend, neighbor, minister, and provider of the fresh-ground flour and meal for their daily bread, John was frequently called on to witness wills, to inventory estates, or to be a bondsman or executor. The earliest such record places him in Freehold in February, 1772.<10>

During the war years, 1778, and '80, a census was conducted in New Jersey, probably to determine the number of able-bodied men who might be called into military service if needed. John's name can be found listed under "Freehold, Monmouth County", at that time.<11>

In 1784, John inventoried the estate of Mary Throckmorton, of Freehold. In 1789, he was executor for the estate of Daniel Williams, of Shrewsbury. Another enumeration of the heads of households of New Jersey was conducted in during the Battle of Monmouth. Here they waited impatiently the entire day for orders to move up and take part in the battle. The mill stood on one of the branches of the Manasquan River, a short distance north of Blue Ball, and as late as 1825 was the property of David Richmond. It passed to Aaron Shaw, and then to Joseph Shumar, from whom it later obtained its name, "Shumar's Mill"(1880's). <4>

Holmes, and to my knowledge, it did not again belong to the Richmonds.<6>

1793, and recorded John Richmond under "Township of Freehold"<11A>. In 1799, John was a bondsman, as well as took the inventory, for the estate of Peter Patterson, of Monmouth County. On the estate inventory of Henry -----(copy too faint to read), May 8, 1801, we find the names of both John Richmond, Senior, and David Richmond, and the signature of John as one of the appraisors<12>:

John Richmond

Although plenty of evidence shows that John Richmond lived in, or near, Freehold at a much earlier date, a deed was not written until April, 1802, and officially recorded in the courthouse in August, 1803, describing the land in Freehold that John had obtained from one John Francis, on March 21, 1793. No earlier record has been found in that county to tell us when John Richmond first owned land.<13> In 1799, John's possessions, for the sake of the tax collector, amounted to 240 acres of improved land, 117 acres of unimproved land, two horses, eleven cattle, one dog, and the grist mill.<14> Details of the marital life of John Richmond are lacking, but we can find the name of his wife, Mary, on that April, 1802 deed mentioned previously. Her tombstone in the Bethesda cemetery also attests to their union, but where and when they were married, the bride's maiden name, and whether she was John's first and only wife and mother of all the children whose names we know, is presently a mystery. If we make some assumptions, based on the birth years of the children, and that Mary was their mother, we can say that in about 1768, around the age of 29, John married Mary, who was then about 18. The names of two sons and two daughters have been found:

1. Elizabeth Richmond: born 18 Apr. 1769<15>;
2. David Richmond: born 1772;
3. John Richmond, Jr.: born 1774;
4. Catharine Richmond: born - ??.

There is, in addition to the above names, the name of a witness to that 1802 deed, Anna Richmond, of whom I know nothing more. Perhaps she too belongs in this family.

Mary Richmond lived to be only fifty-two years old, and died in August, 1802. John's prosperity must have ended about that time. In April, 1802, in January, 1803, and in January, 1806, John disposed of more of his land in the neighborhood<16>. Then, in September, 1809, James Lloyd, sheriff of Monmouth County, sold John's farm and mill to Thomas Henderson, an action which usually implied that taxes or other debts were overdue. John, and son, David, continued to reside on that land, and David bought it back in October, 1810<5>, but John died on June 21, 1812, aged seventy-three, owning but little of value (maybe for that reason he left no will), as the following inventory of his estate reveals<17>;

Mary and John were interred in the Bethesda Cemetery, Adelphia, New Jersey, their graves marked with a single headstone bearing the following epitaph:

> "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord from henceforth they rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

Thus we leave John, Sr., and his wife, Mary, and continue the family history with the lineage of their children, especially that of John, Jr., from whom you descend.

Our First Native American Richmonds:

1. Elizabeth Richmond, eldest of John's children whose names we know, married William Cooper, son of Thomas and Margaret Cooper, residents of Shrewsbury Township, Monmouth County, New Jersey. William was a veteran of one brief term in the Revolutionary War, having served three days in the 4th New Jersey Foot Regiment in May, 1778.<18> He was born in Monmouth County in 1762, and married Elizabeth in 1783<19>. They resided adjacent to William's parents' land, where their first twelve children were born. In June, 1811, William and Elizabeth sold their share of a tract of land to his brothers, John and Thomas, for $50 each, that he and his brothers had purchased jointly in 1802. He also appointed brother John his attorney, so, typically, any debts or legal matters could be settled in William's absence from the community.<20> They were ready to move.

According to one source, they moved, with their twelve children, in the autumn of 1812. The story says they travelled by team and wagon, so the date probably indicates their arrival, the 600 mile journey to southwestern Adams County, Ohio, requiring many months to complete. Here they purchased 103 acres of land from Edmund Martin's heirs, and added their thirteenth, and last child, to the family.<21> On March 1, 1818, this area(Huntington Township), was included in the creation of the new Brown County. William died in 1819, but Elizabeth lived to a ripe old age, to die on September 26, 1859. From this early family of Richmond kin, countless lineages have sprouted, and even today, descendants can be found living where those hardy pioneers first carved their home from Ohio land.

The children born to William and Elizabeth Richmond Cooper were:

5. John: born ? , died in War of 1812, Sandusky, Ohio;

6. Joanna: Dec. 15, 1793 - Sept. 1, 1864; married Robert Scott, 4 Sept. 1812;

7. Margaret: Feb. 10, 1798 - Oct. 25, 1884; married John Boone, 25 Jan. 1816;

8. Sydney: born ? , killed by Indians;

9. Thomas: born ? , died after 1886; married Susannah Middleton, 29 Mar. 1818;

10. Mary: Aug. 24, 1799 - May 5, 1881; married James M. Middleswart, 7 Jan. 1824;

11. Charles: Apr. 18, 1801 - Feb. 23, 1871; married Margaret Cordery, 1 Jan. 1826;

12. Eleanor: Sept. 13, 1802 - May 26, 1883; married Ezekial Martin, 20 Jan. 1822;

13. Zenas: Apr. 10, 1804 - Oct. 20, 1889; never married;

14. Jacob: Nov. 30, 1805 - Feb. 1880; married Margaret Flaughter, 1827;

15. Eliza: Jan. 15, 1808 - Mar. 27, 1886; married John Carrigan, 1827;

16. Peter: born about 1809 - died after 1886; married Nancy Scott;

17. David: born in Ohio, Feb. 22, 1812 -died before Feb. 21, 1833, single.
<22>

2. David, second child of John, Sr. and Mary Richmond, married Priscilla Patterson and lived for many years on the home farm of his father, carrying on the milling business and also serving as a Methodist preacher. In 1799, his taxable possessions amounted to two horses, two cows, and the house in which they lived. Their several children included: <23>

18. Mary: born 1806, married Lear Specator, died 1887, buried at Bethesda;

19. John W.:(1817-1870), wife Mary T., sons:

i. Charles W.:(1862-1868);

ii. George W.:(1865-1881).

20. David(Jr.?): born 1823, was also a miller, married Harriet J. Syckles, had sons:

i. Joseph H.:(1857-1915) who became a blacksmith, Long Branch, N.J., married Leona M. Fields, 28 June 1886;

ii. John S.:(1861-1870);

iii. Frederick H.(1864-1870).

David(Sr.), who lived to be 75, died May 3, 1847, and was buried near his parents, in the Bethesda Cemetery, Adelphia, New Jersey. Priscilla died in 1865, and was buried there also.

4. Catharine, presumed to be another of John Richmond's children, is something of a mystery. No mention of her has been found in the reference books- of her existence we have only these clues: The tombstone in the Bethesda Cemetery, which bears the names of John and Mary Richmond, was inscribed, "Erected by their daughter, Catharine Courson", and elsewhere in the cemetery is a grave marked;

21. "Griffen Thompkins Coursen, son of Cornelius and Catharine, died Dec. 13, 1852, aged 5 yrs., 4 mos. and 8 days". <24>

For the sake of a little thoughtful arithmatic with dates and ages, Griffen was born in October, 1847. Catharine, of course, was still young enough to have a child- let's assume forty at the most, born about 1807. The known children of John (and Mary?) were born around thirty-five years before. Even if Catharine was born before Mary's death in 1802, she would therefore have been forty-five or older, and her mother nearly fifty-two, both unlikely ages for child-bearing. I suggest that the gravestone is misleading, and that Catharine was a "grand"daughter of John and Mary, probably one of David's children. More research could be done on this family.

The Pioneering Ancestor:

(3.) It is to John Richmond, Jr., that we owe credit for founding the western branches of the Richmond family. Perhaps, being younger than his brother, David, he realized that he was unlikely to inherit much from his father's estate. Maybe as a youth, before he was grown enough to be a working partner in the mill, he found more time to listen to tales told by travelers returning from the frontier. One can imagine that there was a powerful fascination in those lands which may have been granted to some of the Richmonds' neighbors for their service in the Revolution. John dreamed of the day he too could go west.

Records of John, Jr., have not been found describing his early years. We know from later sources (land transactions, estate papers, etc.) that his wife was Mary. Perhaps they were the John Richmond and Mary Wiser whose marriage took place in Middlesex County, New Jersey, on June 6, 1798 <25>. Middlesex is the next county west of Monmouth, and had a number of Richmond families, even another John Richmond, but no relationship with your Monmouth County ancestor has yet been proven <26>. No other marriage record has been found for a John Richmond, in Monmouth or nearby counties in this general period of history. If your ancestry correctly traces from Mary Wiser, then more research will probably find you linked to Jacob Wiser, whose name is prominent in records of New Brunswick, Middlesex County, from 1748 to 1780.<27>

In 1799, tax returns show that John, Jr., owned two horses, three cattle, and his house, but no acreage. David, likewise, owned no land, so it appears they all lived on John, Sr's. land, and the parents resided with one of the sons.<14>

On April 19, 1806, John, Jr., appointed his brother-in-law, William Cooper, to be his attorney to handle all his financial matters around home, since he was preparing to leave New Jersey "for some time"<28>. Clearly, we can reason, there was only so much room for millers in the established community around Freehold. Maybe John, Jr., hoped to find land with a suitable waterway and set up a business of his own. For whatever the reason, he had returned by March 2, 1807, when he purchased some land from Jacob Wert<29>. On August 13, 1808, John "having again returned to .... New Jersey", revoked the Power of Attorney previously granted to William<30>. On April 15, 1809, John and Mary sold their seven tracts of land in Howell and Dover Townships, Monmouth County, to John J. Little, for two thousand dollars. The first tract described in the deed contained forty-nine acres, and it was there that John's house stood.<31>

The failing health of his father may have kept young John and his family from leaving, or other circumstances may have prevailed, such as the birth, in 1810, of their fourth child, but the move west finally began. The trek was a fairly gradual one, punctuated by the birth of the fifth child, in Pennsylvania, in 1814, and the sixth child, in 1816, in Kentucky. By this time, William and Elizabeth Richmond Cooper, and their family, were settled near Aberdeen, Ohio, so it was to that destination that John and his family headed. There, on Eagle Creek, a few miles north of Aberdeen, in the area soon to become Huntington Township, Brown County, they put down roots into Ohio soil for generations of Richmonds who would be born in this state. Their first purchase of property was made in 1819, and recorded on January 20, 1820, $4000 for 155 acres on the northern edge of the township, from James Power, originally patented to James Taylor, and part of Simon Summers' survey No. 1536. On December 20, 1821, deed records say, they bought another 171 acres on Eagle Creek, from Power, paying $2000.<32>

Of the grist mill, one record says it was built about 1818, and "John Richmond then became the owner, and operated it for several years, and then sold it to James Baldwin. It was then a log building."<33> The latter sale, of the 171 acre tract, for $1500, was recorded in Brown County on Mar. 18, 1823.<34> By 1883, the mill had changed ownership several times, been rebuilt, enlarged, repaired, etc., and appeared on the map as "Young's Mill", for Thomas Young, its owner at the time.<35>

John and Mary lived on their other tract of land, 155 acres on Eagle Creek, and operated a sawmill there. At the age of about fifty-six, in April, 1828, John died. The end may have come unexpectedly, for John left no will. From the inventory of his estate, we can get a picture of the activities and lifestyle of the family on that farm, just prior to John's death.<36>

> The Richmond's home furnishings included one large, and one small, breakfast table, around which sat one "set", and two extra Windsor chairs, and two chairs with seats woven of split wood strips. Few luxuries graced the rooms but the "Family Stock of Books", and, probably the most prized of all, a brass clock and case, appraised at $50.00. The spinning wheel, and a wooden bowl in the kitchen, had done a lot of helping with the chores. A bureau held its usual supplies of cloth goods. Outside, the yoke of oxen could be seen pulling a loaded cart, or dragging a chained log to the sawmill. Soon they would plow the fields for spring planting. Eight and one-third acres of wheat grew in the fields that year. The scythe and wheatfan would serve their purposes at harvest time. Meanwhile, new garden soil yielded to the mattock and weeding hoe. Spring wildflowers squirmed with life as bees hummed to and from the family's two hives. There had been big plans to expand the honey production- five extra bee gums(hives made from the hollow logs of the gum tree) stood empty and waiting. There could hardly have been a quiet moment on the farm- thirty-two geese cackled and honked; the four sows, four barrows, and thirteen pigs snorted and squeeled as they rooted and argued for morsels of food; the bull and two cows lowed occasionally, craving a bundle of hay from the pitchfork. One sorrel horse dozed in the sun, waiting to draw a light plow, or to carry a rider to town. The days of the grist mill were all but forgotten. Four flour barrels and a sieve for sifting meal were all that remained. Instead, the tools of the timberman, sawyer, and carpenter were most evident. Besides an old sawmill saw, there was a crosscut saw, two axes, a potmetal sledge and splitting wedges, and log chains, hanging in the shed. A grindstone stood nearby. The toolchest was stocked with three chisels, four augers, a draw knife, a hand saw and a file. The sawmill had been very busy- several thousand board feet of planks were stacked to cure. Trees of good size from the woods all about had felt the bite of the saw- ash, buckeye, cherry, linden, poplar, sycamore, and walnut. Enough lumber and weatherboarding was there to build a small village of houses.

From the estate file, one paper showing that John was a bondsman for the estate of James Cunningham, July 26, 1826, provides us with a sample of his signature:

John Richmond

#6159 The publication of the notice of administration of John's estate was made on April 22, 1828, stating "John Richmond Senr. late of this county, deceased", and naming John Richmond junr., administrator, allows us to approximate the date of death of John "II". It is likely he died no more than one or two weeks prior to this notice, well within the month of April. No evidence has appeared to tell us where John II was buried, so we lack the specific dates that a tombstone might provide.

In the April, 1832, term of the Common Pleas Court of Brown County, James Finley was appointed guardian of the minor children of the deceased.

For some reason, the estate was not settled promptly, as we learn from records in the Civil Court minutes, beginning on 4 Nov. 1830, when John III petitioned the court to be allowed to sell the real estate of his late father, since the estate was inadequate to pay the outstanding debts. Six months passed before an appraisal was ordered, but a year later, new appraisers had to be appointed since the first had failed to do the job. On 23 July, 1832, the appraisal was returned to the Court, and the order issued to sell the real estate. The Court "suggested" that the lands and tenements be sold without benefit to the widow of a dower, so as to satisfy the debt remaining on the original purchase price of the property. On 4 May, and 23 July, 1833, John returned to the Court to ask that the sale order be revised, and the case was continued. John found a buyer by 1 November of that year, when he reported back to the Court that James Baldwin had agreed to buy the land for $1405.25, more than the required two-thirds of the appraised value. Sarah Armstrong, administratrix for William Armstrong, deceased, to whom the debt was owed, agreed to accept that amount, and the Court ordered the debt cancelled upon delivery of the proceeds of the sale.<37> It was not until April 1, 1835, that it was recorded that John III, still described as "administrator" sold 137 acres on Eagle Creek, Huntington Township, to James Baldwin, for $1405.25.<38>

Widow Mary Richmond moved to Adams County in 1838, to 74 acres she bought from Addison Tennis. In 1847, she sold that property to Franklin Dragoo, and bought one acre from M. Lee and her husband, in 1849. In 1850, she resided there in Liberty Township, with her daughters, Alice and Jane, and two youngsters, William N., age 6, and Mary E., age 3, possibly her grandchildren. In November, 1852, Mary sold her little place, and in 1860, was living back in Huntington Township, Brown County, with her daughter, Maria Seeks, and family. Here, at age eighty-three, is the last record we have for Mary, and it is presumed she died soon thereafter. No evidence for her place of burial has been found.<39>

John Richmond, Jr., and wife, Mary, had a fairly large family, eight children whose names we know, who lived to maturity. Their first son was named John, and since we know of no distinguishing suffix, or middle name, let's refer to him as John "III":

22. John Richmond, III: ca. 1799 - after 1846;

23. Kaziah Richmond: 1803 - 1887;

24. Mariah Richmond: 1807 - d. ? ;

25. Silas Richmond: 1810 - d. ? ;

26. Wesley Richmond: 1814 - 1889;

John Richmond, III, Father of Amos:

(22.) John Richmond III, born in Monmouth County, New Jersey, about 1799, probably worked with his father at the milling business, in Brown County, Ohio, making his home in the same township, at least to the 1830's. He was married several years before his father's death, to Nancy, daughter of William Raines, a soldier of the Revolution, and his wife, Jane Edwards, herself the daughter of Revolutionary veteran, James Edwards <46>. Nancy was born in Ohio, probably in what is now Brown County, 29 September 1801. We first learn of John from the administration records of the estate of his father, in April, 1828, and in those documents we find a clear sample of his signature:

John Richmond

In 1830, John purchased 93 acres in Brown County from Daniel Morgan, and 20 acres from Andrew Paul.<47> The census of that year counted a son and a daughter, aged at least five but less than ten years, and two daughters, under the age of five, in John's family.<48> In 1837, William Raines died, naming in his will his daughter, Nancy Richmond, to receive $40<49>. That same year, John bought more land in Brown County, from Lemuel B. Sayres, <50>, which may have prompted them to move to Franklin Township, where they were recorded in the 1840 census. The eldest son, who by that year would have been about fifteen years old, seems to have left home, but there were more than enough children to make up for his absence, six girls and four boys, quite a house-full.<51>. In a succession of transactions, John and Nancy sold at least four tracts of land, 1838 through March, 1846,<52> and with the latter, we lose all further track of John Richmond III. Thus, as it was with his parents, gaps exist in the record for the exact death date, and place of burial, for John III.

One statistical problem is the 1850 census, where the names of only three of the children have been found so far, but neither parents nor the rest of this large family. Perhaps when that data is found, we will gain valuable insight into movements of this family, and vital information on its members.

The next, and last, record that we have for Nancy Richmond came from her tombstone, located in the Gov. Byrd Memorial Cemetery, Sinking Spring, Highland County, Ohio. It reads: "Nancy Richmond, wife of John, Died Aug. 19, 1854, Aged 52 y., 10 m., 21 d."<53>.

27. Alice Richmond: 1816 - d. ? ;

28. Johnson Richmond: 1820 - d. ? ;

29. Jane Richmond: 1822 - d. ? .

22. John Richmond, III, is the ancestor through whose line you descend. For the moment, lets read about the lives of the other siblings, returning for a more thorough look at John, III, later.

23. Kaziah Richmond was born in New Jersey in 1803. She married Jeremiah Ellis, in Brown County, Ohio, on 10 November 1825. This family resided in, or near, Russellville, and later(1860), in Byrd Township. Eleven children were born to them:

30. James Riley Ellis: b. 1827, married Rachel Jane McCarty on 31 August 1852, died 18 July 1917;

31. Elmira Ellis: b. 12 May 1830, married Thomas Robinson, Sr., died 5 March 1925;

32. Mary Ann Ellis: b. 1832; m. Stanley ? ; d. ?

33. John Ellis: b. 1833; d. 1913.

34. Nathan Ellis: b. 1835; d. 1865.

35. William Ellis: b. 1836; m. a Mrs. Pindell, then a Roush; d. 1905.

36. Jeremiah Ellis(Jr.): b. 1840; m. Nancy Edwards; d. 1905.

37. Samantha Ellis: b. ? ; m. Harvey Liggett; d. ?

38. Harriet Ellis: died in infancy.

39. Saphronia Ellis: died in infancy.

40. Johnson Wesley Ellis: b. 1849; m. Josie Pindell; d. 1933.

Jeremiah worked as a farmer until his death occured from pneumonia on 28 March 1886. Kaziah moved to Cherry Fork, Adams County, where she died in 1887, and is thought to have been buried in the cemetery there, though no stone has been found.<40>

25. Silas Richmond was born in New Jersey in 1810. Following the death of his father, he was so burdened by financial problems, that on 1 Apr. 1834, he applied to the Court of Brown County for the benefit of the Insolvent Laws(bankruptcy?). His situation didn't prevent his marrying Euphemia Seeks on 5 June 1834, in Brown County. On 1 Apr. 1835, Silas was certified for benefit of the Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, by the Court. His family lived in Huntington Township for a few years(around 1840), then moved to Paint Township, Highland County, Ohio, where Silas worked as a miller(around 1850). By 1880, Euphemia was living in Perry Township, Brown County, with her Son-in-law, Milton Gallagher, and his family, Silas presumably having died sometime before. Seven children whose names are known:<42>

43. John Richmond: born 1836;

44. Susannah Richmond: b. 1838(1840 in census); married Milton Gallagher, had Frank, John, Edith, and Samuel.

45. George W. Richmond: b. 1843; m. Matilda("Anilla") Moore, 24 October 1867, Brown Co. She died, and George married again, to Caroline F. Snider, January 7, 1883. She died in Perry Twp., Brown Co., on 15 Mar. 1909. Records indicate ~~two~~ children for George and Matilda:

i. Walter, b.1877,(may be same as Walter L., who married Anna Snyder, Brown Co.);

ii. Rosanna, b.28 Feb. 1879, Sterling Twp., Brown Co.

46. Mary Ann Richmond: b. 1845(1849? in census), single in 1880, living with sister, Susan Gallagher's family, and their mother.

47. David Noble Richmond: b. 1848; m. Rosella Bradley(or Badgley), 25 December 1869, Brown Co., and had sons:

i. John Silas(b. 24 Feb.1874, Williamsburg Twp., Clermont Co., Ohio);

ii. Charles(b. Sterling Twp.,Brown County, 20 Feb. 1879).

48. Mariah Bell Richmond: b. 1852;

49. Victoria Richmond: b. 1855.

26. Wesley Richmond, born in Pennsylvania, 8 Oct. 1814, married Elizabeth Daily, daughter of Peter and Lydia Robbins Daily, in Adams County, Ohio, 18 May 1839. They had one son:

50. William Johnson Richmond, born 5 July 1840, in Ohio, who was killed in the Civil War, 27 April 1865, in the explosion of the Sultana, a river steamboat.

Wesley and Elizabeth moved to Jefferson County, Illinois, in 1842, where she died on 22 Aug.1843. He returned to Brown Co., Ohio, where he married Catherine Messeritz on 3 July 1845. She was born in Adams County, 20 July 1819, daughter of John Henry and Hannah Makatoy Messeritz. Wesley worked at farming, as did many of his family, in southeastern Huntington Township, Brown Co., until his death on 18 April 1889. Catharine died there of typhiod fever on 19 January 1896. 27. Alice Richmond, born 1816, in Kentucky, lived in Adams County, Ohio, in 1850, with her sister, Jane, and their mother. Brown County records list the death, on 9 Aug. 1902, of "E. S." Adamson, age 36 yrs., 1 mo., and 18 days, parents: Wesley Adamson and Alice Richmond. Since Alice would have been fifty years old when this person was born, I believe this reference belongs to "Edward", son of Sarah A.(Alice?) Richmond and John W.(Wesley?) Adamson- see later. No other information on Alice.<44>

28. Johnson Richmond, born in Ohio, 1820, married Mary J. Glascock, in Brown County, 7 March 1845. He farmed there until about 1859, when they moved to Tolona, Lewis Co., Missouri. Johnson died at Newark, Knox Co., Missouri, date unknown. There were nine children: <45>

29. Jane Richmond, born in Ohio in 1822, appears in the census record, with Alice and their mother, Mary, in 1850, Adams County. No other data. <44>

The census returns seem to say that John III and Nancy (Raines) Richmond had at least thirteen children, but we have only determined the names of nine. Some birthdates are uncertain, and therefore the order of birth is somewhat debatable (probably all born in Ohio). :

Now lets read what has been found to describe John's children.

67. A female, born between 1821 and 1825, was counted in John's family in both 1830 and 1840 census records, but we have no evidence of who she was, etc.

68. Daniel Morgan, born about 1825, married in Brown County, to Mary Ann ~~Tennis~~ Turner mar. cert., 7 May 1849, lived in Byrd Township in 1850, worked as a miller. In 1860, they resided in Stonelick Twp., Clermont Co., but that is the last we know of them. Their children include:<54>

vi. Francis M., b. 1859

69.& 70. Neither of these two individuals appeared in the 1830 census, but were enumerated in 1840. No subsequent evidence has been found for their existence, however.

71. Mary Jane, probably born between 12 July, and 11 Sept., 1828, was on her own by 1850, residing in an Aberdeen, Ohio, hotel. In July, 1860, she was living with the family of Jeremiah Huron, a farmer of Huntington Township, Brown County. On June 10, 1862, she married Harrison Porter, and sometime thereafter moved to Farm Ridge, LaSalle Co., Illinois. No data on children, if any. Probably she was still living in 1897. <55>

74. Wesley, born about 27 Jan. 1834, worked as a laborer in Byrd Township, Brown County. In 1850, he was living with the family of William Jones(later to become brother Amos's father-in-law), in Decatur. On 21 May, 1856, Wesley and Bridget Wiltshire were married. She was born in Dublin, Ireland, 10 Aug. 183~~5~~4, daughter of Patrick and Mary Ledridge, and was, in 1856, a widow with a son, Jackson, born 3 Sept. 1852, St. Louis, Mo.(died 5 June 1910, Evansville, Ind). In the summer of 1864, Wesley served on the Brown County Militia, ready to bear arms against the Rebels, in case they tried to cross the Ohio. He died soon after, on 1 May 1865, and was buried in the Decatur Cemetery. Bridget also out-lived two of their three children. She died 20 Aug. 1898, and was interred at Decatur.<57> Cem.

75. John Alexander, "Alex", born in Nov. 1835, worked as a farmer, carpenter and wagon-maker, lived in Highland County, Ohio, where he, and Minerva Fry, obtained a marriage license on 15 June 1861. John served a term as a private in Co.B, 175th Regt. Ohio National Guard. He purchased 46 acres in Feb. 1863, and resided in the neighborhood of Sinking Spring, Brush Creek Township. There was a water-mill two miles west of town, on the east fork of Brush Creek, that was known(in 1880) as Richmond's mill- perhaps he owned it. Minerva died on 17 Feb. 1900, and John on 12 Oct. 1901. They had six children:<58>

i. Mary C.: born 26 Nov. 1862, married to Cassius M. Suiter, Highland County, on 23 June 1881;

ii. John M.: born 28 Sept. 1867, married on 28 Oct. 1896 to Leola J. Bellison, daughter of Sinking Spring's blacksmith, James F. Bellison. They had a daughter, Mary M., b. 9 June 1903. Leola died in 1930, and John d. 1944, both buried at Sinking Spring.

76. Helen, born in Feb. 1839, seems to have lived in the Decatur, Brown County, area most of her life. She never married, and it is for that fact that we can be grateful, because she felt compelled to make a will, naming her brothers and sisters. That document, and the probate papers, confirm the relationship of the nine children of John III named in this booklet. Helen was closest to her brother, Wesley, she being the only sibling whose name appears in his family bible. She remained close, even in death, which came to her on 24 Feb. 1897. She was interred next to Wesley, in Decatur Cemetery, and, after the death, in 1898, of Bridget, Wesley's widow, a single tombstone was erected to immortalize the three of them. <59>

77. Amos, the youngest son, was born 22 May 1840. A biography of his life immediately follows this section.

78. Martha, probably the next child, born about 1841. In 1860, at age 19, she lived just a couple of doors from brother Wesley, in Byrd Township, and worked as a servant. She married s/o Isaac Sr. Isaac Bunner Jr., in Brown County, on 19 Aug. 1877. They resided in Franklin Twp., Brown Co., where we find them in June, 1880, in the census records. Isaac was listed as 55 years old, and Martha, 45. If this is the correct family, there was a rather large error in Martha's age. Three children, Mary A., 16, John, 10, and Christina, age 8, ~~must have been~~ were Isaac's by a former

Later, they may have moved to Wahlsburg, Scott Township(1897).No more known of this family.<60>

79. Eliza Jane, born about 1846. We first find her in 1860 federal census records, living with her brother, Wesley, and his family, in Byrd Township, Brown County. On 25 Nov. 1872, she was married to Leonidas Bayne. They resided in Jefferson Township, where county records say they had three children. Sometime later, this family moved west. The location, "Guernsey, Sumner Co., Nebraska", listed in Helen Richmond's Administration file, seems to be in error- there is no "Guernsey", or a "Sumner" County, but a town of "Sumner", in Dawson County, just south of the center of the state. Eliza was apparently still living in 1897.<61>

i. Hattie(or Attie) E. Bayne: b. 24 Oct. 1873;

ii. Martha Bayne: b. 1 Mar. 1875;

iii. Charles A. Bayne: b. 25 Feb. 1878.

-Nothing more is known of this family.

Thus we end the list of the children of John III, and the grandchildren we have been able to identify, and now we proceed to the story of Amos Richmond.

Dalton Newsletter 24 Sept. 1997

Doye Dalton. I am researching both Dalton and Kruger families, and any info would be greatly appreciated.

* WStevATay@aol.com
Related to Reuben Bennett Dalton buried Caldwell Co. KY, born in Va, moved first to TN then to KY. Seeking info on these surnames from Western Kentucky: Stevens, Traylor, Dalton, Morse, Tosh, Lynch, Carner. Have run into a deadend on William Mansfield Stevens, 1826-1895.

FAMILY LINE - Dave Daulton daulton@ibm.net

1. Moses Daulton: d. 1819 Mason Co, KY

2. George W. Daulton, son of Moses
Born ? in Mason County, KY.. Married June 18, 1814 to Margaret Lucas. He was Justice of Peace in in Huntington Township, Brown County, OH.--some miles west of Aberdeen.
Two children I know of: are Lemuel (below); and Martha A., born abt 1830, who was married Oct 15, 1854 to Larkin Covert.
1840 Census -- George would have been in his 50's. Census incorrectly spells his name "George W. Dalton". Huntington Township, Brown County. Page 253.
1850 Census. -- Lists him as George Daulton.
60 Census. -- Not listed.

3. Lemuel Daulton, son of George
Born abt 1816. Died bef. 1860. Married Sarah Vaughn, who was born 1817. Children were
-William (below)
-Mary Jane (born Jan 31, 1842 in Maysville, KY, Married George Holiday on Sep 8, 1859, died Oct. 23, 1927 in Maysville, KY.) (I have more on her descendents)
-Delmore (born abt 1845)
-Alice (born abt 1847)
-Margaret (born abt 1847)
-John Lemuel (born about 1855, married 1875 to Maggie) (I have more on his descendents)
-Virginia (born Aug 28, 1858
1840 Census: -- For Maysville, KY: Lemuel Daulton with 1 male under 5, 2 males 22 to 25 (one being Lemuel) and one female 22 to 25 (Lemuel's wife, Sarah). This indicates that son William (about 10 years old, born in 1829 or 1830) is not at home. My Uncle Jim believes that William was born to Lemuel and Sarah when they were too young to care for him, and he was being raised by other relatives.
1850 Census --Lemuel, wife, and kids other than William.
1860 Census --Lemuel no longer listed. By that time Sarah was 43, and had 10 kids, some in their 30's.

William, son of Lemuel
I have census information Uncle Jim copied down, for 1850, 1860, and 1870, all from Brown County, OH. To summarize, William (abt 1830-abt 1870) married Catherine J. McClain (abt. 1831-abt 1870), moved to a farm on Eagle Creek, in Brown County, OH, and had four kids:
-Mary (abt 1862-before 1940)

-John Forgie McClain (abt. 1860-Jul 4, 1946)
-Hanna B. (Abt. 1866-before 1940)
-James William (Feb 27, 1868-1940).
Both parents died in 1870 or soon after. The girls went to Hamilton County,
OH. The sons were taken in by neighbor Andrew Carr. Our family has long wondered what William and Catherine died of, when they died, and where they are buried. Son James William is my great-grandfather. (I have infomation on ALL his descendents--it is a LOT)

QUERIES, NOTES, AND RESPONSES

* RESPONSE: DALTON LONGEVITY (17 Sept Issue) from Arthur R Whittaker, arthurw@juno.com
Talking about Daltons that have longevity. I have an Aunt Ruby Whittaker (Nee Dalton) who is 91 years old. Her brother died at 95 years old.

It would be interesting to see how old other Daltons are living. Would others that know of Daltons in their 90's plus please respond the Dalton Gang News letter.

Regards, Arthur Whittaker

Melanie:

I mailed Uncle Jim your information on Moses Daulton. He called tonight and we talked about 2 hours. He was impressed with your scholarship. He gave me several things to mail you about.

1. He corrected me, where I said we were from Adams County. The Adams County Daultons are a different line. We are from Brown County, Ohio. The two Counties are side be side, and both close to Maysville, which is on the Kentucky side.

2. He asked me to post a query asking if any of your readers can help us confirm that Lemuel Daulton (b. abt. 1816, d. bef 1860, married to Sarah Vaughn, b. 1817) was a son of George W. Daulton (b. aft 1796, d. btwn 1850 and 1860, married to Margaret Lucas on June 18, 1814, was Justice of the Peace in Brown County, OH. He was a son of Moses Daulton.) Any info on either would be helpful.

3. He was also aware of the Prince William County references (see the last paragraph of this email), and has long tried to reconcile it with born-in-England references. Along those lines, he made some interesting observations on your references.

a. There is an age discrepency between brother John and the two younger brothers, James and Moses. In 1768, when James and Moses were 8 and 10, John already had a son of his own. Is there some room for conjecture here that maybe they were orphaned and shipped to the colonies to live with relatives?

[illegible] Moses seems to drop from tax lists and all other records from 1778, until 22 years later when he shows up in Maysville, KY., records. So--another conjecture, to replace, or embellish, the first conjecture--maybe Moses was estranged from brother John, and purged John et al from his oral history.

4. Uncle Jim found "Aunt Sabrina's Book" in the geneology room in the Maysville, KY., public library. Despite its title, he remembers it as loose pages that he copied.
Also, he added a second page I did not have when I emailed you before. He dictated this over the phone, so mispellings are mine, not Aunt Sabrinas. Double quotes are asides, from me or Uncle Jim:

"He ((Moses)) died in 1819. Grandma lived a widow more than 40 years with her youngest son , Uncle Thomas, who has lived 60 years in the same place, perhaps 40 years in the same house ((on Second St., still there--per Uncle Jim)).
I said Maysville. At the time Grandfather came it was called Limestone.
He and a relatives of Grandmas's (Uncle Martin), were of the first proprietors of the place. Uncle Martin kept a store. Gandfather too had an interest in it, and was inspector of flour and so forth. Grandma and all our relatives who we share were Baptists. Uncle Grinstead, another relative of Grandmas's was for serveral years Pastor of the Baptist church at Maysville.
He died, I think, in 1827, and was buried at Washington, about 4 miles from Maysville. ((This was a black community--per uncle Jim)). There too they [illegible]ried my great Grandma Williams ((aka Fristoe)). I can remember her--my father took me to see her as she lay in her coffin. I remember his telling me, as he held me in his arms, to look at her--that she was 92 or 93 years old and that she died of old age. She went to bed as usual and died at night. She was always very patient and quiet and tried to give as little trouble as possible.
((Here we omit sentences saying her great grandmother was married twice. Fristoe was first husband, Williams was second.)) My mother and father ((Aunt Sabrina's--her father was James, son of Moses)) were married in Maysville, Kentucky, March 26, 1815.

5. Here is something else Uncle Jim found in the Maysville library.
Again, this was dictated over the phone, and I am afraid I am unsure where comments and text overlap.
Specifically, in the "Moses Daulton had issue" part, the birth, marriage, and death date information post-dates the document quoted, so someone added these later--perhaps Uncle Jim (or perhaps these are separated references that Uncle Jim wrote down together).
BTW, the Simon Kenton mentioned is very famous in Ohio--sorta our Daniel Boone. Also notice the two "Moses's" mentioned are, apparently, [illegible]her and son. Again, mispellings are mine.

Extracts of unrecorded deeds, found in a file box in the office of County Clerk of Mason Cnty KY.

This indenture made Dec 28, 1828 between Arthur Mitchell and Nancy, his wife; James G. Arnold and Margaret, his wife, and Joseph H. Hudnut and Katherine, his wife; William B. Mookler and Susan, his wife; John Daulton, George Daulton, James Daulton, and Thomas Daulton, heirs and legatees of the estate of Moses Daulton, deceased of the one part and Moses Daulton of the other part--parties of the fist part for interst and claim to so much of a certian tract of land on the Ohio River in Maysville at the mouth of Limestone Creek containting 5 acres on which a part of the town of Matsville has been establisehed. Said tract was granted by; patent bearing date of Dec 2, 1785 to John May and Simon Butler (pseudonym for Kenton) for themselves and for the legal representatives of James Douglas deceased. Said heirs covenant with Moses Daulton that they will warrant and forever defend the premises hereby conveyed for themselves and their heirs. Deed signed:
Arthur Mitchell, Nancy Mitchell, William B. Mooklar, S. M. Mooklar, James G. Arnold, Margaret Arnold, Thomas F. Daulton, Joseph H. Hudnutt, Katherine Hudnutt, John Daulton, George W. Daulton, Charles Daulton.

Here we omit a paragraph about another exchange of property.))

Moses Daulton had issue:
1 and 2: William and Mary Daulton, twins, died in infancy.
3. John Daulton
4. Nancy Daulton; married Arthur Montifore Mitchell

(From the Manchester Ohio Gazette, Dec 17, 1868. Cpt Arthur Mitchell died at Aberdeen, Brown County, Ohio, Friday morning, Nov 27, 1868, aged 83 years. He was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Aug 8, 1786. Came to Mason Cnty KY, where he lived in his youth. Served in the War of 1812 as Cpt of a company from Mason County. At the close of the war he removed to St. Lious Missouri for a while, but later came back to Brown County, Ohio.)

5. James Daulton

(Married in Mason County on March 21, 1815 to Naomi Wakeman.)

6. Margaret Daulton - Married (1) in Mason County on July 27, 1811 to John Strain. Married the second time in Mason County February 18, 1817 to mes James imsby Arnold. Grimsby

(Collin's History of Kentucky states Elisha Arnold, father of James Grimsby Arnold, was living in 1873. The second oldest person in Covington Kentucky.)

7. Catherine Daulton born 1796. Married in Mason County on June 29 1815

Joseph H. Hudnut. He was born 1794 and died 1845. Catherine died in 1874.

8. George W. Daulton. Married in Mason Cny June 18, 1814 to Margaret Lucas.
((Per Uncle Jim--Later settled in Brown County. Was justice of the peace there.
He could have had a son Lemuel, born 1815 or 1816.))

9. Thomas Fristoe Daulton. Married Frances Woolfolk and had issue;
a. Henry Duke Daulton. Died at his home on W. 2nd St. Maysville, KY, on May 19, 1912, age 94. For many years he was engaged in the livery business in Maysville.
b. Moses Daulton. Never married. Had a livery business in Maysville.
c. Mary Daulton. Never married.
d. Fannie Daulton, married Philip Hise on July 1, 1873. She signed her name "Fannie D. Daulton".

10. Susan Martin Daulton. born 1801. She married William Bladen Mookler.

11. Moses Daulton. Never married. Died at 33 years at Convington, Kentucky at the home of his sister, Mrs. Margaret Arnold.

The foregoing heirs, were the children of Moses Daulton, born in Prince Williams County, VA, August 12, 1760, died in Mason County, Kentucky, October 27, 1819, Married in Stafford Couty Va, October 4, 1786 to Mary Bauber Fristoe.
She was born May 22, 1765. She died in Maysville, November 20, 1858"

DALTONS AND STEWARTS IN GEORGIA

sent by Jean Shroyer, TXJean@aol.com

This comes from Roger Simm of MS. RSimm18967@aol.com

Reubin Stewart sold March 5, 1838 to JOHN DALTON his interest in a tract of Jackson County land where Bently Martin formerly lived that Stewart and DALTON had purchased from Truman Kellog adjoining Cochran and DALTON. Both Stewart and DALTON (who left a will in Jackson County) were enumerated 1820 in Clarke County, GA. In that year THOMAS DALTON was in Richmond County, and Bailey and Olive and TOLBERT in Putnam County. RANDOLPH DALTON, a RWS (Revolutionary War Soldier) who was in Gwinette County drew Troup County land granted Jan 7, 1828, and another Veteran, THOMAS DALTON of Richmond county in the 1820 Lottery drew land in Early County which was granted 3 Nov 1820.

In 1850 Claiborne Dalton, Waggonmaster born 1781 in VA with wife Charity, born S.C. 1792, were enumerated (# 601) (What county??? reference doesn't say but probably Richmond)...and in their family were Jasper Stewart 24, b. GA; Silas B. Stewart b. 1836 GA; and Matilda A. Stewart b. 1833 GA. Claiborne was living in 1827 in Winn District of Jackson County, GA.

illiam Stewart, b. ca 1750, RWS in Maryland, discharged in Charleston, S.C.; 1809 granted land in White County, Tenn. In 1818 he applied for a pension from White County. His daughter (first name unknowned to me) married TOLBERT DALTON with whom he lived in 1825-1827 and he died in 1829 in White County. The DALTONS had children JANE, MARY, and BENJAMIN.

this proves to be true, they were married during the early 1790's. Records which originated with Alyse Morton, Knoxville, TN, ve the following information on Reuben Dalton, Sr.: Reuben Dalton, Sr. and wife Elizabeth, of Grayson Co., VA to Grainger Co., TN - bought 200 acres in Grainger Co. on the north side of Clinch Mtn.; buried near Thornhill, TN; on Montgomery Co., VA tax lists 1782-1789. Their children were: Hannah b. 1802, married Booker Shockley; Meredith b. 1790-1800, married Delphy Rucker on 3 Feb 1813; Enos b. 1772, married Rebecca; Timothy; Carter married Matilda Witcher; Polly married Dotson; Elizabeth mar! ried Rucker; Reuben d. before Jan 1822, married Nancy Shockley; Ann married Harville.' Samuel Dotson's first wife died before 1830 as that census shows no females in Samuel Dotson's household....."

[Ed:–Brian sent much more on the Dotson line which is too long to enclose here. The remainder to Don was only part of the book listed at the top. If anyone needs this information and cannot locate the book, please contact Brian.]

MOSES DAULTON LINE: JAMES DAULTON
From: rgirdler@your-net.com

Moses and James Daulton, orphans, came from England to the Colonies in the late 1750s'. At the age of seventeen, Moses entered the American army and served for the whole seven years of the Revolutionary War. He educated himself by procuring such books as he could and by studing by the camp fires at night, and came out of the war a fairly well educated young man. Soon after the war, Moses married Mary (Prister) ?, (of Welsh descent), and settled in Dumfries County, Virginia.

James Daulton, son of Moses, married Naomi Wakeman in Maysville (known at that time as Limestone), Kentucky, in 1815. This James Daulton fought in the War of 1812, and, during his travels, was associated with Davy Crockett.

Henry Clay Daulton, the seventh child of ten, was born to James and Naomi Daulton, in Maysville, Ky., on 7 Apr 1829. When but a few months old, his parents migrated to Rolls County, Missouri, where James Daulton built a cabin on Daulton's Branch (presumably a creek).

James and Naomi Daulton died in 1843, and their children were thrown upon their own resources. In 1849, Henry Clay Daulton, and his brother Wakeman, travelled westward, arriving in Hangtown (near Placerville), California on 7 Apr 1850. After a stay of two years there they took passage on a ship to return to his home in Missouri. The ship, the Republic, was damaged in a storm and was taken into port in Acapulco, Mexico, for repairs. After a long and arduous journey, he finally reached Missouri where he entered the employment of one Thomas Hildreth (who later became his brother-in-law). Subsequently they joined a wagon train (of which Thomas Hildreth was captain), with a large drove of horses, cattle and sheep, bound for California. A member of the wagon train party was a Henry Daulton who was the first discoverer of gold on Strawberry Creek in the Rocky Mountains. The wagon train, which was a very large company, reached Salt Lake City, Utah, late in the fall with winter almost upon them. The Latter Day Saints (Mormons) tried to persuade Thomas Hildreth to hold the company in Salt Lake City until the next spring, but Thomas moved the wagon train westward and escaped the fate of another train which was later slaughtered at Mountain Meadow, Utah.

Shortly after leaving Salt Lake City, the Hildreth train was ambushed by a band of Indians whose leaders were white men and were distinctly heard conversing in good English. Henry Clay Daulton exercised his leadership abilities and formed the wagons in a circle, with the women, children, and live stock inside. He then called for volunteers to attack the ambushers. In the ensuing battle the Indians fled and the members of the wagon train found the dead Indians to be Mormons.

Note: Mason Co., Ky. births 19 June 1824 Wm. C. Daulton to James & Naomi (Wakerman) Daulton pg5

so the marriage for Edley Dalton as entered above.

As found in a book titled " Estill County and it's People", "There is a big log house on the hill above Elmo Rose's house, built and owned by Timmie Dalton" Timmie Dalton married Susan Adams and came to Estill County from Grainger County, Tennessee in the 1840s'. Susan is the sister of John Thomas Adams. Susan and John Thomas Adams were born in Virginia.

DALTON-COLE

submitted by Wanda Cole <wjgc301024@aol.com>

I have a reference to an unpublished Master's of History thesis by James O. Murphy, who evidently examined a work by Emmett Dalton, youngest of the Dalton outlaw gang. The literary work is "When the Dalton's Rode", written by Emmett Dalton.

I found this reference in the card catalogue in the University Library at the University of Oklahoma, although I did not find the thesis. These writings are not in closed stacks at that library, and something must have happened to it.

On the other hand, I have a copy of some of this book in another work. In it there are a few references to the death of Frank Dalton, an event at which my husband's grandfather was present. And, as I wrote last time, James R. Cole suffered six bullet wounds in this fight. Emmett did not believe Cole's version of the battle.

There are several versions of this battle or shoot out, which I am trying to weave together; and therefore I have not yet gone deeper into the story with your readers.

QUERIES, NOTES, AND RESPONSES

* Response from Millicent Craig <Millicenty@aol.com>
To Huaracha and others who had a Dalton ancestor who was conscripted in England to fight in the Revolutionary War, you may want to pursue your research with a letter to: The National Army Museum, Royal Hospital Rd. London SW3 4HT, England. All Army records are kept there. Give whatever information you have - such as regiment, infantry division, date of birth, etc. that can help to identify the individual in their card file. Millicent V. Craig, N. A. Sec. Dalton Genealogical Society.

* Query from Arthur Whittaker <arthurw@juno.com>
I don't believe that the NY Revolutionary War soldier Thomas Dalton is my Thomas Dalton; neither do I believe that Thomas Valentine whom I wrote about earlier is my Thomas Dalton. Does anyone know of any other Thomas Daltons who served in the Revolutionary War?

* Note from Stan McGaha
Lewis Harrison Dalton of Henderson Co., NC and Pickens Co., SC shares common ancestors with George Washington and Robert E. Lee. These ancestors are Col. Augustine Warner, Col. George Reade and Capt. Nicholas Martain of Virginia. If anyone would like this lineage, E-mail me at SMcgaha408@aol.com.

* Note from Presley Smith <psmith@mozart.convex.com>
I've added a book on the Daltons and related families to the Web site that can be downloaded and printed using Adobe Acrobat. It has obits and lots of other information on the line I've been researching. You can get to that web site at: http://mason.math.tntech.edu and go to the SMITH/DUCKWORTH area. It tells how to get Acrobat if you don't have it. And you can download that file and print if you'd like...or view it on line. Check it out and have fun.

MOSES DAULTON LINE - HENRY CLAY DAULTON

From: rgirdler@your-net.com

Henry Clay Daulton, the seventh child of ten, was born to James and Naomi Daulton, in Maysville, Ky., on 7 Apr 1829. When but a few months old, his parents migrated to Rolls County, Missouri, where James Daulton built a cabin on Daulton's Branch (presumably a creek).

1854, Henry Clay Daulton married Mary Jane Hildreth, the daughter of Jense and Mary Ann Hildreth, and sister ofThomas Hildreth. Recognizing his leadership abilities, friends urged Henry Clay Daulton to run for election as a Senator in the California state legislature. He declined to do so and spent his time improving his ranch by building 22 miles of good board fence with redwood posts. After the building of the railroads in the west in 1875, many Chinese coolies were without work and Mr. Daulton hired them to build a rock fence on the east and north portions of his ranch. The pay was fifty cents a day with room and board. In 1883 he gave a right-of-way through his ranch to the Southern Pacific Railroad so that it could build a railroad into the Yosemite Valley. (The railroad line remained in use until 1956 when the rails were removed and the line abandoned).

In 1875, Henry Clay Daulton was the largest stockholder as well as the President and General Superintendent of the Ne Plus Ultra Copper Mine, which was a short distance from his home.

Henry Clay and Mary Jane Daulton had ten children who were educated first at a school at Buchanan Hollow, in the Coachilla District of California, where a T.S. Shaw was the teacher. Later the Daulton School District was formed from the Coachilla District and Mr. Daulton served as the first clerk. Later their daughters attended Miss Snell's Seminary for girls (later Mills College) at Benicia, California and San Jose Normal School. The children were encouraged in the pursuit of instrumental and vocal music. Although no churches were available, the family attended Methodist camp meeting on the Chowchilla River until after the town of Madera, California was formed.

Deciding in 1889 to make their home in Oakland, California, Henry Clay disposed of all his live stock and equipment, and sold his 18,000 acre ranch to: D.S. Terry, R. Porter Ashe, Clinton and Althea Terry, and J.C. Kirkpatric. In 1890, the purchasers of the ranch were unable to meet the mortgage payment of $116,109.80, plus interest and costs, so Mr. Daulton foreclosed on the loan and moved back to the ranch which he stocked with Merine sheep.

Madera County, California, was formed 20 May 1893, and Henry Clay Daulton was commissioned to serve as chairman. Later he was elected to serve as chairman of the first board of Supervisors. When returning home from a board meeting on 15 Oct 1893, a short distance out of town his horses bolted and he was dragged by his cart and killed. Funeral services were held at the Masonic Temple and he was buried in the Odd Fellows section of Arbor Vista Cemetery.

Henry Clay and Mary Jane Daulton's first child, Mary Sabrina, died in Stockton, Calif., 20 Oct 1872. Henry Hildreth Daulton was born in San Gabriel, Calif., 14 Aug 1858. He married Nancy Wood at Sam Wood, Calif., 26 Jan 1881, and died in Fresno County, Calif., 17 May 1889. Ida Daulton was born in Fresno County, 15 July 1860. She married Christian Saxe at the "Shepherds Home" on 16 Nov 1881, and died in Long Beach, Cal., 27 Mar 1948. John Francis Daulton was born in Fresno, Cal., 24 Jan 1882. He married Adelaide Raynor in San Jose, Cal., 27 Nov 1883, and died in San Francisco, Cal., 27 June 1930. Agnes Daulton was born in Fresno County on 4 Feb 1864. She married William King Heiskell at "Shepherds Home" on 6 Apr1881, and died in Madera, Cal., on 27 Nov1895. Naomi Grace Daulton was born at Shepherds Home on 24 July1866, and died there on 9 July 1898. Johnathan Rae Daulton was born at "Shepherds Home" 1 Mar 1868, and died 4 May 1923. Maude Louise Daulton was born at "Shepherds Home" on 3 Feb 1870. She married Seth Man, in Oakland, Cal., in 1891, and died in San Francisco, Cal., 12 June 1927. James William Daulton was born at "Shepherds Home" on 26 Sept 1871, and died at Madera on 23 May 1950.

After the death of Henry Clay Daulton on 15 Oct 1893, the ranch was incorporated, with John Francis Daulton serving as President. For the first time the sod was broken and three grain farms were developed and rented to supplement income from sheep herding. Through efficient management all indebtedness on the ranch was paid off in 1903. Mrs. Henry Clay Daulton died on 2 July 1907, at the home of her son, John Francis Daulton, in Madera.

In 1912 the Daulton Ranch Company was dissolved and the 18,000 acres were divided among the seven living heirs, namely: Agnes, John Francis, Maude, Henry, Will, Johnathan, and Ida.

In 1985, Henry Clay Daulton, of 31131 Road 603, Madera, CA, 93637, was the owner of 12,000 acres of the original ranch and, in addition, leased another 6,000 acres, on which he grazed cattle for other owners. He has one son and one daughter.

DALTONS IN MAYSVILLE KY
from Carole Colenbaugh, clcr@ktc.com

Here's some Dalton/Daulton information some sent me and I also found on a KY Soundex.

According to the marriage registry for Mason Co. KY, on 29 Nov 1809, Arthur MITCHELL of Maysville KY married Nancy DAULTON of Sharpsburg, Bath Co, KY (b. 6 Aug 1787 in Virginia ; d. 1859 in Aberdeen OH), the daughter of Sgt. Moses DAULTON (1760 - Nov 1819 in Mason Co. KY) [who had served in the Third Regiment Cavalry in the Revolution] and Mary FRISTO (22 May 1765 in Stafford Co. VA- Dec 1858 Mason Co. KY). The 1810 census already shows Arthur and Nancy with a daughter. They also had a daughter, Dulcenia (b. 19 Jul 1826, Sharpsburg, Bath Co. KY; d. 8 Dec 1910 Aberdeen OH) {m. 1 Sep 1847 William Simon Power (d. 20 Dec 1858 Aberdeen OH) by Rev. Thomas Shelton, "the marrying squire" -- whose traffic in marriages gave to Aberdeen the title of the "Gretna Green of the Ohio Valley".}
After the war the family removed to St. Louis MO, where he appears on the census in 1830. A power of attorney, signed 22 Apr in St. Louis in favor [illegible] his brother in law, Moses DAULTON (who had settled in Aberdeen Brown Co. OH in 1808), allowed the latter to dispose of property in Mason Co. [Aberdeen is just across the river from Maysville, and today there are those who live in Aberdeen and work in Maysville.] Arthur and his family later joined his brother in law Aberdeen, which was the only incorporated village in Huntington township in 1888. In the mercantile business, he became the town's the first businessman. His store, a frame building, stood just below Pike street on the river bank, but, by 1888 the ground on which it stood had nearly all washed into the river. On 5 Apr 1848 he was appointed Postmaster, still holding that post in 1860. In the 1850 census they had a young girl 12, Margaret Ivory from MO, living with them. [Servant girls as young as eleven were quite common for the time.] By 1860 (after the death of his wife) he was living with his son, John (b. 1820) and his wife Margaret [who was the daughter of Thomas DAULTON, Nancy (DAULTON) MITCHELL's brother] and their family of seven girls. John was a bootmaker and shoemaker in Aberdeen with several assistants. Arthur probably had other children: Asa (b. 1824) and Thomas.

And further material:
from Beer's History of Brown County Ohio:

Pp. 513-514 states "Aberdeen is the only incorporated village in the township (Huntington)...Arthur Mitchell was the first to engage in the mercantile business. His store, a frame building, stood just below Pike street on the river bank. The ground on which it stood is nearly all washed into the river."

Other scattered references to Mitchelles, but no others to Arthur. One reference (p. 196) to a John Mitchell who married Mary Wilson, daughter of Robert Wilson. No other Johns.

Excellent biographical sketch (pp. 154-155) on John Daulton of Huntington Township (b. 4 June 1845), descendant of John Daulton from Virginia thru Kentucky with parents Moses and Mary (Fristo) Daulton. John md. Lucy [illegible]rry and had 11 children, among whom were Nancy, Thomas, John, Lucy, etc. 2nd marriage to Martha Kerr, 5 children. He served in the War of 1812, departed this life in 1852, aged 62 years.

The father of Moses Daulton who married Mary Fristoe was John Dalton who lived in Prince William County Virginia.

Here is what I sent on 5 June:
This is from collected and assessed research about two months ago:

John Dalton, lived in Prince William Co, Va. d. abt 1768
m. Rachel -?- children:
James
John Fredericksburg tailor, m. Elizabeth
Moses b. 12 Aug 1760 Pr. Wm Co
Rachel

John, of Fredericksburg, son of John and Rachel
m. Elizabeth -?-
children:
Walker m. Mary Winn
Rachel (maybe) m. Claude Piat

Moses Daulton, son of John and Rachel
m. Mary Bauber Fristoe, served in Rev War, moved to Mason Co KY, [illegible]d in Mason Co KY
[illegible]ssume you have all his children's names and marriages)

Destiny of the other two children of John and Rachel (James and Rachel) is undocumented at this time

John, d. 1768 Pr. Wm. Co. VA, had contact with a Jane Dolton in Charles Co. Maryland during the 1760's. There was some property there which Jane and/or John owned: Widdow's Dream and Dalton's Adventure. These lands seemed to be near Portobacco, MD, once the county seat of Charles Co.

1. I mailed your request to Uncle Jim.

2. BTW, while surfing (more like trudging) the web...

I found a by-county geneology site for Kentucky (takes a LONG time to load) at:
http://www.dsenter.com/~trice/ky/counties.html

Where I clicked Mason County, KY, which took me to:
http://rampages.onramp.net/~frc/mason/

Where I clicked "UsGenWeb Archives" (for Mason County), which took me to http://www.rootsweb.com/~usgenweb/ky/mason/toc.html

Which turned out to be a marriage index for Mason County up to 1850, completed only through letter B according to the label, but when I clicked B, it turned out to go up to E, and I found the following Daultons (this is all listed), which include some familiar names. (No column headings on the output--so I have no idea what the "1900" dates on every line refer to. They are on ALL lines in the

Dalton Gang Letter 08/27/97

those days and often include the most amazing information, not only on family and related families but also on the customs of those days. They often provide information not even found in deeds, wills, etc. Some depositions include not only names but also dates of births, length of time they lived in a certain location and other family members as well as their parentage. I found one for another line with name, birth date, Civil War service, parentage and brothers plus length of time they had lived in the area. Depositions usually outline the character of the defendant or witness as well. These odd records are a gold mine.

As an example in the Bastardy Court Case for Bradley a story evolved: The lady in question was fined Five Dollars for not revealing the child's father, so she must have been reluctant to name Bradley. Then Bradley was fined some Three hundred and fifty dollars for part of the maintenance and care of the child. Evidently Bradley could not afford this steep fine or he talked things over with the lady's father. For whatever reason, they appeared together in court and with Bradley's pledge to marry the lady all charges and fines were dropped. Marriage records verified that Bradley did indeed marry the lady.

>From levies against Bradley for debts and liens we know that he owned two twenty-five acres pieces of land: that of his neighbors and also land that the constable lived on. The location of this land placed him on Poplar Creek in the vicinity of other Daltons believed to be a part of this family.

The Bad Boy traits of Bradley have provided a lot of information that would not have been found in deeds and other legal documents. Don't pass up this odd assortment of legal documents if you are spending research time at a courthouse.

Tom:

I got your name from Melanie Crain of the "Dalton gang" newsletter.

I too am descended from Moses Daulton (we believe, and also through his descendants in Brown County. I have Family Tree Maker, so I can process FTW files. I would greatly appreciate any info you could send me.

Here is my line of descent, as figure out by "Uncle Jim" Daulton (actually, my Dad's cousin) in Portsmouth, Ohio.

George W. Daulton, son of Moses

Born ? in Mason County, KY.. Married June 18, 1814 to Margaret Lucas. He was Justice of Peace in in Huntington Township, Brown County, OH.--some miles west of Aberdeen.
Two children I know of: are Lemuel (below); and Martha A., born abt 1830, who was married Oct 15, 1854 to Larkin Covert.
1840 Census -- George would have been in his 50's. Census incorrectly spells his name "George W. Dalton". Huntington Township, Brown County. Page 253.
1850 Census. -- Lists him as George Daulton.
1860 Census. -- Not listed.

Lemuel Daulton, son of George--

Born abt 1816. Died bef. 1860. Married Sarah Vaughn, who was born 1817. Children were William (below); Mary Jane (born Jan 31, 1842 in Maysville, KY, Married George Holiday on Sep 8, 1859, died Oct. 23, 1927 in Maysville, KY.) (I have more on her descendents), Delmore (born abt 1845), Alice (born abt 1847), Margaret (born abt 1847), John Lemuel (born about 1855, married 1875 to Maggie) (I have more on his descendents), and Virginia (born Aug 28, 1858).
1840 Census: -- For Maysville, KY. Uncle Jim said it is almost illegible, but he found a Lemuel Daulton with 1 male under 5, 2 males 22 to 25 (one being Lemuel) and one female 22 to 25 (Lemuel's wife, Sarah). This indicates that son William (about 10 years old, born in 1829 or 1830) is not at home. Uncle Jim believes that William was born to Lemuel and Sarah when they were too young to care for him, and he was being raised by other relatives.
1850 Census -- Uncle Jim found it listed Lemuel, wife, and kids other than William.
1860 Census -- Uncle Jim said it no longer listed Lemuel. By that time Sarah was 43, and had 10 kids, some in their 30's.

William, son of Lemuel--------------------------

I have census information Uncle Jim copied down, for 1850, 1860, and 1870, all from Brown County, OH. To summarize, William (abt 1830-abt 1870) married Catherine J. McClain (abt. 1831-abt 1870), moved to a farm on Eagle Creek, in Brown County, OH, and had four kids: Mary (abt 1862-before 1940), John Forgie McClain (abt. 1860-Jul 4, 1946), Hanna B. (abt. 1866-before 1940), and James William (Feb 27, 1868-1940). Both parents died in 1870 or soon after. The girls went to Hamilton County, OH. The sons were taken in by neighbor Andrew Carr. Our family has long wondered what William and Catherine died of, when they died, and where they are buried. Son James William is my great-grandfather. (I have infomation on ALL his descendents--it is a LOT)

>When you got my DAULTON tree by mail did it fit? Anything to add to my tree?

Hello Tom,
I got your family tree back in July. It looked very good. Still don't have anything to add backwards in Maryland because I have not been able to get to the Archives in Raleigh to do any more research. Have you heard further from Linda Wilson? Is she a Daulton descendant?

I did find an abstract of William Dolton's Maryland Will in one of the Dalton Newsletters edited a decade ago by Helen Lu. Here is what it said (and it does not support my theory that John Dalton of Prince William County Virginia might have been a son of the same William):

Will dated 1758. In the name of God Amen. I William Dolton being weak in body but of sound and disposing mind in many Thanks be to God for the same do make this my last will and Testament in manner and forme as followeth. This is to say

1) I give and bequeath to my well beloved wife Jane Dolton my plantation whereon I now live during her natural life and after her death then to my son-in-law Shevon? [Richard?] Mankin to him and the heirs of his boddey lawfully begotten. To my son-in-law Jesse Mankin to him and his heirs or assigns.

[illegible] I give to my friend John Dolton one negro man named Harry.

3) I give to my well beloved wife Jane Dolton all the rest of my personal estate and also make and appoint my wife Jane Dolton my whole exectrix to this my last will and testament as witness my hand and seal this 21 day of August 1758.

Signed: William (his mark "WD") Dolton. Wits: Charles Courts, Mary Cox and Charity Courts.
Filed: 18 June 1760

--I believe that item #2 is probably your John Dolton of Prince William County, although the deeds support John's inheritance or ownership of land in Md. to be more than a slave. John sold his part in Daltons Adventure in the form of an exchange for two slaves. More digging will be required to figure this one out.

I will leave you to ponder over this. Will be back in touch when there's more to share,
Melanie

Hello Dave and all,

Keeping things neat and tidy, let me answer Dave's note today by keeping to the same divisions:

1. You and Uncle Jim have my curiousity building about the two different families of Adams County and Brown County, Ohio. When you have a chance, would you explain the difference between the two? At the moment, something concise will be fine.

2. I will be glad to post the query about Lemuel.

3. a. - I can't explain the difference in ages between John and his brothers Moses and James. Where do you have the date of birth for James? I couldn't find any reference to it in my materials. The birthdate for Moses came from, I believe, his pension application and is the only precise date I have for anyone in the family prior to Moses and Mary's family. If you have other dates, I would love to have them. But onto the point at hand: The 1772 court document pretty much lays out the family--John the father, sons James, Moses, and John and a sister Rachel:

1772
[illegible] May - Pr. Wm. Co: Deed Bk T, p 494 --"Rec'd of Rachel and James Dalton the sum of thirty one pounds Current money of Virginia which aforesaid sum was willed by my father John Dalton to my brother Moses Dalton, which money I borrowed in case of failor [sic] of payment I do hereby make over a negro fellow willed to me by my father called Sam to belong to my brother Moses Dalton and his heirs forever til the sum of thirty pounds currency with lawful interest be paid by my heirs or assigns then the said negro to be clear of his or any other persons claim as witness by my hand John Dalton." Test: Lurance Sother. This deed was proved at Court 7 Dec 1778 (Op. cit. DNL, pp 11-12)

AND....
To prove that John the tailor (husband of Elizabeth and resident of Fredericksburg, Spotsylvania Co.) was the son of John Dalton who died:

1771
3 May - Pr. Wm: John and Elizabeth DAULTON of Spotsylvania and Rachel DAULTON of Pr. Wm shared land purchased by their father John DAULTON
1771
3 June - Pr Wm: Deed Bk R, p 302 - Lease, Date of recording. John DALTON, Elizabeth DALTON, and Rachel DALTON of Pr Wm Co. and Spotsylvania Co. to Giles CARTER of Pr. Wm. Co, 100 ac tract called Pope Hill on north side Chappawanceck Creek: land was purchased by John Dalton SR of Edward Hall and passed to the three by Will.
7 Dec - Pr Wm. Co: Debt recorded, money owed to Moses Dalton from his brother John Dalton of Spotsylvania Co.

Even though Moses was only 10 years old when his father died, his brother John could have been 10+ years older than Moses and still have had his (John's) son, Walker. No document states how old Walker was when mentioned in 1768 as the son of John. To carry that further, Walker did not marry until 1793, 7 years after Moses married Mary. It's hard to tell with these skeletal facts just how old everybody was.

[illegible] am afraid I haven't any evidence that even hints of orphans and travel [illegible] this country from England, etc., etc. I will be happy to review any documents out there--anyone have any?

3. b. - I have updated material on this one. Moses apparently stayed in Stafford Co. between the years of 1778 and 1799. These materials form Part 2, a separate Email.

4. How old was Aunt Sabrina when she wrote her book? She remembered seeing her grandmother in the coffin in 1858. That was 43 years after Sabrina's parents had married. Bless her memory, some things really fit--Mary was indeed a Baptist; Uncle Grinsted probably came from Stafford Co. Va. (Those statements will be explained in Part 2) But the big Beware about family tales is that some of the facts are right and some are wrong. We can't accuse Aunt Sabrina of being wrong, but we can look critically at the facts as we have them. Then if the documented facts and the family stories don't agree, we have to make our choices which to believe.

Some things I have to add to the family of Moses and Mary:

Son John (#3) married Lucy Perry

Mason Co KY Ct Order Book O, p. 421: May Court 1850
Thomas Daulton is appointed guardian of Sally, Harvey, William and Martha Daulton, infant children of George W. Daulton. A. A. Wadsworth, surety. (This appears to indicate that George W. died about 1850. Lemuel is not mentioned as one of his children--was he an adult? There is a Lemuel, age 20-30, in the 1840 Mason Co Census. That Lemuel was married and had a son under 5 years old.) (Another problem here is that there is a George W. Daulton, age 35, on the 1860 Mason Co. Census. He is obviously not the same George W. for 2 reasons: Moses died in 1819, predating this man's birth by 6 years; and George W., son of Moses, probably died in 1850, 10 years before this census record.)

I have other Mason Co. census records, but you probably have them too. It would be a good exercise to take all of them in the 19th century and try to see what family groups there are and how they do or do not fit together. Sometimes elimination is as good as addition.

Now for the serendipity-- Part 2 contains materials I just happened across today while scanning the many volumes of the Magazine of Virginia Genealogy. These are just nice little tidbits that begin to add to the understanding of Moses and his family. I will sign off here and wish each of you lots of fun (???) wading through all of this. And Hello to Uncle Jim,
Melanie

Maysville. He died, I think, in 1827, and was buried at Washington, about 4 miles from Maysville. There too they buried my great Grandma Williams ((I assume this is mother of Mary Fristoe's second husband)). I can rememer her--my father took me to see her as she lay in her coffin. I remember his telling me, as he held me in his arms, to look at her--that she was 92 or 93 years old and that she died of old age. She went to bed as usual and died at night. She was always very patient and quiet and tried to give as little trouble as possible. ((Here we omit sentences saying her grandmother was married twice. Fristoe was first husband, Williams was second.)) My mother and father ((Aunt Sabrina's)) were married in Maysville, Kentucky, March 26, 1815.

AUNT SABRINA

sent by Dave Daulton, daulton@ibm.net

IMPORTANT NOTE: Some of this story is right; some is not. Where known errors occur, Dave has put comments into DOUBLE parentheses. It is very possible that other older publications on the Dalton family could benefit by this same treatment.

The following is from Aunt Sabrina's "book". Sabrina was daughter of James, who was a son of Moses Daulton. My Uncle Jim (actually, my Dad's cousin) found this "book" in the geneology section of the public library in Maysville, Mason County, KY. He said he said he recalls it being loose sheets, not a book per se. I have a photocopy of the first page. The second page I typed as Uncle Jim dictated it to me over the phone.

"My Grandfather, Moses Daulton, was born in England ((not correct)). He, with an older brother, James, were left orphans at an early age. When he was fourteen years old, and his brother sixteen, they came to this country alone, and settled in Virginia (in Dumfries County). At the age of seventeen--which was the commencement of the Revolutionary War--my Grandfather entered the army and served the whole seven years. Previous to his entering the army, his opportunities for mental improvement were limited; but being of a studious turn of mind, he procured such books as he could get--studying at night by the camp fire--and when the war was over, he had made considerable advancement; laying the foundation for a good education--in short, he came out of the war a pretty good scholar.

He was fond of reading, and I recollect when my father lived near them in Maysville, Grandma ((Mary Fristoe)) had his choice library of well selected books.

Soon after the war, Grandfather was married to my grandma, Mary Frister ((Fristoe)) (she was of Welsh descent), and settled in Dumfries County, Virginia, where my father ((James Daulton)) was born November 10, 1773. He was the third of nine children, ((actually, the eldest were twins, William and Mary, who died at birth, followed by John, Nancy, James, Margaret, George, Katherine, Moses, Susan and Thomas--and then the youngest, Moses Jr.)). When my father was seven years old, Grandfather emigrated to Kentucky, and settled in Maysville--called "Limestone"--where he bought a small farm (80 acres), just on the edge of town--where he built him a comfortable house and lived until his death which sad event occured when I was about two years old (I think). He died in 1819. Grandma lived a widow more than 40 years with her youngest son , Uncle Thomas, who has lived 60 years in the same place, perhaps 40 years in the same house, ((on Second St., still there--per Uncle Jim)). I said Maysville. At the time Grandfather came it was called Limestone. He and a relative of Grandmas's (Uncle Martin), were of the first proprietors of the place. Uncle Martin kept a store. Grandfather too had an interest in it, and was inspector of flour and so forth. Grandma and all our relatives... were Baptists. Uncle Grinstead, another relative of Grandmas's was for several years Pastor of the Baptist church at Park, Thomas #1649 Robert C. Jacobs 4000A " " " 70A.

Toward the close of the last century, William Park and family emigrated from Ireland to America, locating in Pennsylvania. About 1800, he came to this township, settling on Shinkles Ridge, in Graham Survey. They had twelve childern in all the last born while they were en route for Brown County, but only eight came with them here from Pennsylvania. He died in 1836, aged ninety-five years. He was a member of the Masonic order, and for many years Justice of the Peace. John Park, a son, came from Pennsylvania in 1819, and settled near his father. He held the post office at his residence for some time.

Copied from "The History of Brown County, Lewis Township,pg 461 By Beers.

John Park, who was born about 1790 in Pennsylvania, where he acquired a common education and learned the trade of a wheelwright, which he followed but little after reaching the then wilds of Ohio. On March 17, 1812, he married Nancy Bright, who was born at Pennsylvania, in 1787. After a period of ten years in the primeval forest,his wife died on October 3, 1829, leaving him and two children, Russell and Rachael. His second wife was Elizabeth Clark, born October 12,1793.

His occupation was farming. In religion, he was a Presbyterian. He was a prominent citizen of the township.

THE DESCENDANTS OF JOHN LITTLE OF BOTETOURT AND ROCKBRIDGE COUNTIES, VIRGINIA

With Notes on Other Lines of Littles & Lytles That May Be Related

By
LEONARD LYTLE - DETROIT, MICHIGAN - 1960

R929.2 L778-2

COP. 1

NOV 10 1960

See the compiler's Outline of the Lytle Families of America, pp 186-191 for more data on the Littles of Bourbon Co., Ky. Note that John Houston was living in Paris on a lot next to a James Little. Mentions of the names, Wm. McConnell and Samuel Lee may be of interest.

For the benefit of those readers who do not have access to the compiler's papers on the other five groups of Littles and Lytles that may be related to those descendants of John Little of Botetourt and Rockbridge Counties, the following very brief sketches are now given:

GROUP NO. 1 - CAPT. WILLIAM LITTLE OF VIRGINIA, PENNSYLVANIA AND KENTUCKY

His traditional ancestors were first, "Christopher Little and his wife Mary - who both lived to be 90". Nothing else is known about these ancestors and the name, Christopher, has not been given to any of the descendants. Christopher and Mary are supposed to have had a son John, born 1703, died Aug. 24, 1777 and married to Jane McConnell, b, 1712, d, Oct. 4, 1797, - daughter of Wm. McConnell and his wife Mary. This John probably lived in Chester County, Pa., in the Marsh Creek region in present Adams Co., and around Carlisle, Pa. the following legal record at Carlisle might be of this John Little:

Orphans Court, Book 2, page 217, Carlisle, Pa.

"At an Orphan Court held in Carlisle, the 18th day of Nov. 1777 before John Agnew, Hugh Laird and Alexander Laughlin, Esqr's. Justices: Came into court, Mary Little, a minor orphan daughter of John Little, Decd., above the age 14 years and prayed the court to appoint Wm. Little to be guardian over her person and estate during her minority".

William Little was appointed guardian. No papers can be found in the files and no further mention of the case is found in the books. Capt. William served three years at Fort Dusquesne, now Pittsburgh, in the Virginia forces. He is frequently mentioned as being a Virginian and may have spent some time in Botetourt and Rockbridge Counties, Va. He bought a farm near Carlisle in 1760 and a witness was John Little. He was married 1761 at Mercersburg, Pa., to Mary Steel. A bondsman was William Little, and witnesses were John Little and Robert Houston. Capt. William Little and wife Mary sold their land in 1779 and went down the Ohio river to Kentucky in 1780 taking along all their children named as follows: (All adopted the Lytle spelling) Jane, Mary, John, William, Sarah, Ann, Elizabeth and Joseph. Capt. William Little owned much land in Harrison and Scott Counties. He died in 1797 "at Elm Grove near Lexington, Ky." but that place has not been found. He left no will.

To further identify the family the following additional data is given on two of the children:

William Lytle, Jr. b, 1770 settled in Clermont Co., Ohio and then in Cincinnati. Was a surveyor and land dealer and became wealthy. Died in 1831. He was Surveyor General of the Northwest Territory and this office was also held by his son, Col. Robert Todd Lytle. The latter raised money to send cannon, etc. to General Sam Houston in Texas. A son of Col. Robert Todd Lytle, William Haines Lytle, on his return from the Mexican War passed through Texas and called upon General Sam Houston who gave Lytle a section of land. This William Haines Lytle became a Brigadier General and was killed in the Civil War at Chickamauga.

Paymaster under General Devine. Alexander had a son who died in infancy and four daughters; Lucy, b, 1780, d, 1786, Charlotte, m, John King, Harriett, b, 1782, died single in 1861. Martha, b, 1793, m, 1813 to Walter Walker at Washington, Pa. She had 5 children and died in 1874. Mary, m, Hugh Truesdale and they had numerous descendants who have been very completely charted down to 1954 by Anna M. Bishop, RT. 5, Oskaloosa, Iowa.

James Little was a soldier in the Pennsylvania Regiment of Artillery the same regiment to which "Molly Pitcher" belonged. Alexander Little was commissioned Justice of the Peace by Governor Thomas McKean in District No. 1 in the County of Washington on April 1, 1805.

This genealogy was largely furnished by a descendant, Martha Lytle Taylor about 1925. The compiler personally checked the legal records in the various counties and confirmed every statement made by Mrs. Taylor.

She said: "I came with my parents to California in 1861. Began our journey across the plains May 6, arrived in California, Sept. 5, 1861".

Now is given a possible explanation of the reason for Governor Thos. McKean in appointing three Lytles to be Justices of the Peace. At the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, there are on file three original rolls of a company that was raised by Captain John Little of the 2nd Battalion of the Philadelphia Militia, Extracts follow:

"List of Persons in the Middle Ward in the City of Philadelphia 18 and upwards, who are able and willing to bear arms, May 1st, 1775". The names of about 40 men then follow and among these names appears that of Thos. McKean. The Genealogy of the McKean Family of Pennsylvania by Roberdeau Buchanan, Lancaster, Pa., 1890, quotes the above entry of Thos. McKean on the rolls. This would seem to indicate that the McKean family accepts the listing of Private Thos. McKean as being the one who became, Governor. The compiler has spent many days abstracting the legal records of Philadelphia County, but so far, has been unable to prove or disprove that Captain John Little, who raised the company in 1775, was the John Little, who married Jane McConnell and died Aug. 24, 1777.

The compiler has written a 21-page paper on this line.

GROUP IV - THE DESCENDANTS OF WILLIAM LYTLE AND HIS WIFE, JANE OF WASHINGTON COUNTY, PA., AND CLERMONT COUNTY, OHIO

This William Lytle was born in 1769 and was living in Washington Co., Pa., in 1800. Jane, his wife, whose family name is not known, was born in 1767, and was married to William in 1788. The above date was obtained from their obituaries which appeared in the Clermont Courier, Batavia, Ohio, on Oct. 5 and Nov. 4, 1848. After several years search their tombstones were found in the O'Bethel cemetery, a short distance from Bantam in Clermont Co. He died on Sept. 30, 1848, at the age of 79 and she died Oct. 8, 1848 in her eighty first year.

His first child, John, was probably named after the grandfather. This child died in infancy. An obituary says the 4th child was born in Washington Co., Pa.

William Lytle purchased 2 properties in Washington Co., Pa. at a Sheriffs sale, one in 1801, and another at a later date. William and Jane sold these properties in 1803 and 1808. He was a member of the Brownsville Pa. Masonic Lodge and secured a Demit in 1815.

It would appear that William Lytle went to Clermont Co., Ohio in 1807, and left his family in Washington Co., Pa., till 1817. He had among his possessions a certificate stating that he had served 7 years in the Batavia Light Infantry prior to July 28, 1814.

William & Jane Lytle had children:

1. John died in infancy.
2. Alexander b, Aug. 17, 1792 - d. 1820.
3. Nancy b, Jan. 11, 1795 - m. - - Carter.
4. James C., b, 1798, d. Nov. 1816.
5. William Jr. b, 1800, d. 1856. He married Nancy Ann Keenan and had 4 children.
6. Elizabeth b, 1803 - d. 1804.
7. Jane, b. 1805 - d. 1833, m. - Jacob Hulings.
8. Robison - b, 1809 - no data.
9. Armstrong - b. 1815 - no data.

William Lytle Sr. left a will and had a set of "Surveying Instruments". Descendants have had Lytle Reunions for many years. I have met many of them and have had them read my Lytle books but they seem to know nothing of their ancestors back of William. There is a dim tradition that the early ancestors lived near Harrisburg, Pa. There is a persistent tradition that this family is related in some way to that of General William Lytle and his brother, John Lytle. Both came to the county around 1796 and General William Lytle laid out Williamsburg shortly thereafter. The General moved to Cincinnati in 1809, but John remained and his descendants in the county are numerous as are those of William and Jane Lytle, the subjects of this sketch. Both families, or at least some of them, thought they were related. The descendants of William and Jane have been in the county for 148 years to 1955, and it seems they have always thought they were related to the other group. One other strange tradition has been found.

They believe that Jane McConnell and the Kincaid family were somehow related. It is easy to see how they could have a recollection of Jane McConnell, but so far, I have not encountered the Kincaids as having anything to do with the early Lytles.

The compiler suggests that a further search should be made at Carlisle, Pa., into the descendants of George Lytle, who was a son of James Little of Group III. William Lytle, of Group IV could well be a descendant of George Little and this might account for the traditional relationship of Group IV to Group I - both of whom lived in Clermont Co., Ohio.

The compiler has visited many of the descendants living in Clermont County and is especially indebted to Mr. Ivan L. Lytle, now living at 233 North St. Greenfield, Ohio.

The compiler has written a 21-page paper on this line.

(Submitted by the Brown Co. Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 83, Georgetown, Oh 45121)

According to his pension application papers, Richard Rilea was born March 27, 1762; the place not stated.

When he was 17 years old, Richard enlisted for three years at Leesburg, Virginia, in March 1779, and served as a private in Captain Michael Rudolph's Company, Colonel Henry Lee's Dragoons. He was in the battles of Guilford and Eutaw Springs, in both of which he was wounded; the nature of his wounds was not stated. He remained in the services to the end of the war, and was discharged in Charlestown, South Carolina.

The author does not know where he spent the next twelve years; perhaps learning his trade as a carpenter. On June 19, 1793, when he was 31 years old, he was in Morgantown, W. Virginia, where he was married in the M.E. Church by John Denaham to Rhoda Little. Children were born to them; a son, James Rilea, born on February 7, 1794, a daughter, Rachel, on July 9, 1795, who soon died, so that another daughter, born the following year on July 31st, was also named Rachel; son Thomas was born April 30, 1799; and James Little on August 20, probably in 1801,-the record here was torn. Son John Rilea's Civil War record claims he was born February 9, 1803, but the Bible records in three different family Bibles list his birth as January 14, 1803. Also John's death certificate claims that he was born in Kentucky, which leads us to assume that at some time the family were in Kentucky.

Other children followed; Abel on July 31, 1804; Lavinia on October 12, 1808; William on March 16, 1811; Sarah on August 16, 1813; and the youngest, Joseph, born on April 18, 1819. By that time, the family was in Brown County, Ohio, and some of the children had married and left home. With the parents were Abel, Lavinia, William, Sarah, and Joseph, just born. We have this information from the record of Richard's application for a pension. On the 31st of July 1821, Richard appeared again in the Brown Co. court, aged 59, and stated his need for a pension, listing his property as 1 mare, 2 cows and 2 calves, 2 baskets, one table, three pair of bedsteads, one dresser and some dresser ware, one hammer, 2 seader buckets, and 1 tin bucket. At this time he included in his family with him, his older son, John. Perhaps John, a carpenter, then 18, was helping to support the family. Richard stated that he made his original declaration on the 8th day of May, 1819, and received a pension certificate. #12,180. "I, Richard Rilea, am by occupation a carpenter, by infirmities and rheumatism not able to do one third labour in pursuit of".

Richard thereupon drew a pension of ninety-six dollars a year, from the 8th of May 1819 until the time of his death, August 7, 1839, in Brown County, Ohio. According to Thompson's HISTORICAL COLLECTIONS OF BROWN COUNTY, Richard lived in Washington Township in 1829, and was a Township Trustee for three terms. He was buried in Mt. Carmel Cemetery, Sec. #E, Lot 5, grave 1, 2 miles S.E. of Sardinia, Ohio, off State Route 32, near Slab Camp Creek in Washington Township. ~~(This cemetery has since been destroyed).~~ not so-found + published Cem. Insc. of BrCo., OH Bk 1 L.H. Wilson

Two months after Richard's death, on October 4, 1839, Rhoda appeared in the Brown County Court of Common Pleas, and applied for a widow's pension. She testified to the date and place of her marriage, and filed a page from the family Bible to show the names and ages of her children. Her son, William, then thirty years old, appeared with her, and filed an affadavit as to the authenticity of the Bible record, and her sister, Sibyl Jacobs, aged seventy years, also certified Rhoda's statements. Rhoda received her pension, the record showing her award of $96.00 a year to commence on March 4, 1848, and a certificate of pension issued on the 7th of June, 1850, was issued in Cincinnati. It is not stated when she died. She also is buried in Mt. Carmel Cemetery.

This was compiled by Ruth J. Fisli, 9414 Hidden Valley Circle, Sun City, Ariz. 85351. Mrs. Fisli will be glad to exchange information on the family.

>Notes for Richard Rilea:
>
>>From notes of Ruth J. Fisli, in 1978, a descendant of Richard Rilea.....
>
>According to his pension application papers, Richard Rilea was born 27 March >1762, the place not stated.
>
>When he was 17 years old, Richard enlisted for three years at Leesburg, >Virginia in March 1779, and served as a private in Captain Michael Rudolph's >Company, Colonel Henry Lee's Dragoons. He was in the battles of Guilford and >Eutaw Springs, in both of which he was wounded, the nature of his wounds not >stated. He remained in the service to the end of the war and was discharged >in Charleston, South Carolina.
>I do not know where he spent the next twelve years, perhaps learning his >trade as a carpenter. On June 19, 1793, when he was 31 years old, he was in >Morgantown, West Virginia, where he was married in the M.E. Church by John >Denham to Rhoda Little. Children were born to them, a son, James Rilea on >February 7, 1794; a daughter, Rachel, on July 9, 1795, who soon died, so >that another daughter born the following year on April 30, 1796 was also >named Rachel. Son Thomas was born April 30, 1799, and James Little on August >20, probably in 1801---the record here was torn. Son John Rilea's war record >claims he was born 9 February 1803, but the Bible records in three different >family bibles list his birth as 14 January 1803. John's death certificate >claims that he was born in Kentucky which leads us to assume that at some >time the family was in Kentucky.
>
>Other children followed, Able on 31 July 1805, Lavinia on 12 October 1808, >William on 16 March 1811, Sarah on 16 August 1813 and the youngest, Joseph, >born 18 April 1819. By that time, the family was in Brown County, Ohio ans >some of the children had married and left home. With the parents were Abel, >Lavinia, William, Sarah and Joseph, just born. We have this information from >the record of Richard's application for a pension. On the 31st of July, >1821, Richard appeared a second time in the Brown County Court, aged 59, and

He was in Mason co; a road hand building road near >stated his need for a pension: "I, Richard Rilea, am by occupation a >carpenter by infirmities and rheumatism not able to do one third labour in >pursuit of", and in accordance with the law, he listed his property...1 >mare, 2 cows, and 1 calves, 2 baskets, one table, three pair of bedsteads, >one dresser and some dresser ware, one hammer, two seader buckets and one >tin bucket. At this time he included in his family with him, his older son, >John. Perhaps John, also a carpenter, then 18 was helping to support the >family.

+ Sybil

>William RILEA and his brother, Joseph, were cabinetmakers, making furniture

>In 1848, the family moved from their home near Cincinnati, Ohio (Sardenia,

>In the spring of 1854, they moved to Clarke County, Iowa where the father

\>>Hi Jan,
>>
>>I just forwarded your info. on to two other cousins, Ed Bristle and \>>Shari Creech. Ed is a professional researcher and Shari lives in \>>Clermont Co., OH.....how lucky can we get, huh? They are really, really \>>nice.
>>
\>>Regarding that Joseph Little who was a Rev. War vet.......we are aware \>>of him too. He was born in Fayette Co., PA where all the other (W)VA

>>Littles were living in 1790. Ed could tell you all of this much better >>than I, but here goes......
>>
>>There is a family history written about Adonijah Little. The immigrant >>ancestor was John Little from England in the 1600's. In the 1790 census >>for Fayette Co., PA we have Littles: Absolom, Adonijah, Esther, Esther, >>Job, John, John Daniel, Stokely P.
>>
>>I have a copy of the Grantor "Index to Deeds" Monongalia Co., WVA:
>>
>>Jehu Little to Benjamin Reeder- 1796 Paw Paw Creek
>>Jehu Little to John Evans, Jr. - 1796 "
>>Keziah Little (widow of Adonijah) to Benjamin Reeder - 1796 Paw Paw

>>Josiah " to Henry Johnson 1847 Pedlare Run
>>Thomas J. & w. " to Sylvester Wilson 1883 Days Run
>>The rest are 1900 sales
>>
>>So, we have the Fayette Co., PA Littles in WV. Stokley is also here >>somewhere (can't remember which record he's in).
>>
>>Then, they are in KY, then in Brown Co., OH. I believe Ed said the

>>(you know, where all the pioneers launched off to the west). Abel and >>James were also involved in a a lawsuit regarding land on the Falls of >>the Ohio.
>>
>>I haven't come across the name Jacobs, but perhaps Ed or Shari have.

>>
>>For siblings, ~~IF Rhoda is a sister, we have:~~
>>
>>Rhoda, Sybil, (prob) Sarah, Abel, James and Jehu. Ed is fairly certain

>>Here's something Ed wrote up:
>>
>>Kim
>>This is the Little line as I believe it runs (I think).
>>There was a John Little who owned land in the Elizabethtown, New Jersey >>area as early as 1667. Their is a strong possibility that he was married >>at this time, but this marriage, if it did in fact exist, has not been >>proven. His only marriage to be found in the New Jersey archives is that >>of the 26th day of Aril, 1680. His bride was Miss Mary White, the >>daughter of his neighbor Robert White. Robert and Agatha White were the >>owners of a large tract of land contiguous to Johns parcel of 400 >>acres. Robert White was one of the original "Eighty Associates" those >>eighty collists in the earliest days of New Jersey who banded together >>to better settle in area. This was as early as 1664. The origin and >>ancestors of the whites have likewise not been determined. John Littell >>was a carpenter. We find where he was assigned a three-year service of >>an apprentice, William Madox, in 1680. A few months later Madox filed >>from his involuntary servitude and John Littell is on record where he >>notified the authorities of the loss of his property. He asked that a >>hue and cry go forth in the land for the return of his servant. John >>Littell died in Elizabathtown, New Jersey after April 8, 1713, the date >>of his will, and before May 2, 1713, the date his will was probated. In >>his will he named his wife and four sons, Robert, Anthony, Jonathan and >>John as his heirs. He >>distributed more than 230 acres of land by this will. His widow, Mary White (d/o Robert White & agatha?

chn Mary, Ann m. Thomas Lee, Wm., Andrew, Elizabeth >>died between April 1715 and August 29th of the same year. Her will >>named her three daughters; Martha, Constancy and Confort.
>>
>>Thus it is established that Anthony Littell was the son of John and Mary >>(White) Littell. He was born in Elizabethtown, New Jersey about 1686.
>>Anthony was twice married. His First wife's name was Elizabeth, but >>other than that we know nothing of >>at the time he made his will in 1731. Anthony's second wife was Mary >>Elizabeth (Jouet) Ladner. Here we do establish a Huguenot line, >>Elizabeth Jouet, emigrants from France, and protestants.

>>certain real estate in the Elizabethtown area. The identity of the >>children and grandchildren of this Henry Norris might be of considerable >>interest to we descendants of the man we honor today as we will later >>said that he married a Mary Norris in Fayette County, >>Pennsylvania. Anthony Littell's will, calling his a Elizabeth, was dated >>October 9, 1731. He died about four years after he executed his will. It >>is interesting to note the names of his children; seven began with the >>letter A; Absalom, Abraham, Andrew, Anthony, Adonijah, Amos and >>Abigail. The last two daughters were named Mary and Ruth, and of course >>the daughter of his first wife previously mentioned, Elizabeth.

>>Abssalom Littell was names as executor of his father's will. This would >>establish the fact that he must have been 21 years of age by October >>1731, the date of that will. For a time Absalom (Sr.) lived at willow >>Grove a few miles west of Elizabethtown, as did his brothers Abraham, >>Andrew and Anthony. He was a millwright at Willow grove until about 1744 >>when he move to Sussex County Delaware. His brothers Adonijah, Amos and >>Anthony and his sister Ruth also made this move to Sussex County about >>the same time. It would appear that his family was a closely knit one >>as through the many migrations they accompanied or followed other >>members of the family. This was true then the family moved from >>Delaware to Pennsylvania. In Delaware Absalom Littell settled in the >>Southern District of Broad-Kiln Hundred and there married Esther >>Pettyjohn, daughter of William and Elizabeth (Claypool) Pettyjohn. The >>Pettyjohn line can be traced back to James of Virginia in about 1658.

Dear Sir:

You are advised that it appears from the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim, W.2187, that Richard Rilea was born March 27, 1762, place not stated.

STATEMENT OF WILLIAM RILEA

The State of Ohio Brown County Court of Common Pleas.

Personally appeared in open court before said court and in person WILLIAM RILEA who being duly sworn on his oath states that he verily believes that he was thirty years of age on the Sixteenth day of March last and that he is the son of RICHARD RILEA & RHODA RILEA who is an applicant for a pension and that he resides in Brown County Ohio.

This deponent further states that on or about the seventeenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty one in Washington Township at the house of his said mother in said county of Brown he this deponent tore the enclosed leaf containing a record of the marriage of his father and mother and the dates of the ages of part of their children, given as record testament the property of his said mother and that he this deponent about ten or eleven years past in Brown County Ohio copied the record on said leaf and wrote the same in words and figures as it now stands on this annexed leaf - from an old family Bible the property of his said Father and which record was thus recognized hereto and believed by his said Father and Mother and ten children as the true and genuine record of time of marriage and of the births of ten children. This deponent further says that his reason for copying the same from the old family Bible into the said new testament was that the said family Bible was old and going to and he copied the same at that time for preservation at the request of his mother for the preservation of said record. That the family Bible from which he copied the same same was the family Bible of his Father -
This deponent can recollect and he has been informed and believes that it was the first Bible his Mother ever owned.

This deponent verily believes that the record herewith annexed contains the true and only record of the marriage of his Father & Mother and that the record from which the same was copied has been lost or destroyed and that this record is a true & correct copy thereby. This deponent has not seen said old record for many years and further this deponent said not.

~~W~~Satisfactory evidence was this day produced in open court before the Court of Common ~~P~~leas of Brown County State of Ohio now in Session, that WILLIAM RILEA who has sworn and subscribed to an affadavit in support of the claim of RHODA RILEA for a pension is a creditable person and that his statements in said affadavit are entitled to credit."

The State of Ohio Brown County Court of Common Pleas.

Personally appeared in open Court before said Court now in session William Pile who being duly sworn on his oath states that he verily believes that he was thirty years of age on the eighteenth day of March last and that he is the son of Richard Pile and Rhoda Pile who is an applicant for a pension and that he resides in Brown County Ohio

This deponent further saith that on or about the seventeenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty one in Washington township at the house of his said mother in said County of Brown, he this deponent took the enclosed leaf containing a record of the marriage of his father and mother and the dates of the ages of part of their children, from a New testament the property of his said mother and that he this deponent about ten or eleven years past in Brown County Ohio copied the record he made a copy and wrote the same in words and figures as it now stands on the annexed leaf from the old family Bible the property of his said Father which record was then recognized treated and believed by his said Father and Mother and their children as the true and genuine record of their marriage and of the births of their children. This deponent further says that his reason for copying the same from the old family Bible into the said New testament was that the said family Bible was old & going to loss and he copied the same at that time for preservation

DECLARATION OF RHODA RILEA, Oct. 4, 1839 (65 years old)

State of Ohio, Brown County Court of Common Pleas, September Term A.D. 1839--

On Fourth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty nine personally appeared before the honorable judges of the court of common pleas of this county and state aforesaid RHODA RILEA a resident of said county of Brown aged sixty five years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on her oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provisions made by the Act of Congress passed July 7th A.D. 1838 entitled An Act granting half pay and pensions to certain widows: That she is the widow of RICHARD RILEA deceased late of same county of Brown and who was a private soldier in the Army of the Revolutionary War.--That said RICHARD RILEA was a Revolutionary Pensioner of the United States under the Act of Congress passed the 18th of March 1818.

That he drew a pension of ninety six dollars a year from the eighth of May 1819 until the time of his death--his pension certificate bears the date twenty first day of June A.D. 1819.

For an account of the services of said RICHARD RILEA this deponent refers to the proof already on file in the office of the Secretary at War at Washington City. She further declares that she was married to the said RICHARD RILEA on the nineteenth day of June in the year seventeen hundred and ninety three by the Rev. John Dunham of the Methodist Church, and that her husband the aforesaid RICHARD RILEA died in said county of Brown on the seventh day of August eighteen hundred and thirty nine that she was not married to him previous to his leaving the service but the marriage took place previous to the first day of January seventeen hundred and ninety four to wit at the time above stated, that since the death of said RICHARD RILEA she has not been married to any other person.

She herewith files the family record of her family kept by her husband which has been in the possession of her family ever since her marriage with said RICHARD RILEA. She has taken it out of a small Bible of her said husband.

Sworn and submitted this day and year aforesaid in open court.

I, Sybyl Jacobs residing in Brown County Ohio, sister of RHODA RILEA aged seventy years do certify that RHODA RILEA was married to RICHARD RILEA on the 19th day of June 1793 in Western Virginia and I verily believe-I was not present at the time they were married. I know that they were to be married about that time and were soon after that time keeping house as man and wife and were reputed in the neighborhood to be married..

Hello,
That was not a problem.
Thought I would send this, just in case something you can use.
I will call you regarding Marriage Index. I tried earlier this week, you were probably mowing or whatever.
